

Local and Personal

The spirit of the age was reflected at today's session of the association of county judges and commissioners when President Smith asked those who had never broken the speed laws to stand up. No one arose except Judge White of Columbia county. It developed that Judge White does not own a car.—Portland Journal.

It is only fair to George A. Gardner county judge of Jackson county who is attending the above mentioned convention to state he is sometimes hard of hearing.

A letter written in French was received from Marshal Ferdinand Foch of France this forenoon by Mayor C. E. Gates, addressed "The Mayor of Medford." The message it is presumed refers to the general's recent visit here and the demonstration that was accorded him, but inasmuch as the mayor and editorial and business attaches of the Mail Tribune were excessively busy today no time could be spared to read the letter. It will be published in tomorrow's issue provided Joe Gagnon or some other former Frenchman wanders into this office.

"Pop" Gates, mayor of Medford, decides to be a candidate for governor in the republican primaries in Jackson county," predicts Ben Sheldon, representative of that county. Mr. Sheldon is by town getting information on several subjects. For instance, he is to meet with the state highway commission relative to work on the Crater Lake highway; he has been consulting with members of the special committee appointed by Governor Olcott to suggest regulations for the state highways, and he has been sounding sentiment relative to the 1922 exposition and the various plans for financing that undertaking. By the end of the week, Mr. Sheldon expects to have enough information under his hat to enable him to meet the special session with a brave heart.—Portland Oregonian.
