Quill Points

Money also talks.

He laughs at men who never tried to argue the Irish question.

The mid-summer lull has little in common with the lull of restaurants, however.

How do detectives spend their time when not engaged at the business of being baffled?

Americanism: The beliefs, customs and prejudices of the man who is doing the talking.

Getting into the money, but something appears to have hit it an awful wallop.

For that matter, it might have been called the Conference on the Limitation of Taxes.

To paraphrase the approved formula, prohibition can't make half drunk and half sober.

We make slow progress on the road back to normalcy, but every now and then we pass a creek.

If the Railroad Labor Board keeps up the present stride, it may yet serve as a political plank.

Recent immigrants are Lucille Kozelicki and Khatko Nakotko. Compositors, read 'em and weep.

Let's see, what was the definition of equality in the old days before they worked in talking machines?

It's a long road that has no turning. And when you turn, it's usually the wrong road.

The ancients believed that each soul was sent direct to a human head. They may have been wrong, but moonshine acts that way.

If the grocer will spend a little time loafing about a filling station, he will learn why his patron can't pay.

Time is money, and it may be that people who appear to be wasting it are merely saving it for their old age.

About the only way to discourage reading aloud in the movies is to use three-syllable words in the subtitles.

Hard times: A season during which manufacturers must sell to individuals instead of selling to the government.

As the years pass, it becomes increasingly difficult to tell an educated man from one who owns a book of quotations.

Reporters might save leg work by getting a great man's denial of an interview at the same time they get the interview.

You can say one thing for a man with a sharply receding chin. Nature has equipped him to be a tidy tobacco cheater.

There is something strangely suggestive about Judge Lardis' contention that Halse Rutz shouldn't make money on the side.

That trade journal's campaign to elevate the business of shop-keeping has nothing in common with shoplifting, however.

Permanent waves are all right in their way, but what the small boy wants is something in the nature of a permanent bath.

The man who says we should plant vegetables in celebration of the Disarmament Conference must think it is a conference.

One fine thing about fumed-out furniture is that it doesn't show the burned spots where cigarettes are parked on the edge.

The laundries would have more fun if manufacturers would sew the superfluous buttons on shirt sleeves instead of coat sleeves.

A sufficient commentary on the manners of this age is that when a man is polite you suspect him of having something to sell you.

Once upon a time there was a garage man who fixed the thing that was wrong without getting something else out of wheel.

Still, these small sons who confound us by their skill with problems in arithmetic will forget it all by the time they have small sons.

OVERWORKED BLESSINGS

THE greatest boon becomes a bore when it's not wisely handled... HE treats his boon becomes a bore when it's not wisely handled...

SAP AND SALT BY Bert Moses

Money and reputations go easier than they come. Some people's idea of being distinguished is to order things in a restaurant when they know the house hasn't got 'em.

You can pick more winners when you don't bet than when you do.

Moderesty is a virtue in everything but the fashion business.

Grown-ups are only children who have learned how to conceal their ignorance. A woman who apologizes for her cooking can be set down as a good cook.

WE'RE IN THE BUSINESS

You'd expect a expert to know food supplies and an optometrist to know eyes, wouldn't you? And you'd go to each for points in his particular business. There is a similar reason for consulting a banker on financial matters. If some one offers you oil or mining stock; if certain bonds interest you, consult your banker before buying. It's the business of the First National to help you make more money.
