WHY GIRLS LEAVE HOME

(Portland Spectator) Dish-washing is made much more pleasant if pots and pans are cleaned up as far as possible during the preparation of the meal. The best order, in which to conduct this rite of table-clearing and dish-washing is to scrape and stack each type of dish to itself at the right of the dish pan and in the order in which they are to be washed, as the dishes are brought from the dining room; a preliminary rinsing often saves having to use an extra pan of suds. Then, with plenty of hot suds and scalding water, wash the glass-ware, then the silver, and then the china; scald, wipe and drain. It is not necessary to wipe all dishes. China which is washed in good suds, stacked on edge in draining baskets made for such use, and rinsed with plenty of scalding water, does not need to be dried with a tea towel; draining dishes saves both time required for drying and time spent in washing tea towels.

PULL UP THE FLAG.

EVERY flag in Jackson county should be flying Armistice Day. It seems hardly necessary to mention this obvious duty, but according to reliable report, there is, in certain quarters, considerable reluctance to follow the suggestion of the Legion committee.

What does this mean? Does it mean un-Americanism; does it mean disloyalty; does it mean a hostile attitude toward the spirit of our latest National Holiday?

Hardly that. But it does mean indifference; it does mean thoughtlessness; it does mean that following the high emotion of war, some unfortunate citizens have patriotically gone to sleep.

They need to be awakened. We trust by this time they are awakened. Patriotism is not a sentiment to display in time of war, and forget in time of peace. It is a sentiment for 365 days in the year, and 24 hours in the day. And displaying the flag on November 11th, is merely a proper expression of that sentiment.

The flag is a symbol. It is a symbol of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation. It has no significance or character in itself, its significance and character depend upon what we, as a people, put into it. Raising the flag is simply putting yourself into it.

Armistice Day commemorates the fact that two million young men of America were willing—and thousands did,—die for it,—that is for their country of which the flag is the official emblem. It seems a paltry thing to ask, that the millions for whom these young men died should raise that flag on the day that marks the success of their sacrifice.

Certainly this is the least we can do. It seems incredible that it should be necessary to persuade anyone to do it.

A RETURN TO NORMALCY.

YESTERDAY'S state elections show a decided return to normalcy. Kentucky normally is democratic, New York City is normally Tammany democratic and every mid campaign is normally reactionary from the preceding presidential election. So it is not properly speaking a great democratic victory, but neither is it precisely that "Return to Normalcy" which we presume the originator of that phrase, had in mind.

SHOWING OFF.

MY NEW green car was slick as grease, and yestere'en I took my niece and neighbors three or five; and as we scorchered along the ways I pulled off sundry fancy plays, to show how I could drive, I drove so close to other cars that divers fenders bore the scars of this unseemly strife; I swung 'round corners on two wheels, and laughed to scorn the tragic spicels of jays who dodged for life. But when a man acts like a boob there always is some other rube who'll beat him at his game; a reckless skate ran into me, and now my person you may see all busted up and lame. My niece is nursing many wounds, and saying words like "Chee!" and "Zounds!" She even mutters "Pshaw!" The passengers who were my guests are planning for some drastic tests in the abode of law. I sit here in a plaster cast, and now I know full well, at last, that "Safety First" is wise; there is no sense in fancy tricks, endangering the lives of liels and skates and jakes and guys. There is no sense in running cars so they resemble shooting stars in their erratic course; there is no sense in pulling stunts, while the traffic cops, with martial fronts, denounce you till they're hoarse. And when I leave my couch of pain and once again propel my wain among the surging erowds, I'll be so cautious men will say "If everyone would drive that way, there'd be a slump in shrouds!"

LOCAL APPLES WIN PORTLAND SHOW

John A. Westerlund arrived in Medford this morning with four prizes which were won by his apple exhibit at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition. Hood River and The Dalles, received first honors on the 25 box entries. Mr. Westerlund is of the opinion that the exposition, which began Saturday, November 5, and will terminate Saturday, Nov. 12th, is the finest Livestock and agricultural exhibit which has been seen in the state for some time.

Pershing Refuses To Ride; Will Walk In Armistice Parade

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—General Pershing will trudge afoot all the long way from the capitol to Arlington national cemetery, next Friday, to pay honor to America's unknown soldier. The leader under whom the unknown hero served in France declined today to serve as grand marshal and ride at the head of the funeral escort. As a member of the American expeditionary forces General Pershing regards himself as a mourner at the symbolic funeral and he will walk the five miles.

F. C. REIMER URGES EVERYONE TO SEE APPLE EXPOSITION

I was one of the judges at the Apple show, hence had an opportunity of seeing and examining the fruit critically. I wish to state that this was one of the very finest Apple shows that I have ever seen and I have judged at numerous fruit shows and fairs. Every person in the valley should see this exhibit. It will pay you to make a special trip to Medford to see this. The exhibit at night, especially the view from the outside, is a wonderful sight. Make it a special point to see this exhibit on Armistice Day. I will be at the Exhibit building on Thursday evening, November 10th from 7 to 9 p. m. to explain to every one interested why the prizes were awarded to the various exhibits. This information should prove very helpful to the exhibitors. Come to one of the finest Apple shows you have ever seen. F. C. REIMER, Southern Oregon Experiment Station.

JUST WHAT WAS REQUIRED SAYS PORTLAND MAN

"For eight years," said John Nelson, well-known carpenter residing at 874 Montana Ave., Portland, Oregon, "I had all kinds of trouble with my stomach. I had to keep myself on a light diet, and even then I suffered terribly with indigestion. I used to eat my dinner every day under a bread, for this indigestion often got so bad I turned so weak I could hardly keep on the job. In trying to find something to help me I even took a trip to California, but I kept going from bad to worse and suffering more and more. "At last some of my friends put me on to Tanlac and it proved to be just what my stomach needed. My appetite is fine now, and I eat my dinner and then go ahead working in the afternoon just as well as I ever could for nothing I eat hurts me the least bit. My whole system is stronger and better in every way, and I feel full of pep and energy. Tanlac is simply splendid, and I am glad to let others know about it." Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by the West Side Pharmacy, and by leading druggists everywhere. Adv.
