TWO SPLENDID CONCERTS GIVEN BY SOUSA'S BAND

The fine concerts given by Sousa's band under the personal directorship of the march king at the Page yesterday afternoon and last night before fairly large audiences were much enjoyed and appreciated as indicated by the vigorous applause which greeted every number. Mr. Sousa responded to this applause with his famous smile and by ordering numerous encores.

Both concerts were typical Sousa musical entertainments of stirring popular and classical band numbers, including a number of his own compositions, interspersed with vocal and instrumental numbers by the soloists of the organization. Among the encores were the always soul stirring "Stars and Stripes Forever," "El Capitan," "U. S. Field Artillery," and "Keeping Step With the Union," all composed by John Philip Sousa, and "Love's Nest." The latter proved to be one of the most popular numbers of the entire program.

The Sousa melange, which is one of his latest compositions, "The Fancy of the Town," with its wedding of tunes popular sometime during the last decade, also aroused especial enthusiasm, as did the "Cowboy Break-down," in which "Turkey in the Straw" was incorporated. The soloists, Miss Mary Baker, soprano; Miss Florence Hardeman, violin; Miss Winnifred Hambrick, harp; John Dolan, cornet; George Carey, xylophone, won much admiration, especially Miss Baker with her wonderful soprano voice, and all seemed to be more appreciated in their encore numbers.

GATES' SALES TO BE DISCONTINUED

The auction sales, which were started in the summer by the C. E. Gates Auto Co., and held regularly every Saturday at that garage, will be discontinued during the holiday season and probably resumed next February, according to an announcement made today by Mr. Gates. The sales have become very popular in southern Oregon and everything from mining machinery to motor car accessories has been auctioned in addition to used cars. Many attractive buys were made during the summer season and the sales afforded the farmer a medium through which he might dispose of farming equipment without handling charges.

Although the Gates Auto Co. has not exhausted its used car bargain section Mr. Gates believes that the auction sale idea will go over even better next season if started on a large scale.

FRED WILLIAMS OF GLENDALE KILLED

ANGLO-FRENCH BREACH AVERTED

It will meet in a much better atmosphere, it is thought, as a result of the Washington conference and more promising outlook on the Irish situation.

PARIS, Dec. 22—An invitation to attend the meeting of the supreme council next month has been extended to George Harvey, the American ambassador at London. The meeting is scheduled to open in Cannes on Wednesday, January 4.

PEOPLE REALLY SHOPPING EARLY SAYS LOCAL P. M.

The thousands of Christmas presents which have been rolling in from all parts of the country to the Medford postoffice and the corresponding number of presents being sent out by local people are causing no congestion at the postoffice because of their having come in all week with regularity and not in bunches at the last minute.

Each night the postoffice staff has been able to clear the decks and have everything in readiness for the next day's arrivals. Of course it takes hard and constant hustling to do this. On yesterday afternoon's special mail train 100 sacks of eastern and western mail arrived, and about the same amount of parcel matter was expected today.

"I never saw the Christmas parcels arrive so nicely and so evenly distributed as they have this week, both incoming and outgoing packages, during my 29 years connection with this postoffice," said Postmaster Wm. J. Warner this noon. "We have been able to handle the crush of business daily for this reason and will to the end. By Christmas day or on that day we will have every parcel that arrives in the postoffice by Saturday night delivered, if necessary we will deliver Christmas morning."

The postoffice will be closed next Monday as it is officially observed on Christmas day, and is therefore a legal holiday. There will be no earlier delivery Monday, but parcel post Christmas matter that arrives on Sunday afternoon and night, and on the early morning trains of Monday will be delivered that day.

COUNTY TAX TO BE ONE MILL LOWER

The county court has reached no decision on the county tax levy for the year, except that it will be one mill lower than the levy outlined in the county budget. The court is working on the final details this afternoon.

The morning session of the county court was taken up with routine business, and talking over the county fair plans with the county fair board. It was decided to go ahead on the plan adopted last fall, as soon as the weather will permit.

Representatives of the Lumbermen's Trust company, and the Ladd and Tilton Bank of Portland, appeared before the county court and asked an option on Jackson county bonds bearing five per cent at par.

TRIAL PETE BEEBE STARTS, ALBANY

ALBANY, Ore., Dec. 22—Actual trial of Carson D. (Pete) Beebe on the charge of killing John Painter at LaComb, October 29, was started in the circuit court here today.

The prosecution announced that Dr. L. F. Griffith of the state hospital for the insane, will examine Beebe as to his sanity and give expert testimony.

The jury and court returned last evening from a fifty mile round trip to the scene of the alleged crime. Beebe, who accompanied the company talked freely during the afternoon and appeared unaffected by his visit to the Painter farm where he had lived during the last summer, and where he admits having been present when the older Painter and son met death.

and conversed with her. After a few words with Mrs. Waterson, the son and daughter were summoned. Members of the family and his death was peaceful, Colonel Waterson having lapsed into unconsciousness again a few minutes before he passed away.

Louisville in Mourning

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 22—Henry Waterson, who died in Jacksonville, Fla., early today, left Louisville three weeks ago for his annual pilgrimage to the south, where for years he had spent the winter. Apparently he was in his usual health, which, however, for several years had not been good.

"News of his death was received with many evidences of grief in Louisville, where for more than fifty years he had been a notable figure. Apparently he faced with calmness the end of his span of life. Once before undergoing an operation he said to the managing editor of the Courier-Journal:

"I am prepared at any time to surrender my life to God who gave it. We do not know about these things and I face the outcome with serenity whatever it may be."

While convalescing from a previous illness Mr. Waterson consented to read some advance obituaries of himself and wrote this:

"I am getting a foretaste of my own funeral—sitting up in the grave, as it were, and reading the obituaries—and grinning at the boys' but very cheerful and grateful. It is 'kind o' nice'—heaps better than being saddled with motives and called names."
