

BANDIT WITH MOST OF LOOT ELUSIVE

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 29.—Police today were seeking John Printer, alleged to have been the sixth person involved in the recent holdup of the Liberty theatre here. The police said he had the major part of the loot.

Mrs. Paul Orthochuck of Lington, was taken into custody by the police as a material witness. They allege the loot was divided at her home.

keenly his departure to, as he considered, better business fields. It will be good news to his many friends though to learn that for the present his home is still located in Central Point, and it may be that in the years to come he will spend his days here again as well as his nights.

Wayman Warner who spent the past ten days here looking after business interests left for his home in Portland Tuesday evening. Mr. Warner, and family may decide to return to Central Point to make their home in the near future.

Miss Bernice Beall arrived here from Berkeley, Cal., Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with her mother and sister and other relatives and her many young friends in the community. Miss Beall will probably remain here until after the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton and the Misses Klum of Medford were among the Thanksgiving out-of-town guests here.

Evangelist George Bernard, noted song writer and preacher, of California, closed a successful series of meetings here Monday evening. The revival meetings were of a month's duration and were greatly enjoyed by all who attended. There were many conversions, especially among the younger people and the church membership was greatly increased thereby.

All interested in the meetings feel that great good has been accomplished and that a part of Central Point, at least has been made better by them. The services for the most part were well attended and throughout much interest was manifest. The reverend gentlemen led the early part of the week to conduct similar meetings elsewhere.

A lady boy made his appearance at the home of Principal and Mrs. Malcolm Wright the first of the week and by said appearance greatly enriched and increased the treasures of the house of Wright. The son of the popular young principal of the Central Point high school, and his wife will probably be christened Malcolm Jr. Mother and child are both doing well and father too is well and proud.

Mrs. Vernon Brophy and daughter of Roguelands enjoyed a Thanksgiving day visit with relatives in Central Point.

The Humage sale given under the auspices of the local Eastern Star organization last Saturday was a brilliant success, socially, financially, and in every way. The articles donated for sale by members of the lodge were put up for sale by the most famous of local auctioneers, George L. Neale, by name. All articles, some useful, some ornamental and some eatable, brought good prices and interest and fun ran high as friends stood side by side and with raised voices tried to outbid one another. At intervals, in order that they might get more strength and better voice to bid, the sale enthusiasts would seat themselves at the tables lined up near the walls and partake of some of the delicious coffee, sandwiches, doughnuts, pumpkin pie or any good thing that they craved, that the ladies had ready to sell them. A great crowd was there all afternoon and the number included a great many out-of-town people. Every one ate, drank, bought and had fun. The proceeds of the sale was something in the neighborhood of ninety dollars.

Among the young Central Point teachers arriving here from their various schools in the rural districts to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with their parents were the Misses Gertrude Wiley, Lucille Myers, Arlene Hay, Mae Johnson and Leah Parker.

Thanksgiving day was a very quiet day in Central Point. Most people stayed around their own firesides and enjoyed the day quietly with their immediate families. In nearly every household a chicken or turkey dinner was served, and in some homes many who had long been absent from the old nest gathered there to celebrate the day and be reunited. A special dinner of turkey and cranberries and all the good things was served at the local boarding house and was attended mostly by those people who had no home fires to cluster round and no near relatives to make glad by their presence among them.

The funeral services of Mrs. Mary Avarella Nealon, widow of the late Captain S. M. Nealon which were held at the funeral parlors of Weeks and Conger in Medford, Wednesday afternoon, and interment which was made in the Central Point cemetery, were largely attended by hosts of the Central Point friends of the deceased and her family. The death of Mrs. Nealon came as a distinct shock and loss to the community. Mrs. Nealon had been in failing health for some time and on that account was unable to take part and be present in social gatherings, but in all the good works and the kindnesses which her husband, the late Captain S. M. Nealon, known as one of the most human and the grandest men of his day, he was recognized as the guiding spirit and the helping hand behind him that inspired and helped him in all that he did. He was a true and noble life and the ten children which survive her, good citizens, everyone, are living monuments of the good which she accomplished. To all the children and especially to the three who are best known here having been in our midst more from their home in Table Rock, Mrs. Sanford Richardson, who has been prominent in church affairs here for some time, Miss Katherine Nealon, the popular teacher of the fourth and fifth grades in the local school, and to Miss Eva Nealon, popular young high school student, Central Point extends her most heartfelt sympathy.

Harry Lewis of Grants Pass visited with his many friends here Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Weiss of Medford who recently purchased the property owned by Mrs. Julia Owens here, have moved their household goods here and will soon be comfortably domiciled in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jones and family who have made their home here for the past year moved to their new home in Medford this week. The Joneses have many friends here who regret their departure, but who are glad to know that they have not gone far away.

EDEN PRECINCT

Talent had a big dance on Thanksgiving night which was largely attended from all parts of the valley. W. Stump of Talent had a big auction sale in Talent last Friday. When they sold off their household goods and stock and machinery. The sale took the form of a community sale, in the afternoon. Many persons brought goods and stock to be sold. Mr. and Mrs. Stump expect to go to California to reside soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw of North Talent spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Shaw's parents in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. French of North Talent spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. H. N. French of North Talent and all their children and grand-children here for Thanksgiving dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Egan and their two boys, Mrs. Lawrence Crawford and their three children, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coleman, Ed and Lawrence French. In all the guests numbered fifteen.

Wane Holridge of Talent suffered a broken bone in his right wrist while playing football last week. This will cripple the Talent team for some time, as Wane is considered one of their best men.

Mrs. Niel Franklin was up from Medford Friday to visit her mother, who was suffering with a bad cold, causing her to have a stiff neck. Mrs. Furry is much improved at this writing, however.

A party was given the Phoenix high school members at the pleasant home of Miss Dorothy McClain last Friday evening, which was a very enjoyable evening for the young people. Games and refreshments were indulged in until midnight when all departed, vowing a most pleasant time.

Another big Thanksgiving gathering was that given at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Furry. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. Cate, and sons Claude, Jr., Leland and Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Colver and son Eldred. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Colver and son Herald and daughter, Agnes. Mrs. Sula Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Colver Furry and daughter, Carlotta. Mrs. M. Rowe, Miss Rita Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Reimer of the Southern Oregon Experiment station at Talent spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Reimer's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison of Medford. Other guests at the Harrison home were Mr. and Mrs. John Mann and two sisters of Mrs. Mann. A most bounteous dinner was served. The Thanksgiving turkey was not omitted, which I am told was near the twenty-pound mark. All enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison until a very late hour.

Friday Mr. and Mrs. C. Fitch were guests at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Reimer at the experimental station.

The big barn owned by D. Perozza between Talent and Astoria was totally destroyed by fire on the night of November 25, together with a number of farming implements, including a threshing machine, belonging to Herbt Davis of Talent, a binder and twelve tons of hay, belonging to Tom Bell of Talent, and a tractor belonging to another party. There was insurance on the threshing and tractor, but none on the hay and binder. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been that some tramps were sleeping in the barn and had a fire to keep themselves warm, and that the fire ate its way into the straw, and litter on the floor of the barn. The big fire attracted people from all about Talent and vicinity and many left the dance, which was in progress in Talent, and went to the scene of the fire which occurred about midnight, but were too late to be of any service.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Shearer of Medford spent Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey.

Mrs. G. C. McClain and Mrs. Maeie Wright of Phoenix, went to Hill Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Wright's sister, Mrs. Nora Binehart.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hader spent the day of Thanksgiving in Medford with Mrs. Hader's sister, Mrs. Etta Taylor. A most bounteous turkey dinner was the main feature of the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neah Chandler of North Talent spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Chandler's mother, Mrs. Simpson of Medford.

Work of weaving the big viaduct across Bear creek, just above Phoenix has begun. It will take about a week more before the work will be complete on that part of the waterway.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have Bladder trouble—Salts fine for Kidneys

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous uric acid is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.
