

Much Suffering Caused by Waste Products in the Blood

What Science Knows About the Matter and How It Is Best Treated.

The blood is more important than any of the organs. It is thru the blood that the whole human body is directly or indirectly nourished. The blood gets its nourishment from the intestines. The intestines also contain waste products—undigested foods, acids, gases and refuse, which sometimes get in the blood.

When waste products get in the blood, nature will strive to cast them out. If your resistance is strong enough, nature will probably succeed. But if you are "below par," weak, run-down, and nervous, nature will begin to show signs of distress.

As a result, you will have that feeling of fatigue. You will lack the energy you need for the day's duties and pleasure. Minor ailments will begin to affect you—pimples, blackheads, and boils.

If the waste products are not gotten out of the blood at this point, it is possible a more serious skin eruption or disease will begin to show itself.

It is not infrequent for waste products to settle in the muscles and joints and cause rheumatism.

Listen to nature's warning. Your blood is your fountain source of energy—therefore keep your blood rich and pure.

For over 50 years, thousands and thousands of men and women have relied on S. S. S. to clear their blood of waste products. S. S. S. will improve the quality of your blood by relieving you of the waste products which cause impoverished blood and its allied troubles—skin disorders, rheumatism and a lowered vitality.

He is helping people every day to regain their health and strength. Ask him to send you his illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free. S. S. S. is sold by all drug stores.

RIVERSIDE CLUB ENTERTAINMENT A BIG SUCCESS

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 10.—(Special)—The Riverside Recreation Club entertained the ladies of the Civic Improvement Club of Rogue River and a few invited guests from Gold Hill and Medford Thursday afternoon, Nov. 2, at the Community club house. After the short business session conducted by the president of the club, Mrs. Maude Champlin, a very enjoyable program was given by the following ladies:

Vocal solo—"The Bells of St. Mary's," by Mrs. Furnas of Medford.

Vocal solo—"On a Hill Top," by Mrs. Sanderson of Gold Hill.

A humorous reading from O. Henry, by Mrs. Gay and vocal solo, "One Fleeting Hour," by Miss Dunette of Gold Hill.

A long table was set in the large room of the club house, beautifully decorated with the club colors, pink and green, there being large bowls of pink roses, also pink and green ribbon streamers. Thirty-eight were seated at the table. The committee on refreshments, Mrs. Fannie Pickett, Mrs. Georgia Kettle and Miss Lyndall Jacobs, served very delicious refreshments consisting of salad and wafers, olives, angel food cake and coffee. Short speeches from members of both clubs were much enjoyed.

The next meeting of the recreation club will be Nov. 17th at the Rozalis ranch and will be a covered luncheon.

The last dance given by the Community Club Saturday evening, Nov. 5, was well attended and a good time reported by all. The prize waltz was an enjoyable feature of the occasion. SAN FRANCISCO'S SILENT TRIBUTE 9 THIS MORNING

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Crowds gathered early today at the civic auditorium and civic center to hear, through telephonic devices, President Harding's speech and the other audible features of the Armistice day ceremonies at Arlington cemetery, Washington, in honor of the nation's unknown soldier dead.

The long distance speech, which headed the day's program here, was followed by local tributes to the fallen heroes, presentation of the colors to disabled veterans, a parade of military organizations, open air concert, fireworks, a sham battle and a football game between American Legion and Mare Island marine elevens.

Banks, business houses and public buildings were closed and flags on all public buildings and harbor vessels were half mast.

At exactly nine o'clock a solemn hush spread over the city. All traffic halted, including harbor ferries, and Santa Fe and Southern Pacific train service ceased while everywhere men stood uncovered, reverently bowed heads, in two minutes of silent tribute to the fallen.

While San Francisco seemed to be the center of western observance, in nearly every city and town from Seattle to San Diego and throughout the mountain region parades, speeches and patriotic programs marked the third anniversary of Armistice Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wolfolk of Grants Pass were visiting at F. F. Groves on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grove of Klamath Falls were week end visitors at F. F. Groves.

Mrs. Will Jordan has returned to her home, after a few days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Pittock at Tumberg.

Mrs. M. A. Griffin returned to her home at Grants Pass last Monday, after a two week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. F. F. Grove.

Mrs. Will Jordan was a pleasant caller at Mrs. F. F. Groves' and Mrs. Herbert Ellmore's last Wednesday.

Mrs. Fred Ruch visited Mrs. Herbert Ellmore last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Mee motored to Medford one day last week.

Mrs. Fred Ruch visited Mrs. Grove last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Bingham motored to Provoist one day last week.

Mrs. John Bingham and daughter, Miss Alice, visited Mrs. Grove last Monday afternoon.

Charlie Ellmore has been quite sick for several days, but is improving at this writing.

The Halloween pie social and entertainment given by the school children at the Thompson Creek school house proved to be quite a success. Those present report a fine time.

Miss Alice Bingham and Mrs. Billy Kinsman were Grants Pass visitors one day last week.

THOMPSON CREEK

THE theoretical defense was impressed by the simulation of dead and wounded among those going forward undaunted and unheeding. As this panorama of unutterable destruction visualized the horrors of modern conflict there grew on me the sense of the failure of a civilization which can leave its problems to such crude arbitrament. Surely no one in authority with human attributes and full appraisal of the patriotic loyalty of his countrymen, could ask the manhood of kingdom, empire or republic to make such sacrifice until all reason had failed, until appeal to justice through understanding had been denied, until every effort of love and consideration for fellow man had been exhausted, until freedom itself and inviolate honor had been brutally threatened.

War Hated Not Feared

I speak not as a pacifist fearing war, but as one who loves justice and hates war. I speak as one who believes the highest function of government is to give its citizens the security of peace, the opportunity to achieve and the pursuit of happiness.

The loftiest tribute we can bestow today—the heroically earned tribute—fashioned in deliberate conviction, out of unclouded thought, neither shadowed by remorse nor made vain by fancies, is the commitment of this republic to an advancement never made before. If American achievement is a cherished pride at home, if our unselfishness among nations is all we wish it to be and ours is a helpful example in the world, then let us give of our influence and strength, let us put mankind on a little higher plane, exalting and exalting with war's distressing and depressing traumas barred from the stage of righteous civilization.

Era of Peace

There have been a thousand defenses justly and patriotically made; a thousand defenses which reason and righteousness ought to have stayed; let us beseech all men to join us in seeking the rule under which reason and righteousness shall prevail.

Standing today on hallowed ground, conscious that all America has halted to share in the tribute of heart and mind and soul to this fellow American and knowing that the world is noting th' expression of the republic's mindfulness, it is fitting to say that his sacrifice and that of the millions dead, shall not be in vain. There must be, there shall be, the commanding voice of a conscious civilization against armed warfare.

As we return this poor clay to its mother soil, garlanded by love and covered with the decorations that only nations can bestow, I can sense the prayers of our people, of all peoples, that this armistice day shall mark the beginning of a new and lasting era of peace on earth, good will among men. Let me join in that prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and glory forever, Amen.

Indian Chief Is There

The invited guests including great chiefs of the war, were seated in the boxes of the amphitheater and in the long rows of marble benches, and thousands were standing. Thousands more stood outside, or anywhere, to merely be near.

Just before 11:15 o'clock the caisson bearing the flag-draped coffin rolled up to the west entrance and was removed by the body bearers, and was borne tenderly within and placed on the catafalque. The great audience rose and stood uncovered as it passed in followed by General Pershing and the distinguished officers of the army and navy as mourners.

Marshal Poch and his staff came in with all his war medals across his breast. General Jacques, the Belgian chief, also came and the two strolled about the marble colonnade behind their boxes, exchanging greetings. General Diaz of Italy joined them. Together the three moved with the Japanese mission to the place where the body lay.

Ambassador Geddes, in full British diplomatic uniform, brought flowers of ferns for the dead from England's king, with a guard of British officers.

Chief Plenty Cook, of the Crow Indians, attired in full war regalia, feathered bonnet, furs and skins of variegated colors was seated on the platform joining the group of distinguished military leaders from Europe.
