

Local and Personal

The last of the college students from Medford and the valley, who have been arriving from the various educational institutions, for the past few days to spend the Christmas vacation, will be home Sunday. A number of local students will spend their Christmas and New Years elsewhere.

We are giving away to each purchaser of a $3.99 tier of wood or of also that amount in coal from now until Christmas, a fine silver steel stove poker or child's pon cap. We have the only stock of strictly dry wood in Medford under our large shed. A trial order will convince you that we have the best and cheapest fuel in the city. Valley Fuel Co. Phone 76.

Don't forget that the man who speaks slightly of your policy, or the company leasing it, is seeking his gain, at your expense. J. H. Cochran, mgr., Western Union Life, 238.

Glen Allen will appear with the Imperial orchestra at Nat tonite, 236.

Mayor C. E. Gates leaves this evening for Salem where he attends a meeting of the statewide 1925 exposition committee of which he is a member, and takes in the first few days of the special session of the legislature which convenes next Monday.

We have recently installed a new apparatus for recharging Ford magnets, which we do for $1.00 and guarantee results. No charge for testing. Riverside Garage, 119.

Get your Xmas stationery at Jones! We can save you big money, 234.

Handmade linen kerchiefs for $1.50 at The Vanity Shop, 234.

The Christmas business at the post office, which started at the postoffice several days ago with increasing outgoing and incoming receipts of parcels each day, has now reached considerable proportions, especially on outgoing parcels to eastern and middle western points. Today was a heavy day, and Monday will as always be the biggest day of the Christmas mailing season in outgoing parcels.

Attractive, well equipped dairy ranch, close in, can be offered on very advantageous terms to soldier boy entitled to bonus loan. Write box 924, Medford, or telephone 229 during business hours, 234.

Stationery! Stationery. See Jones' first, 234.

Big community dancing party at Nat tonite. Admission 10c, 236.

County Judge G. A. Gardner has purchased the two-story brick building on Main street, formerly occupied by the Jacksonville bank. He has not made public what use the building will be put to, but since several different parties have been trying to rent it for business purposes, it is safe to conclude that it will not stand idle long after it receives some needed repairs. Who knows but what another bank might soon occupy it—since there is already a good vault in it, and a move is on foot to establish another bank here—Jacksonville Post.

Bonding caps, all colors, priced from 50 cents to $1.65. Donel's Art Dept., 234.

Chocolate candy—good soft centers, only 2 pounds for 45c at Jones', 234.

Fresh lime and plaster, Medford Lumber Co., 236.

The public market of today was a fair one for this time of year, the feature of which was the sale of Christmas trees, Oregon grape and similar holiday decorations. Many orders were taken for Christmas wreaths. Trees and holiday decorations will be on sale again at the market next Wednesday and Saturday.

Army shoes and work shoes at Army Goods Store, 119.

Insurance Plus Service, R. A. Holmes, The Insurance Man, 119.

I have a Ford delivery car to trade for city lot, piano, graphophone, furniture or what have you? Box 97, Mail Tribune, 236.

The annual dinner of the Pennsylvania club of Oregon will be held in Portland this evening to which all former residents of that state have been invited. Steps will be taken at the dinner to see that Pennsylvania is creditably represented at the 1925 exposition.

Rain coats and waterproof pants at Army Goods Store, 119.

Violins—Fine tone, 1/2, 3/4, full size. Root Music Co., 105 W. Main, Medford, 231.

Christmas cheer at Nat party tonite, 236.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Howard returned yesterday from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Jefferson, Iowa, 236.

Line at Medford Lumber Co., 119.

Spot Cash Basket Grocery, cash and carry system, at the Vinson Barn 224-224-226 North Riverside Ave., Medford, Oregon, 119.

Army Goods Store at 32 S. Central avenue, 119.

Mrs. Arthur Mulholland of La Grande, Ore., is visiting relatives in Jacksonville, 119.

Picnicing, 119.

Buttons covered, 119.

Handicraft Shop, 119.

Get your Xmas cards and candies at DeVoe's, 119.

Edgar Wight for Christmas gifts, 119.

Mrs. M. A. Talent, eighty-four year old pioneer of southern Oregon is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Beeson, 167 Hargadine street. Mrs. Talent is the widow of A. P. Talent, after whom the town of Talent was named, 119.

Limited business continues for apples at primary points of the United States. While there are many unreliable reports of considerable activity in the apple markets of the country generally, actual figures fail to show such improvement. The only real activity of demand in apples at Pacific northwest primary points at this time is for the larger sized fruit. There is keen seeking for such stock and premiums at present available for large sizes are beyond the usual ones.—Portland Journal.

Edgar Wight for low prices, 119.

An automobile radiator and hood cover makes an ideal Xmas present. Medford Auto Top Co., 39 N. Grape, Phone 194, 119.

Large size pork and beans 10c. Army Goods Store, 119.

Miss Erle Stewart is able to be out again following a week's illness with an attack of chicken pox, 119.

Edgar Wight, reliable jeweler, 119.

When in need of shingles and roofing call Wallace Woods, 108, 711 E. Main, 119.

Will party who took salesman's sample case from the Interurban stage office please return same. No questions asked, 230.

Messages of special interest are announced for both services Sunday at the First Baptist church. At 11 a. m. Rev. F. R. Leach is announced to speak on "Doing Business for God," and at 7:30 p. m. on "The Drama of Life in Three Acts." The choir has some good music prepared. The secretary of the Sunday school announced Sunday the largest attendance in years. Elaborate preparations are being made for the observance of Christmas this year, 230.

Latest song hits, Root Music Co., 105 W. Main, Medford, 231.

Dr. Frank Roberts, dentist, Donel Bldg., Telephone 593-R, 119.

Turkey shoot Sunday, Dec. 18, three quarters mile north of Ruch, 230.

Lawrence Cochran left last Friday evening for Harrison, Tenn., 230.

Shingles, shakes, Medford Lbr. Co., Hot coffee and light lunches, tamales and chili con carne at DeVoe's, 119.

Partner small going business, east, two years, $250 cash. References given and required. Apply Mail Tribune, Box 20, Give phone, 231.

High top rubber boots, $4.85. Army Goods Store, 119.

Irvine Terrill, who has been attending O. A. C. this fall returned last night for a two weeks stay in this city, 234.

Guests at the Hotel Holland include Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Endris of Portland, Jack Lett of Oakland, Calif., J. E. Backus of Portland, M. S. Centers of Klamath Falls, S. C. Bartram and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dryburgh of Portland, 230.

Christmas candles 50c each to $1.50 a pair, at The Vanity Shop, 119.

Dr. H. E. Murphy, dentist, over Woolworth store, 119.

Buy your Christmas candles for 50c to $1.50 at the Vanity Shop, 234.

High grade tailors for men and women. Orres, Ashland, Ore., 119.

Additional arrangements for the 1922 general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church, which is to be held in Portland were made this week by the Episcopal clergy of Portland and vicinity. The convention will bring upwards of 3000 delegates to Portland, 230.

R. I. Stewart, builder, contracts for all buildings. Residence 217 Apple street. Phone 647, 119.

1922 calendars. Call at office of J. W. Wakefield, The Insurance Man, 230.

Order your dressed geese for Christmas now. Phone 19-F-2, 231.

J. G. Lewis was a visitor in Grants Pass on Friday from Eagle Point, 230.

Pauline Johnson, who has been attending Mills College near San Francisco for the past three months, returned to Medford last evening to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Johnson, 230.

This office is prepared to wrap your Christmas packages to send by mail or express, 119.

Special, $2.50, while they last, men's new dress hats, all guaranteed, at Apparel Cleaners and Hatters, 103 N. Central, 232.

Why bother with wrapping Christmas packages. We are prepared to wrap them so they will be safe for sending by mail or express, 119.

Honors were even in the volleyball games played in Medford last Wednesday night between two Y. M. C. A. teams from Ashland and an equal number from Medford. Ashland's first team won three games out of four, while the second team lost three out of four, 230.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, phone 108, 711 E. Main St., 119.

Army and navy underwear at Army Goods Store, 119.

Handy-dyed batik kimonos in Russian, Persian, Chinese and Japanese patterns, made by Gladys Cooper, sold by Jay Art Store, 230.

A. C. Allen leaves this evening for a business visit in Portland, 119.

A new shipment of pongee for handkerchiefs at Donel's Art Dept., 119.

All linen initial handkerchiefs, while they last 25c, at Donel's Art Dept., 119.

Call at the F. K. Donel & Co. dress-making parlors for reliable work in dressmaking, 231.

By an overwhelming majority the girls of the Klamath county high school voted to adopt a uniform dress, not to wear lace or network stockings, to adopt a moderate form of hair dress and to forego lipsticks and rouge. The girls' vote was as follows: Uniform dress, yes 91, no 30; high heels, yes 7, no 115; lace and network stockings, yes 34, no 85; moderate hairdresses, yes 85, no 37; rouge and lipsticks, yes 35, no 55, 232.

Big shipment of new Christmas candles from Mrs. Montgomery at The Vanity Shop, 119.

Get your Xmas presents at Jones'—cheapest store in Medford, 234.

Leather coats and vests at right price. U. S. Army Goods Store, 119.

Justin Smith who has been attending the University of Oregon this fall returned to this city last night and will remain here until after the holidays, 119.

When in need of sash and doors, call Wallace Woods, 108 or come to 711 E. Main St., 119.

Special for Saturday: Velvet tobacco, 2 for 25c. Army Goods Store, 230.

Mrs. Cecil Brown, who has been quite ill for the past week at her home, is reported as improving rapidly, 119.

Lath and plaster, Medford Lbr. Co., 119.

When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them, 119.

Monday evening, Dec. 19th, will be the annual homecoming of Olive Rebekah lodge. Everyone is requested to come with a well filled basket. Supper will be served at six after which will be the annual roll call and a good program. On Thursday evening, Dec. 22nd, the lodge will entertain the children, 119.

Go to The Vanity Shop for hand-made Christmas novelties from 50c to $2.00, 234.

Beautifully original hand-made novelties from 50c to $2.00 at the Vanity Shop, 234.

Dan Bagshaw of Jacksonville, who has just recovered from an attack of tonsillitis will probably leave this week for Prineville, Ore., where he expects to embark in the newspaper business, 230.

Xmas hdkfs, dandies, dandies, from Jay Art Store, 230.

Get your Xmas presents at Jones'—cheapest store in Medford, 234.

Miss Dorothea Hill who is a sophomore this year at Mills College, arrived in Medford last evening accompanied by Miss Muriel Peterson, a college chum who will spend the holidays with her, 230.

Make Kewpie Dolls, all kinds, during spare time. We teach you to make the moulds and market the goods. Any one can learn. Big profits. Send no money. Coast Art-Works, 105 1/2 12th St., Portland, Ore., 230.

Invest your savings in the Jackson County Building and Loan association, 119.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Obenchain left for Central Point this morning where they will visit for a few days before going on to San Francisco for the holidays—Klamath Falls Herald, 230.

New and reclaimed O. D. shirts and breeches at Army Goods Store, 119.

Jones sells chocolate candy, 2 pounds for 45c. Can you beat it? 234.

Harold Woods, a second year student in electrical engineering at O. A. C., returned from that institution this morning to spend the Christmas holidays, 230.

There will be a special meeting of Reames Chapter O. E. S., Monday evening, Dec. 19, at 7:30 sharp for the purpose of initiating a class of candidates. Each lady is requested to bring an article of food, 230.

Mrs. Paul Hansen, corsetiere for NuBone, Phone 585-J, 119.

Miss Lael Klam who has been attending Mills College this year arrived in this city yesterday afternoon. She was accompanied as far as Ashland by her mother, Mrs. B. Klam, who remained in that city. Mr. Klam will arrive later and the family will spend the holidays in this city and Ashland, 230.

Photos made Sunday, Monday and Tuesday will positively be ready before Christmas. Swem's Studio, 229.

Handmade linen kerchiefs in colors and white for $1.50. The Vanity Shop, 234.

Mrs. H. H. Calhoun of this city received a telegram this morning stating that an eight pound son had been born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Noel Calhoun of Seattle. Mrs. Calhoun is overjoyed at finding herself a grandmother. Mr. Calhoun was formerly a student in the Medford high school and was prominent in high school athletics, 230.

Dance at Riverside Community club, Saturday night, Dec. 17th. Always a good time, 230.

Jones are headquarters for Xmas candies and nuts, 234.

W. N. Offutt, clerk at the Oxford hotel in Grants Pass ever since the Hotel Holland here changed hands, was in the city today visiting relatives, enjoying the sights of the Jackson county metropolis and shaking hands with his many friends, 230.

Jones' prices on stationery are way below others, 234.

County Treasurer's Eleventh Call for Gold Hill Irrigation District Warrants

State of Oregon, County of Jackson, Treasury Department.

Jacksonville, Oregon, December 17, 1921.

Notice is hereby given that there are funds on hand for the redemption of warrants numbered 252, 263, and 264, drawn on the General Fund of the Gold Hill Irrigation District.

Interest on the above called warrants ceases on this the 17th day of December, A. D. 1921.

A. C. WALKER, Treasurer of Jackson County and ex-Officio Treasurer of Gold Hill Irrigation District.

By Dorothy Bedwell, Deputy, Adv.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—Three Jersey heifers, fresh soon. Phone 214-Y, 230.

FOR RENT—Six room modern bungalow, woodshed, etc. Phone 521-L, 232.

FOR SALE—Two incubators, a Truist 160 egg, hot water, good condition, $10; also McClannahan 230 eggs, $15. Lottie Montgomery, Jacksonville, 231.

FOR SALE—The doctor says I need the money so must sell 3 good fresh milk cows and one fresh soon, $180 takes them. Frank Randier, Jacksonville, 232.

FOR SALE—Dry oak wood, 16-inch, telephone 888, 231.

FOR SALE—Turkeys, 3 year old toms for breeding. J. C. Hoerling, Central Point, 119.

Mrs. W. E. Brayton left last Friday for Spokane where she will spend the holiday season with relatives, 230.

Diamond rings, must sacrifice for cash, beautiful $150 stone at $65 and larger $200 one at $85. Please write D. R. Tribune, 230.

Twelve O. A. C. students passed through Medford this morning on the 9:05 train enroute to their homes in Ashland, 230.

China Lily bulb, Jap Art Store, 230.

Weir McDonald, who is attending the U. of C., returned to this city Thursday night and his sister, Woodman McDonald, returned last night from Corvallis where she is a student at O. A. C., 230.

$4900.00 to loan on first mortgage ranch property. J. W. Wakefield, The Insurance Man, 230.

Dr. C. A. Edwards will be the speaker at the morning service at the First Methodist Episcopal church. He has recently returned from what is said to be the greatest national conference of the Methodist Episcopal church ever held, and will give a report of this epoch-making convention. Dr. Edwards is one of the most able speakers of the church in the northwest. The evening service will be a sacred concert by "The Messiah" will feature the program, 230.

You will find a full line of new and reclaimed army goods at 32 S. Central avenue, 119.

Among guests at the Hotel Medford are George D. Heyman of New York, T. A. Cary and family of Spokane, Wm. V. E. Stater and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hawley of Eugene, R. F. Diller of St. Louis, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Barr of San Francisco, 230.

Studio open Sunday from 11 to 4 for the making of Christmas pictures that will positively be finished for Christmas. Swem's Studio, 229.

But Mitchell and David Wilcox who have been attending O. A. C. this year and who have for the past two months been enjoying the famous Willamette valley rain under the shelter of a small green headpiece returned to this city last night, having taken advantage of the vacation granted them by college officials, 230.

Nobles Enamel Renover and Nobles Polish are best for enamel finish. We sell it. Geo. L. Treichler Motor Co., 236.

Marie Myers who is a student at the University of Oregon this year returned last night for the Christmas holidays, 230.

Big turkey shoot, Sunday, Dec. 18th, Eagle Point, all day, 230.

A carload of apples, odd varieties, was yesterday started rolling for San Francisco by the Ashland Fruit and Produce association. Manager A. C. Briggs reports the apple market still very quiet, but strengthening in anticipation of the early winter apples being soon off the market. The annual meeting of the association will occur January 7 of next year.—Ashland Tidings, 230.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the role of the heroine.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the role of the heroine.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the role of the heroine.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the role of the heroine.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the role of the heroine.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the role of the heroine.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the role of the heroine.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the role of the heroine.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the role of the heroine.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the role of the heroine.

Norma Talmadge, Page

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing," her latest production, which opens an engagement of four days at the Page theatre today. Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance. The abilities of Norma as a comedienne is the first surprise. The second surprise comes in finding that Mrs. Lydia Hoyt is in the cast. This young woman very capably plays the

Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. McKee left Friday afternoon for San Francisco where they will spend the holidays. Byron H