

Local and Personal

J. C. Nolan was arrested yesterday by Chief of Police Timothy on a charge of having intoxicating liquor in his possession the liquor in question being one-half pint of moonshine whiskey. He was released on $50 bail and appeared in Justice Taylor's court this morning entering a plea of guilty and paying the $25 fine which was imposed.

Signature cuts for ads and letterheads designed. H. Grey. Phone 75. 222

Boys come in and see new steel disc wheels coaster wagons. Hubbard Bros. 223

While the public market today was a very good one the patronage was not up to the usual Saturday trade. There was a bountiful supply of fresh beef, pork, veal and roasts, and sausages and cured meats. On the bulletin board of the market appeared this sign, "We are short of spuds, cabbage and parsnips."

Try our merchants lunch. The Shasta. 218

Clear sailing to the Riverside Community dance on the Rogue, Saturday night. 218

The business meeting of the Epworth League of the M. E. church, South, had a good representative attendance last night, and planned a chicken dinner to be given in the church basement on Friday evening, Dec. 9th from 6 to 8 o'clock. The leaguers discussed many important matters, and voted to assist the Baptist and North Methodist churches in their building funds.

Let Lottie Howard help you select a hat for her Xmas. 104 N. Central. 219

Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners, phone 341; shop at 116 Mistletoe. Prompt service and prices lowest consistent with first class work. A portion of your patronage appreciated. 219

Paul McKee, vice president and general manager, and W. M. Sheppard, special agent, of the California-Oregon Power company, with headquarters in San Francisco, drove to Grants Pass Thursday from Medford, for a short visit at the company offices in that city.

The newest shades in silk mixed and shetland yarns. Handicraft Shop. 219

Hear ye! Hear ye! Klein the Tailor makes reliable suits and overcoats, $60 values at $45. 128 E. Main. Upstairs. 219

We do stamping for your needlework—Deuel's Art Department. 219

Among guests at the Hotel Medford are James Nunan of Louisville, Ky., S. E. Purvine of Salem, E. M. Eldridge of St. Louis, F. R. Hartzell of Eugene, R. K. McLeod of Boston, Mass., F. G. Orland of Minneapolis, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Harvey of Duncan, B. C.

Mrs. Rosell Watt, Spirella corsetiere P. O. Box 82, Phoenix, Ore. 223

Wanted—Clean rags at Medford Printing Co. 219

See our button card for new ideas in covered buttons. Handicraft Shop. 219

A unique service is announced for Sunday evening at the First Baptist church. It will be Clerks' night, when Rev. F. R. Leach will speak on "Christ the Good Salesman." Salesmanship today is a science, and a great asset to any business. How to be a better salesman is a worthwhile study. The subject will be handled in a practical way so that it will be of special interest to employers as well as the salesman. A special invitation is out to all clerks to be present to hear the message. Good music will be given by the choir.

High grade tailors for men and women. Oress, Ashland, Ore. 118

Dr. H. E. Murphy, dentist, over Woolworth store. 219

Popcorn that will pop big. Warner, Wortman & Gore. 221

Monday night is regular Rebekah meeting night at which time important business will be transacted, also initiation. All members and friends urged to be present.

Brighten up your ads and business stationery, with a new signature cut—designed at reasonable charge. H. Grey, Mail Tribune. 223

Dressmaking done; men's shirts a specialty. Mrs. Carl D. Bowman, 124 Nektown. 223

Ashland was the mecca for the Shriners of the valley, and their wives yesterday afternoon and night because of the doings of Hiliak temple.

Dance at Riverside Community Club Saturday night, December 3rd. 218

A full line of Xmas gifts. Handicraft Shop. 219

Chiroprody—room 206 Phipps block. 222

Particular emphasis is placed by Governor Olcott in a letter to his committee on highway legislation, on the need for a license fee for auto stages, jitney buses, trunks and other motor vehicles operating for profit on roads constructed for them by the state so that they would "pay a fair share toward the cost of the maintenance of those roads."

R. I. Stewart, builder, contracts for all buildings. Residence 217 Apple street. Phone 643. 118

An automobile radiator and hood cover makes an ideal Xmas present. Medford Auto Top Co., 30 N. Grape. Phone 104. 118

Dr. Frank Roberts, dentist. Deuel Bldg. Telephone 593-R. 118

H. E. Owens of the Union Oil company who was arrested yesterday by Officer J. J. McMahon on a charge of speeding has entered a plea of not guilty in Justice Taylor's court. His case will be tried Monday morning.

Hemstitching. Picoting. 5c per yd. Buttons covered. Handicraft Shop. 219

Balloon dances; Snappy music; Tonight; Nat. 218

An automobile radiator and hood cover makes an ideal Xmas present. Medford Auto Top Co., 30 N. Grape. Phone 104. 118

E. E. Elliott, director of vocational education and supervisor of agricultural education for Oregon, is here in the interest of the work. C. D. Thompson has charge of the work in the Medford high school.

Invest your savings in the Jackson County Building and Loan association. 118

Signature cuts for ads and letterheads designed. H. Grey. Phone 75. 222

Boy Scouts Christmas present, snare drums $4 each, at Palmer Piano House. 223

Of exceptional and timely interest will be the address of B. F. Lindas on "The Keystone of Disarmament" at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Fourth and Bartlett, tomorrow evening. Another feature of this service will be a solo, "Let Us Have Peace," sung by Harry Scougall. 218

Cut chrysanthemums. Jap Art store. 218

Shooting match one mile north of Bogus on Pacific highway, Sunday, Dec. 4th. Turkeys and hams. Shotgun and rifle. 218

The retail price of eggs is falling both because of the plentiful supply of fresh eggs being laid and the fact that the people throughout the country are showing a disinclination to pay the high price that has been ruling lately.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, phone 108, 711 E. Main St. 218

Anything in dressmaking done by experienced eastern dressmaker until the holidays. Work guaranteed. Write Box 680, Medford. 218

China lily bulbs. Jap Art Store. 218

Rev. N. D. Wood, pastor of the M. E. church South, of Myrtle creek, was a visitor at the home of W. J. Fenton, 25 North Oakdale avenue this week. Rev. Wood reports his church in a flourishing condition.

Another shipment of ribbon novelties. Handicraft Shop. 219

Edgar Wight for Xmas gifts. 118

Mrs. Wm. D. Hanley of Burns, Ore., is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. J. Cameron, at 112 Geneva avenue.

Balloon dances; Snappy music; Tonight; Nat. 218

When better automobiles are built, Butch will build them. 118

Insurance Plus Service. R. A. Holmes, The Insurance Man. 118

H. Pressman of Portland and J. L. Weisman of Seattle, have purchased the Medford Junk Co. business and taken charge. They will also buy all kinds of furs and hides. The business will be conducted under the name of the Medford Hide & Junk Co. Both men are experienced in their line.

Leave your order for fancy needlework at Deuel's Art Department. 219

Whether your motor is new or old, whether it be a Ford or a Packard, De Luxe pistons will increase your power and decrease your vibration, oil and gas consumption. We guarantee the above results. Riverside Garage. 218

As an evidence that the merchants of Medford are live-wires and believe in up-to-date window displays one of the leading merchants is spending quite a sum of money for window decorations having them made to order. The decorations for last night cost $40.

Toys and Xmas gifts at Truax's. 217

Edgar Wight for low prices. 118

When in need of sash and doors, call Wallace Woods, 108 or come to 711 E. Main St. 218

Here is the latest animal story from Josephine county as sent out from Grants Pass: "A short time ago D. L. Pruitt, rancher near Merilo, purchased several hounds with which to rid his district of prairie wolves or coyotes. Since that time six of the animals have been brought down by the hounds. Thanksgiving morning the hounds took the trail of one of the wolves and after a long chase the wolf was forced to seek shelter within a hollow log. When the hunters arrived the wolf was found to be dead—it had not been killed by the dogs nor shot—but inside the hollow log with the dead wolf were four very live skunks and the hunters were of the opinion that the wolf had been 'kissed'."

Sachets, lingerie sets, back powders, hand decorated shoe trees, pin cushions, and powder jars. Handicraft Shop. 219

Oh boy! those moonlight dances and snappy fox-trots sure take the gloom out of life. Let's be there, Riverside Community Club, Saturday night, 218

If you have a light auto or bug you want to rent for a few days to a person who will take good care of it, address S. Mail Tribune, stating where car can be seen. 218

Charlie Ray returned yesterday from a two weeks business trip to San Francisco during which time he was a spectator at the Stanford-California game.

Big closing out sale on ladies' and children's hats, room 2, Sparta Bldg., across from Page theatre. Mrs. A. B. Koehler. 221

Texas pecans, new crop, excellent flavor, 50 cents per pound delivered. Minimum shipment two pounds. Order them for Xmas. Paul Juergens, Capital Station, Austin, Texas. 118

The time to take orders for Christmas and New Year greeting cards has been extended until Monday evening, Dec. 5 at 6 p. m. If you haven't your cards phone 75 for appointment or call at the office and see samples. 218

C. T. Van Ness is home for a short visit from Portland where he is connected with the Postal Telegraph Co.

The Portland Telegram has appointed George Jackson agent in Medford. His phone is 423-H. 222

Edgar Wight, reliable Jeweler. 218

Balloon dances; Snappy music; Tonight; Nat. 218

B. F. Neff, city mail carrier, returned today after eleven days absence because of illness.

$50 suits to order only $45 for one week only. Klein the Tailor, 128 E. Main. Upstairs. 219

Fine handkerchief, linen—white and colors—25 cents a square at Deuel's Art Department. 219

Dr. A. C. Halstead, magnetic massage, electrotherapy. Room 207 Phipps block, phone 620-M. 222

Carl Fichter and family arrived home Friday from their visit at North Yakima. Because of the heavy snow they had to ship their car from that place to Tacoma, and they made the journey home in the car from Tacoma, having to pursue a zigzag course south from Salem because of the flooded and storm conditions in the north part of the state. They had to ford through water three feet deep in eight places at Junction City, Ore. 223

Dressmaker with experienced help will give special attention to holiday work. Orders received on short notice will be given prompt attention. Call 355-Y or 905 West Tenth St. 118

Buttons covered at Deuel's Art Department. 219

Any color of handkerchief squares 25c. Handicraft Shop. 219

Guests at the Hotel Holland include F. McTaggart of Eugene, E. E. Elliott of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Barker of Butte Falls, Frank Stoddard and Jay Gardon of Seattle, John Davison of St. Louis and Rena A. Faubion of Manhattan, Kas. 218

Doors, windows, Medford Lbr. Co. 218

When in need of shingles and roofing call Wallace Woods, 108, 711 E. Main. 218

There will be no dance at Gold Hill I. O. O. F. hall tonight on account of a death. 218

A 25 per cent increase in postal receipts for last month over the receipts of November a year ago, is shown in the Medford postoffice. 218

Lath and plaster, Medford Lbr. Co. 218

For one week only, $50 suits and overcoats at $45. Klein the Tailor, 128 E. Main. Upstairs. 219

Balloon dances; Snappy music; Tonight; Nat. 218

Mayor C. E. Gates arrived home this morning from several days in Portland during which he attended the 1925 exposition executive committee, of which he is a member, took in all the state political gossip going, and looked after some Crater Lake national park business. 218

Agate jewelry, Edgar Wight. 218

Dance, as usual at Helms club home Ashland, Saturday nite, Dec. 3d. 218

You have until Monday, Dec. 5 to order Christmas and New Year greeting cards at this office. Call and see samples or phone 75. 218

Paul McDonald, Ralph Bardwell, Dr. C. T. Sweeney and George Porter were visitors in Ashland yesterday afternoon and last night, furnishing amusement and merriment to the Shriners of the valley. 218

Shingles, shakes, Medford Lbr. Co. 218

A few suggestions for Xmas. Pottery, hand-painted glassware and fancy candlesticks. Handicraft Shop. 219

Mrs. Paul Hanson corsetiere for Nulbna. Phone 585-J. 118

Xmas cards, 5 to 20 cents. Handicraft Shop. 219

The general public is invited to attend the Elks lodge memorial day program tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at the Elks temple. 218

Signature cuts for ads and letterheads designed. H. Grey. Phone 75. 222

Person taking pigskin purse containing $35 from desk of First Nat'l Bank may mail to Mail Tribune office contents minus 20 percent as reward. 217

Keep up the Xmas spirit. Send greeting cards. Handicraft Shop. 219

Colonel Frank Parker of the United States army and who is the official interpreter of Marshal Foch on his present trip about the country, is a cousin of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Norwood and Miss Norwood of Medford. They visited him during the stop of the Foch special train in the city yesterday and were introduced to the famous French general. 218

The Geo. L. Treichter Motor Co. today received notice of reduction on United States and Goodyear tires and tubes and will be glad to quote the new prices to their customers. 218

Plain sewing, undergarments and children's wear a specialty. 905 W. Fourth street. Telephone 838-Y. 219

The postoffice and carriers were very busy today with the usual flood of first of the month bills being mailed.

Home made Christmas candy in appropriate boxes or in bulk, and made after your own recipes if desired. Leave orders at Kandyland or phone 522. 219

AGITATORS ADVISE IGNORING LAW

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Packing House workers in Kansas City have been advised to disregard the subpoenas of the Kansas industrial court and to go on strike Monday morning when the union strike order goes into effect in all packing centers. It was announced today by Dennis Lane, secretary of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America.

Abandon Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

Blizzard Destroyer. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—Salvage operations were begun today to free the United States destroyer De Long, imbedded since early Thursday in the sandy beach of Halfmoon Bay, thirty miles south of San Francisco. Heavy seas yesterday prevented the crews of two tugs from attaching lines to the stranded vessel.

THE KEystone OF DISARMAMENT

This timely address at 7:30