EDEN PRECINCT

(By Mrs. Mary O. Carey)

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Stephens, of North Talent, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Henry of Brownboro.

Mrs. Fietner, who is an aunt of Mrs. J. W. Watkins, south of Phoenix, returned to her home at Waco, Ia., this week, after a couple of months' visit with Mrs. Watkins and family.

Mrs. E. E. Furry of Phoenix, left Saturday for Rancho, California, to visit her son, Milo Furry, and family and with other friends in the Sacramento valley.

Clyde Hall in Phoenix is undergoing some repairs. Mr. A. H. Houston has the work in charge, for the ladies' aid. A new roof and a coat of paint for both the outside and inside as well as other interior work.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Combs of Talent were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. B. N. French last Sunday.

Mrs. J. C. Ward of Wagoner creek, who has been sick for some time, is improving, under the care of Dr. Mahogren of Phoenix.

The young peoples' union workers, converts of the Bulgian meetings, in Medford, go out to the Wagoner creek school house every Sunday, and hold meetings.

These meetings are very much enjoyed by the people of that locality. There is a big Sunday school class each Sunday at this place, and the young people are doing good work.

Mrs. Donna Graffias informs your correspondent, that she has planted four thousand two hundred tulip bulbs in her grounds at the old Samuel Furry homestead in East Eden. Many persons who visited her gardens last spring, will remember the beauty of the tulip beds.

Professor Reimer will leave Talent Thursday for California on business, which will detain him about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wines were guests at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lockwood of the Whitewing Poultry Farm near Phoenix last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roberts have moved into their home, which they have lately purchased in Phoenix. Mr. Roberts is clearing off the lot which he bought and preparing to build a poultry house, and a barn for his cow.

The Jobe Wilder bungalow is nearing completion and will really be a credit to the little town of Phoenix. The many friends of this elderly, hardworking couple rejoice with them that they decided to build this pretty and convenient home, in which to spend their declining years.

Mrs. Lyle Briner of Wagoner creek came near meeting with a serious accident one day last week. Mrs. Briner and a girl friend were out in the woods with Mr. Briner, hauling wood. The women were helping load the big truck. Mrs. Briner can drive the truck and likes to do so. She had gotten out to crank the car, leaving Mrs. Briner in the seat, and when she cranked the car, Miss Snook threw it in gear, when it lurched forward, just pinning Mrs. Briner for a moment against some wood. Instantly the girl reversed the engine, letting it go back, and leaving Mrs. Briner only slightly bruised. Had she not have acted quickly, the heavy truck would have crushed Mrs. Briner.

In my items last week a slight error crept in. The item stated that Mrs. Gamball was a daughter of Mrs. W. Barnum. It should have said she was a sister-in-law. The error occurred through there being a blank left in the item.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Peachy of Medford, were guests at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stauch last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rice of Rich, were visiting their daughter, Mrs. Walter Allen at her pleasant home south of Phoenix last Sunday.

A. S. Furry had the misfortune to lose a very valuable watch dog last Tuesday by his being run over by an auto, while fighting another dog out on the highway.

Lloyd Colver of Phoenix is planning to have one of the largest poultry establishments in this part of the state, and is having one of the largest and most modern houses built for that purpose. The house will be twenty by one hundred and sixty feet in size and will house several thousand hens. White Leghorns are the breed which he intends to keep.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rader spent last Sunday with Mrs. Diders' sister, Mrs. Effie Taylor in Medford. Mrs. Taylor entertained several other friends also at dinner.

Last Monday morning about five o'clock the large barn on the Wellen Brownson place was burned to the town of hay belonging to Mr. Pheland, ground, together with about forty tons of hay belonging to Mr. Pheland.

Louie Colver had a demonstrator of one of the new tractor plows from Hubbard Brothers out on his farm one day last week. Although the ground was very dry the plow did fine work, turning the soil to a depth of ten to twelve inches.

Dyed Her Tan Skirt to Make Child a Dress

Buy "Diamond Dyes" and follow the simple directions in every package. Don't wonder whether you can dye or tint successfully, because perfect home dyeing is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes even if you have never dyed before. Worn, faded dresses, skirts, waists, coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, hangings, everything become like new again. Just tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. Diamond Dyes never streak,

BUTTE FALLS

We are receiving the first indications of winter this morning, in the form of the great white flake.

Mr. and Mrs. Barker were out to the city Armistice Day.

Joe Pool and family, have moved into the Boughton house. They came from Brownboro, or the Bell orchard, where Mr. Pool has been foreman for several years.

Charles Patton, who was operated on for appendicitis has recovered so rapidly his folks expect him home this week.

The planing mill has been running lately.

Miss Wilson was visiting in the city Saturday.

J. Doubleday has had a large barn erected on his ranch this fall. Frank Neithard has been conducting the work.

The surveyors are still working, above town on the Olds railroad to Four-bit. Mr. Cox also has a bunch of men working on the railroad track between here and Eagle Point. Most all of the vacant houses are taken, getting ready for the spring rush.

Rupert Gleason and family moved to Portland where he will continue working for the Associated Oil company.

Sam Hughes and his mother drove out to Medford Saturday.

Lester Smith returned to Brownboro Friday where he is working for his brother-in-law, E. Cowden.

Mrs. H. Cox left for an extended visit in Portland with her children.

Mrs. Lowe is visiting in Portland. The school board has opened up a kindergarten in the church. Miss Prettyman, the music and art teacher of the high school, is their teacher two hours each forenoon. Those in attendance the first day were Margaret Cadzaw, Leaurance Barker, Robert and Lenor Baker, Calvin Stoddard.

Benjamin Edmondson Sr., passed away Sunday evening after a lingering illness of several months. He was one of the first settlers in Butte Falls country, and well known throughout the valley and was troubled seven times, during the trouble here with the Indians. He leaves to mourn his loss a loving wife of 60 years, and six children, who were all at his bedside. The vicinity extends their sympathy to the bereaved ones.

The Palmer family have moved back to town.

A. Dupree is finishing up his two houses, and will have them ready for renters soon.

Mrs. Ray Spencer is moving into the Ora Morse house.

The school budget was put to a vote the 7th and carried 24 to 13 against.

Mr. Stoddard delivered a new leather couch to the rest room in the school house Saturday. Also lights for the play shed.

The basket ball team is training for outside games.

The high school gave a play Thursday evening which was well attended, a very good little play, for short practice. After the play they danced in the shed for two or three hours, although it was somewhat chilly to spectators.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Rod Baker drove out to Medford to take part in the celebration the 11th as they were both ex-service men.

Buel Hildreth went out to parade with the Spanish war veterans. His wife and A. E. Hildreth accompanied him, also Mrs. Alice Tugate.

Mrs. Cleverance and family were out taking in the sight. The parade was the best ever seen in Medford.

Vealo Hughes went out to have her teeth treated Saturday.

Mrs. Arlene Jackson, Gertrude Fredenburg, Gertie Spencer and Herold Patton drove down at an early hour to witness the parade and other sights.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Ed Nichols of Butte Falls, was a passenger on the Butte Falls stage last Saturday on his way home.

Mrs. E. Waite of Wellen, was also a passenger on the Eagle Point stage on her way home from Medford and went out on the Wellen stage.

Frank Manning of Florence Rock district and his son Charley and his three sisters, Miss Dicy Manning and Mrs. Tracy Boothby and Mrs. J. L. Givens came in Saturday for dinner. They were on their way to take in the sights of Medford. Mr. Manning is one of the highly respected citizens of the Florence Rock section, and was married at the old Free Ferry by your correspondent something like a quarter of a century ago to Miss Phipps, and has lived ever since on his old homestead.

And Charles Parrant also came in for dinner the same day. Mr. Parrant has been engaged running a sprinkler and the Crater Lake highway and boarded for a long time with us, but when the crusher was moved he had to move with it but now he is through with that job and expects to start for his home in Salem in a short time.

Fred Barnburg of Medford, and Dave Pence of Elk creek, who for some years was the road supervisor in the Trail road district, called for dinner Sunday, and so did Mr. Isbell who is managing the Wm. Von der Hellen goat ranch on Reese creek and Thos. Harry and George Lewis of Eagle Point, Buster McClelland, a young man who has made his home at the Sunnyside for the last eight or ten years, and John Foster of Medford were here for dinner Sunday, and later in the day Artie Nichols and wife of Fort Klamath and John W. Smith and family of Medford, that is their postoffice although they live on the old John Smith ranch on Big Sticky near the Roosevelt school house, called later in the afternoon for a visit.

Rev. Charles C. Hulet, a traveling Sunday school evangelist of the Presbyterian church, called on our Sunday school Sunday morning and gave us a short but very interesting talk on the 23d Psalm and then went on up to Derby to meet another appointment, and I have learned through Mrs. W. H. Crandall that they had a very interesting service.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith of Ashland were here in town Sunday, visiting relatives. It seems that they were making their rounds visiting different relatives over the valley.

Chris C. Beale of Butte Falls who has been making the Sunnyside his home since he came in from the Look-out service, started up to his ranch beyond Butte Falls, with a team and outfit he recently purchased.

T. G. Spangler, of Prospect, came out Monday on his way to South Bend, Indiana to visit his daughter and other relatives. He intended to go through the Panama canal on his way for a change.

Mrs. Ellen Phillips and son W. B. Phillips of Trail, came in from Medford Monday and went on up home on the Trail stage.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Clarno of Reese creek were business callers Monday.

Mrs. A. L. Young of Prospect and son Paul Young of Medford came in from Medford on the stage Sunday on their way to Prospect.

Sam Courtney, our boss painter and paperhanger was in town Monday and while here gave me a subscription for the Medford Mail Tribune for his wife. At that time he was doing a job of papering for Wm. Von der Hellen.

Marsh Garrett of Medford, and M. C. Murphy of Portland were business callers Monday.

Wm. Nichol and Charley Klingie of Lake creek were also business callers Monday.

John Norris, the foreman on the Willey orchard, has moved his family into the T. F. Holtz house in our town so as to have his son attend our school.

There was another large steam shovel went up through our town to be used on the Fish Lake canal Monday.

Charles M. Gillmore of Paul's Electric store and Mr. Paul himself, of Medford, were here for dinner Monday. They had brought out an electric washing machine for Mrs. Thomas F. Nichols and now she intends to have the washing done without so much work.

Benj. Edmondson and wife and Mrs. McKinnies of Butte Falls, and W. J. Coggens of Medford and C. M. Sims and S. L. Stewart, state bank examiners, Salem, Ore., George Nichols, Jr., Medford and L. L. Miller and F. B. Miller, stockmen of Roseburg, R. B. Price and Frank Rhodes, the contractors on the unit of the Crater Lake highway from Reese creek to the new concrete bridge across Rogue river, Lee Benson and Paul Wright, Frank Ditsworth and wife of Peyton were here at the Sunnyside for dinner Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hulce, the present owner of the Archable farm just above Brownboro, passed through here on their way home from Portland where they had been to attend the stock show and he reports that the stock was fully up to date and he spoke of one sow that was on exhibition that weighed in the neighborhood of 800 pounds and that her pigs, Poland China, sold readily at $50 per head and that all the reason he did not buy some of them was that he was not ready to care for them and had no provision to care for them at home, but expects to go up again next fall and be prepared to buy at least a pair of them. Mr. Hulce is supplying his farm with some of the best stock he can get especially cows and hogs. Wm. Staub of Brownboro was with Mr. and Mrs. Hulce going home.

E. J. Leitz, one of the men who run a sprinkler on the Crater Lake Highway this summer and went back up to Salem, his home, returned to the Sunnyside Monday and so did Charles Parrant, but they expect to return to Salem in a short time.

Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Trail, who lives at the site of the new Rogue river bridge has been visiting her son-in-law, Dave Smith here for the past few days.

Jos. Semple, former foreman on the Alivista orchard, but now has charge of the Eden Valley orchard, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wiedman last Sunday.

Thos. J. Estal of Reese creek, has finished his new house and moved into it last Sunday.

Thos E. Nichols and Walter Wood made a business trip to Medford the first of the week.

CENTRAL POINT

Mrs. Jennie Merritt of Gold Hill, former prominent Central Point resident, was a guest Sunday at the home of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Burzell.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grieve and son Heston, spent the week end with their kinmen, Postmaster and Mrs. Guy Tex and while here took in the Armistice day celebration at Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher of Derrell, Kan., have been the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Robert Kyle and family here for the past several weeks. Mrs. Fisher having been called away by business left a few days ago for her home in the central state. Enroute she will visit with relatives and friends at Lebanon, Oregon and Seattle, Wash. Mr. Fisher will remain here for a few weeks longer visit and will probably spend the winter here following his trade as carpenter in order to escape the severe winter in Kansas.

Mrs. Wm. Tethrow entertained the West Side Sewing club at her prett suburban home here recently. Nearly all members of the club were present and as the happy hours flew busy fingers worked speedily on pretty Kansas gifts, and happy voices were heard gladly raised in conversation as they bent over their work. The hours flew too fast and household duties called the housewives home to prepare the evening meal long before any were ready to go. A fitting climax to the afternoon's entertainment were the delicious refreshments which the charming hostess served in great abundance. All present report the afternoon one of the most enjoyable ones ever had by them.

News of the tragic and sudden death of Mrs. Luella Wright (nee Luella Gibson) in Portland several days ago reached here the early part of last week and was received with real sorrow and regret by her many friends here. Mrs. Wright was the oldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, former residents of this city and a prominent pioneer family of the valley. She spent her early girlhood here and had many warm and staunch friends who were deeply grieved to hear of her sudden death. She is best remembered here by those people of long residence in the city. Struck by an automobile and instantly killed, while walking along the highway with her husband, was the cause of the death of the once well known Central Point woman.

Mr. Bridane Sanderson of Gold Hill was looking after business interests here during the week.

Mrs. John Williams and Mrs. Fisher, house guest of Mrs. Rob. Kyle, were guests of honor at a reception given for them by the local Rebekah lodge recently. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of the former and was a farewell party for the latter who left the next day for her home in the east. The evening was spent in general merry making and fund and at just the right time dainties of every kind, delicious, that seldom grace a table all at one time, were set before them by the skillful hands that had prepared them and everyone ate, drank and was merry and enjoyed the evening very much. Keen regret though was expressed time and again during the evening relative to the departure of Mrs. Fisher for her Kansas home. During her short stay here she has won many friends who were sorry to lose one whom they hoped might become one of them.

Friends of Jones Olsson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paulus Olsson of this city, will be interested to hear of his recent marriage which occurred in Astoria on Sunday, November 6th. The lucky girl was Miss Zella Roth of Astoria. The event took place at the home of the bride's parents and was attended by the near friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride is a popular and well known young woman of the Oregon salmon shipping city and is prominent in social and business circles of the city. Mr. Olsson is well known here and every one esteems and thinks well of him, no more fitting thing could be said of him. The newlyweds will make their home in Astoria where Mr. Olsson holds a very good position.

Roy Bebb of the Tidings force in Ashland, visited relatives and friends here Sunday.

Wayman Warner, late of Central Point, but for the past three years a resident of the Oregon metropolis, is here this week looking after property interests and may decide to locate here again.

A rummage sale will be held here Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the local Eastern Star lodge in the Central Point opera house. The widely known and successful auctioneer, George L. Neale will sell the goods to the highest bidder. Some very good and useful articles are to be put up for sale and people looking for bargains will surely find them that day, so every one be there. Sandwiches, pumpkin pie and cider will also be served at a small cost. The proceeds of the sale will go toward helping the local lodge meet some pressing obligations.

Banker J. O. Isaheson, who in company with Lawyer Newman of Medford motored to Klamath county a few days ago and hunted ducks, has returned and brought with him his full share of the highly edible bird, thereby proving himself the successful hunter.

Miss Arlene Hay, popular little teacher in the Brophy district, took in the Armistice day celebration at Medford, enjoyed a visit with her parents here and returned to her duties as "Deestrick Schoolmarm," in the above named district Sunday afternoon.

The many Central Point friends of Miss Claudia White, successful and well known nurse, who during the war served as one of the leading nurses in Letterman General Hospital, one of the largest government hospitals in the world, in San Francisco, will be interested and pleased to hear of her recent marriage to Mr. Elmer C. Stoltz. The ceremony was solemnized in the presence of close friends and relatives in Sacramento. Mr. Stoltz is engaged in business in the California capital city and there the newlyweds will make their future home. Congratulations and the best wishes of the entire community is extended to the young couple.

Will Virgin of Portland is looking after business interests here this week and incidentally enjoying a visit with old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. White and little Miss White of Medford visited with Miss Mary A. Mee and their many friends here Sunday.

Miss Bertha Myers of Medford enjoyed a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Welch here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle and Mr. and Mrs. Grisham enjoyed a motor trip to Ashland a few days ago.
