W. W. GLASGOW PASSES AWAY TALENT HOME

William Wallace Glasgow died at the home of his son, Carl Glasgow, one mile east of Talent, Oregon, December 21, aged 74 years, 6 months and 12 days. He was a native of Ohio, and was born June 8, 1847, and had been a resident of Oregon for 15 years.

He was a pioneer and prominent citizen of Niagara township, North Polk, settling there before the railroad had entered this section, and before the territory had been admitted to statehood. Deceased was active politically and served two terms as state representative. It was his vote that elected United States Senator McCumber.

Mr. Glasgow was a charter member of North Star Lodge No. 19, A. F. & A. M. of Larimore, N. D. His wife died January 30, 1921. He is survived by two sons, who are Samuel Glasgow of New York City and Carl Glasgow of Talent, Ore., and one daughter, Mrs. W. A. Stratton of Talent, Ore., and three grand-children, Glasgow, Frank and Jean Stratton. The funeral services will be held at the First Funeral Home on Friday at 2:30 p. m. The services at the grave will be in charge of Medford Lodge No. 193, A. F. & A. M. interment in L. O. O. F. cemetery.

Guests at the Hotel Holland include Miss Eunice Wilson of Butte Falls, F. W. Marks and J. A. Nott of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stone of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kelton of Hornbrook and C. R. Strombach of Seattle.

Hollis Huntington, athletic coach of the Medford schools, leaves Thursday night for Salem to join his wife, who is visiting there, and they will spend the holidays with her relatives in the state capital.

Mayor C. E. Gates arrived home this forenoon from a several days absence at Salem where he attended, as a member of the state 1925 exposition board, the first few days of the special session of the legislature.

A very short lodge session will precede the Elks annual Christmas event tomorrow night, and every member of the lodge within reasonable traveling distance of Medford will be there with a well filled pocket book to aid in raising the big lodge fund which will make a happy Christmas for the poor people of the city and valley.

The public market because of the slippery condition of the pavements and sidewalks this morning was light both in general offerings and patronage, but there were plenty of Christmas trees and decorations. Saturday's market is expected to be a very big one all around. There will be many Christmas decorations on sale then.

Miss Ora Collins, teacher in the Jackson school, will spend her vacation in San Francisco, for which point she leaves Thursday afternoon or Friday morning.

Today was expected to be the big rest day at the local postoffice in arriving and outgoing Christmas mail. From 10 to 150 sacks of such mail has been arriving and departing daily for the past few days.

The first Christmas travel rates since the World War will go into effect on all railroads tomorrow. Round trip tickets at reduced rates will be sold Dec. 22, 23 and 24 by the Southern Pacific with a return limit of January 4, between stations where the one-way fare is $25 or less. The round trip tickets will be sold at a one and one-half fare.
