

FELT JUST LIKE IRON BAND WAS ROUND HER HEAD

Everybody will read with interest the statement of Miss M. E. Woodford, 1808 Filmore St., Lynchburg, Va., who says:

"I don't believe anybody ever suffered from headaches like I did. The pains felt like an iron band was being drawn around my head and my temples would throb until I was driven almost distracted. I shudder when I think of those awful headaches. I had no appetite either.

"I owe Tanlac an everlasting debt of gratitude for entirely ridding me of those terrible headaches. My stomach has been toned up too, and everything I eat agrees with me now. Tanlac certainly brought me health and happiness."

Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by the West Side Pharmacy, and by leading druggists everywhere. Adv.

WOOD

Best wood of all kinds. Only wood in city under cover. Also best Utah Coal at $17 off car.

VALLEY FUEL CO.

2nd and Fir Phone 74

WELCH'S
Vigor and Vitality
MALE OR FEMALE Pamphlet Free on Request. Ask for WELCH'S THE ORIGINAL. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS AND SUBSTITUTES. WELCH'S DRUG CO., 184 Eddy St., Dept. J., San Francisco, Calif. At other Druggists.

Miller's New Radiator Shop
Radiators Fenders Body Work
128 N. Grape Phone 960-11

5 BIG BOOKS For Christmas
The Snow Shoe Trail
Edison Marshall
Helen of the Old House
Harold Bell Wright
His Father's Daughter
Gene Stratton Porter
Pride of Palomar
Peter Kyne
The Flaming Forest
James Oliver Curwood
Medford Book Store
34 N. Central

Maddox & Bonney's Flower Girl
Vish your friends many happy returns
What is more charming as a birthday greeting than a bouquet or a basket of flowers? Nothing in the world, we assure you, will bring so much genuine cheer to the friend who receives them. Let us help to arrange this floral greeting.
Flower Shop at Crowson's
Phone 843, Greenhouse Phone 374
Maddox & Bonney's Flower Shop
Where you find the flowers
With Medford trade is Medford made office at 10c per bundle.

Look! 20% Off!
We will give 20% off on all Holiday orders for Pluff Rugs taken during week ending December 3.
Medford Pluff Rug Works
CHASTAIN & MILLS, Props.
706 Pine St. Phone 510-M

MANY VIOLATORS OF AUTO LAWS ARE HALED TO COURT

It is unsafe to forget and violate the law which forbids the parking of a car on the main traveled portion of a highway either in the city or country, even for a few minutes, while a state motor traffic officer is lurking about.

That is why Miss Edith Sweeney paid a fine of $5 in Justice Taylor's court. She parked her car in the roadway on Central avenue not far from East Main street Saturday forenoon for about 12 minutes, after officer J. J. McMahon first caught sight of it.

The same officer also arrested J. T. Perry of Medford for parking his car between Medford and Phoenix in the traveled highway. Mr. Perry had not appeared in court yet early this afternoon to face the charge.

V. W. Pifer and Lloyd M. Shriner of Ashland were having much sport racing along the Pacific highway through Talent when Officer McMahon came along and gathered them in. They were found guilty in Justice Taylor's court and fined $10 each.

McMahon this noon swore out warrants for the arrest of other auto violators, some for speeding and others for failure to dim lights.

TOM SWEM REVAMPS LOBBY OF RIALTO

There is an oriental atmosphere about the Rialto theater this week in keeping with the big spectacular and artistic film being shown there, "One Arabian Night," in which the great picture actress, Pola Negri, is starred.

The outside lobby of the theater has been transformed to resemble the exterior of an oriental palace, which feature was designed, painted and constructed by Mr. Thomas Swem, the eminent all-around artist, who when not artisting is plain Tom Swem, the Butte Falls district homesteader, and who consumed four packages of Turkish cigarettes, made on New York's East Side, before he got the proper amount of inspiration to carry out the scheme.

To carry out the oriental idea still farther, the Rialto's cashier, door man and ushers are garbed in Arabian costumes.

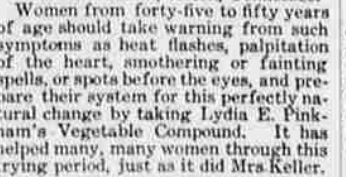

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 28.—The University of Nebraska football team will be unable to accept a game with the San Francisco team proposed in an invitation received Saturday for the reason that the team is not of college caliber, Fred W. Dushring, director of athletics, wired promoters today after receiving information on the personnel of the San Francisco team.

IN BED EIGHT MONTHS

Cause—Change of Life. How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Got Me Up

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors treating me but they did me no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and in a short time I felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good. If you think it will induce some one to try the Vegetable Compound you may publish this letter."

—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.
Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, smothering or fainting spells, or spots before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many, many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs. Keller.

GERMAN JOHN D. NOT PLEASED WITH ARMS CONFERENCE

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Europe is being treated as a negligible at the Washington conference, in the opinion of the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, the organ of Hugo Stinnes, leading German financier. It sees evidence in the circumstances that curtailing of naval armaments has been given primary consideration and that the issue of land armaments is not causing the conference apprehension.

This attitude, says the newspaper, "leaves France an indefinite franchise to continue her devastation of the European mainland."

The speech of Premier Briand, outlining to the conference France's need for a large army is characterized as "purely speculation in American sentimentality and credulity."

The speech of Premier Briand outlining to the conference France's need for a large army is characterized as "purely speculation in American sentimentality and credulity."

"The aggressive manner in which China presented her case to the conference is not warranted by her internal situation and can be explained only on the ground that she is sure of American backing," says the paper in discussing the American Far East policy.

"The United States is unselfish and with good, Japan has a surplus of humanity and the adjacent mainland affords her the only outlet for emigration."

"Thus Japanese imperialism and American peace policies oppose one another as the natural consequence of conflicting social considerations. In the final analysis, however, they harmonize; their methods alone are at variance."

GOLF MEETING WILL BE HELD TONIGHT

A meeting will be held at the public library tonight at eight o'clock for the purpose of forming the Jackson County Golf club. Everyone interested in golf is urged to attend this meeting. Mayor Gates will act as chairman and a large attendance is expected.

Sport Flashes

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Stanislaus Zbyszko, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, will defend his title here tonight in a two in three fall match with Ed (Strangler) Lewis. Zbyszko, who is more than 40 years old won the title from Lewis last spring.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Jinx, the stubborn one-eyed mule the West Point cadets borrowed from the Fort Bloom remount station for a football mascot, has been fired—kicked out.

Braying his dissatisfaction, Jinx started on his homeward journey without a wisp of hay or a single oat.

If Jinx (he was named after the game) had won Saturday's game he would have been paraded through the ball room of a swell hotel and put up for the night in a commodious, hay-filled, oat-lined stall on the roof.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 28.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion boxer, will meet Pinky Mitchell, Milwaukee, before a local club on Monday, January 2, in a ten round, no decision bout, Tom Andrews, local promoter, definitely announced today. Leonard is guaranteed $15,000 with the privilege of a percentage and Mitchell $5000. The bout will be at catchweights.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 28.—Members of the navy football team who participated in the army game Saturday, last night elected Vincent P. Conroy of Ogden, Utah, quarterback, as captain of the eleven for next season, to succeed Emory Larson, who will be graduated from the naval academy next June. Conroy is a member of the second class.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Leadership of college players of the east in individual scoring for the season goes to Eddie Kaw, the brilliant Cornell back, whose sensational finish against Pennsylvania last Thursday was just enough to nose out Malcolm Aldrich, of Yale.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Ralph Greenleaf, who won the world's pocket billiard championship for the third successive time in the recent tournament at Philadelphia, will defend his title in a challenge match here, December 21, 22 and 23, against Arthur Woods, of Minneapolis.

Irrigationists Meet.
SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 26.—Leaders of irrigation and reclamation work in the west will gather here next Tuesday and Wednesday for the meeting of the Western States Reclamation association. A tentative program has been prepared by Frank W. Brown of Boise, Idaho, and sent to Governor Charles E. Mabey here. Governors of several western states are expected to attend as well as reclamation experts from the same states.

SEEK INJUNCTION TO HALT PAYMENT REGULATORY FINES

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Attorneys for traders and commission men operating at the Chicago stock yards today asked Judge Landis for an injunction restraining the government from enforcing the penalties under the new livestock regulatory law pending a suit to test the constitutionality of the act. The penalty clauses are to become effective November 30.

The act, passed August 15, provides for the registration and regulation of all traders and commission men with heavy fines for failure to comply.

Levi Mayer and Elwood Godman, representing the livestock dealers of the yards, argued their business is purely intra-state and not subject to regulation by congress. Mr. Mayer, attorney for the traders, pointed out they buy stock at the yards and sell it there, and that at no time are they engaged in inter-state traffic.

POSTOFFICES TO HELP FIND MISSING FOLKS

The postoffice department in addition to its other multifarious duties has now added a humanitarian and sentimental feature—that of having its many thousands of employees aid in locating missing people. Postmaster Warner has just received the following order from Will H. Hays, postmaster general, which has been sent to all postmasters:

"It is my wish that the machinery of the postal service be placed at the disposal of those searching for loved ones who have dropped from sight. Every year thousands in this country are reported missing; children, young men, young women, husbands, and wives, some never to be heard of again by their distressed families and friends. The post office department with its organized facilities reaching into every corner of the land may be of practical service to the distressed. Therefore, they are willingly offered for this purpose.

"There is no intention of interference with private affairs or to act as a collection agency. Postmasters will scrutinize and investigate carefully each case reported to them, and when convinced of its genuineness will make such inquiries of other postmasters as the circumstances may warrant and advise the interested relative or friend."

ARBUCKLE ON WITNESS STAND

(Continued from page one.)

Arbuckle said he had an engagement to go out with Mrs. Taube a few minutes after Miss Rappe is alleged to have been injured by him.

"I found Miss Rappe in my room. She was on the bath room floor very sick. I assisted her.

"She was holding her abdomen and I gave her some water."

"I helped her into the bed. She said she had dizzy spells often. Then I returned Miss Rappe was on the floor rolling and moaning. I placed her on the bed again.

"While I assisted her Miss Prevost and others entered the room. I went into another room and when I came back Miss Rappe was on the bed tearing her clothes."

Arbuckle said he was dressed in bath robe and underclothing. The bathrobe was introduced and he identified it.

"Mrs. Delmont, a guest of the party told me to leave Miss Rappe. I told her to 'shut up' or I would throw her out of the window."

Arbuckle told of taking Miss Rappe from the room and into another room with the assistance of Harry Boyle, assistant manager of the hotel.

The door leading from his room to the corridor and a window of the room were open, he said.

"I did not hear Miss Rappe say 'he hurt me' or say anything that could be so understood," Arbuckle testified.

He denied having forced Miss Rappe against a door or having told Alfred Semmacher, a guest of the party that he applied ice to Miss Rappe's body.

He denied testimony by Jesse J. Norgard, janitor of the Culver City, Cal., motion picture studio that he offered Norgard a sum of money for the key to Miss Rappe's room.

His direct examination was finished at 10:50 a. m.

Arbuckle's testimony followed a futile attempt by the defense to have the testimony of Ignatius H. McCarty, fingerprint student, admitted. His testimony was desired to offset testimony by E. O. Heinrichs, fingerprint expert, regarding finger prints on the doors of Arbuckle's rooms in the Hotel St. Francis.

Arbuckle said he did not know Mrs. Delmont previous to September 5, the date of the party in which Miss Rappe is alleged to have sustained her injury. During the party Miss Rappe telephoned to a Mrs. Spreckles he said. This is believed to be Mrs. Sidi Spreckles, widow of John D.

Spreckles, Jr., prominent young capitalist.

Arbuckle never saw Alice Blake, a guest of the party, in his life before the affair, he said. Miss Zay Prevost, another guest, also was a stranger to him, he said.

"I had no idea that Miss Rappe, Mrs. Delmont, Miss Blake or Miss Prevost were coming to the party until they actually arrived," he said.

There were bottles of whiskey, gin, water and orange juice on a table in the room where the guests were, he said. Fred Fischbach, his room mate, supplied the liquor he said.

Arbuckle testified in a loud, clear voice and seemed at ease in every way. He denied knowledge of the source of the liquor other than that it was procured by Fischbach. He was eating breakfast when the guests arrived, he said.

The witness said he drank some "highballs" after breakfast. Miss Rappe asked that a piano be brought in, but later a phonograph was procured. There was much dancing after that, he said.

Arbuckle said he had made an engagement with Mrs. Taube the day before the party "to go out" the next day.

"I did not see Miss Rappe dance," he said. "I danced with Miss Blake."

Lowell Sherman, an actor, Semmacher and Ira Fortoulis, salesman, were there while the dancing was in progress, he said.

Arbuckle said he had Sherman ask Fortoulis to leave the rooms during the party.

Mrs. Taube came while the party was in progress and said she would "call back" he said.

"Mrs. Taube asked: 'Who are all these people?'"

"Search me, I don't know," Arbuckle said he replied.

Then Mrs. Taube left he said. Fischbach was out in Arbuckle's automobile during most of the party, the witness said.

"Mrs. Taube seemed 'peevish,'" Arbuckle said.

"She probably left because she was 'peevish' at the guests of the party."

"Mrs. Taube was introduced to Miss Rappe," he said.

"Miss Rappe was dressed in green skirt and jacket," he said. "I don't think her hair was down."

"I did not see her go into my room."

Arbuckle fingered a lead pencil continually during the examination, tapping it occasionally on the court reporter's table. He answered without hesitation while under cross-examination.

The court room was filled, but the crowds around it were not as dense as on past court days. Asked to make some comparisons of time according to his watch, Arbuckle replied: "I never had a watch."

"Mrs. Delmont changed her dress during the party," he said.

"I saw Miss Rappe tearing her waist and garters," he said. "Then I went out of the room." Arbuckle showed on a diagram where he was sitting with Miss Rappe before she is alleged to have been injured.

Miss Blake left "for a rehearsal" during the party and returned in a half hour, he testified.

Miss Blake, a show girl, was one of the principal witnesses against Arbuckle.

"I danced a lot with Miss Blake," he said.

"I did not tell any one that I was going into my room to get dressed or that I was going out with Mrs. Taube," Arbuckle continued.

"I went into my room and locked the door."

He was still under cross-examination at the noon recess, but Mrs. Jane Walsh, deputy coroner, followed him as a prosecution witness. She brought into court a jar said by her to contain a vital organ of Miss Rappe, said to have been ruptured by force applied by Arbuckle. Arbuckle will resume when it is proved that the organ was that of Miss Rappe.

McCarty's testimony which was to have preceded Arbuckle's, was ruled out after the defense failed to qualify him as a fingerprint expert. He had started fingerprint experiments on the door of Arbuckle's hotel room, which was in the court room, but the prosecution objected and McCarty was excused. He is a former investigator for the United States department of labor.

Wednesday and Thursday
We Give Away a Jar of Gold Fish
See Our Tuesday Advertisement
Heath's Drug Store
The San-Tox Shop
109 East Main Street.

TODAY
POLA NEGRI
IN ONE ARABIAN NIGHT . . .
More beautiful madcap ne'er three careless kisses. It is a romance of the harem.
PRICES Adults50c
Children25c
Loges50c
Includes War Tax
RIALTO
THURSDAY—HOOT GIBSON in "ACTION"

Are YOU Just "Dubbing" Along?
Will you do the same work ten or twenty years from now that you are doing today? Is there anything ahead for you? Training—good, practical training in a line that is permanent and GROWING—that is the only power that can help you to advance yourself and really be somebody.
Be a Trained Mechanic on Autos and Tractors in a Few Weeks
Sixteen large practical Hemphill Schools in the U. S. and Canada have developed thousands of graduates—ambitious young fellows now making more money than they ever made before—men who were "dubbing" along until they woke up and realized they couldn't go on being no-bodies. Today some of them are drawing big pay—others are prosperous garage owners. You have every chance they had.
The Hemphill Schools will give you the same thorough training that made these men practical, successful men. You do actual work taking down and assembling machines, locating trouble and repairing it. You get practical experience on the most up-to-date equipment that money can buy.
The instructions include Auto and Tractor Engineering, Battery and Ignition, Tire Vulcanizing and Retreading, and Oxy-Acetylene Welding.
Find out more about this great school system—how you can take either a day or night course and qualify for one of the better jobs open to Hemphill graduates. Write for full information, catalog and special rates now on.
You can come to the Hemphill Schools—PAY NOT ONE CENT until you are thoroughly convinced that our system of training is what you need to fit you for that better paying job. Write Today!
HEMPHILL BROS. AUTO-TRACTOR SCHOOLS
INCORPORATED
707 Hawthorne Avenue
PORTLAND, OREGON
WITH MEDFORD TRADE IS MEDFORD MADE.