

Local Briefs

Mrs. Emma Weis, who has been quite ill at her home on Cottage street with blood poisoning, is recovering slowly.
Big orange sale at Jones' Fri. and Sat., 3 doz. for 50c.
Dorothy Palmer, a student this year at Willamette university returned this morning to spend the Christmas vacation.
Rain coats and waterproof pants at Army Goods Store.
Miss Cox and Miss Van Meter, local school teachers left this morning to spend the holidays in Chiloquin, Ore.
When in need of shingles and roofing call Wallace Woods, 108, 711 E. Main.
They were all ready to be married. The minister was engaged and the witnesses were all on hand.
Miss Bertha Whitlock, who is an instructor in the commerce department of the O. A. C., arrived here from Corvallis this morning to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Whitlock, and brothers and sisters.
Price list for the Marinello Shop, 408 Liberty Bldg.: Shampoos 75c; mancoils $1.00; round curls 50c; manicures 50c.
Two arrests were made by the police late last night for intoxication on the streets. A man who gave his name as John Doe after having been locked up three hours was released on $15 bail to appear for trial at 3 p. m. today in police court, and John Duncan put up $25 bail to appear at the same hour. Both forfeited their bail.

The Elks club restaurant will serve a turkey dinner to its patrons Saturday evening, Christmas eve.
Edgar Wight, reliable jeweler.
Lynn Brown left last night for Seattle where he will visit his brother Earl for ten days or two weeks.
For tires and tubes, Exchange Tire Co.
Dr. J. F. Reddy returned to this city yesterday after a week or ten days in San Francisco on business.
Big orange sale at Jones' Fri. and Sat., 3 doz. for 50c.
Jack Atken is quite ill at his home on Catherine street through exposure suffered by himself and wife on their return trip this week by auto from Roseville, Calif., where they had visited their son. Enroute home they encountered much rain and snow between Redding and Dunsuir, which caused several accidents to their auto the last of which resulted in the car completely overturning, but fortunately they escaped injury. From Dunsuir they returned home by train and ever since Mr. Atken has been under the care of a physician.
Ground was broken yesterday for a new California bungalow on Main street near Orange. The building, when completed, will be the home of A. J. Vance and family.
Scandinavians will hold their annual New Year's fest in Phoenix hall, at Phoenix, New Year's eve. Luthfish will be served at eight p. m. Our slogan, for good time.
A consignment of ten Underwood typewriters arrived this week for the new rental service established by the Medford Business college. These machines are for the accommodation of students and others, and will be kept in perfect running order by an expert repairman. This new department of the college will also buy and sell used typewriters of all makes.
For the holidays, phone 341, and have those clothes cleaned and pressed, or sponged and pressed. Prompt service and prices the lowest consistent with first class work. Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners, 116 Mistletoe.
Mrs. Wm. G. Tait who had been visiting in Baltimore, Md., and other eastern and middle western cities for the past month or six weeks was expected home this afternoon with her daughter Jane. Mr. Tait accompanied them as far as Portland on the trip but will remain in that city for several days before returning to this city.

Ray Warner of Trail, who was arrested at Trail yesterday by District Deputy Game Warden Pat Dalley for killing deer out of season and selling buckskin, was fined $100 and costs and given a three months jail sentence by Acting Justice of the Peace Frank P. Farrell, who suspended the sentence during good behavior. The George Lawrence company, a big saddle and leather concern, had purchased some of the illegal buck skin from him.
Masquerade at Eagle Point, New Year's Eve.
Hornce Pelton of Gold Hill and Con Leever of Central Point, were among the many out of town members of the Elks lodge in attendance at the Elks Christmas tree doings last night.
Four feet of snow are reported on Oregon mountain road on the Grants Pass-Crescent City road.
Grand New Year high flaks! Trail! New Year's Eve!
Two shivering and homeless men who arrived in the city on a freight train this morning, approached Chief of Police Timony at the depot with the remark that they had had nothing to eat for forty-eight hours. The chief and a newspaper man who were filled with the Christmas spirit managed to scrape up fifty cents between them and gave it to the hungry men with the admonition, "Go eat your heads off."
Christmas wreaths and mistletoe and trees are being sold on haymarket square and in the Star theater lobby, and the public market is anticipating a big patronage in such decorations tomorrow morning.
Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, principal of the Jackson school entertained last evening at a Christmas party at her home for a number of school children. The big alumni assembly which was held yesterday afternoon was well attended by high school students and parents. A pleasing program was held the main feature of which was a Christmas playlet with students in the cast. The orchestra under the leadership of Miss Sherwood, made a creditable showing. Many alumni were present and upon request by Mr. Campbell, principal of the high school, several of them arose before the large assemblage and talked at length on subjects akin to the education of the younger generation. Most of the speakers were mistreated college students who have been overworked pitifully at institutions of higher learning during the past three months.

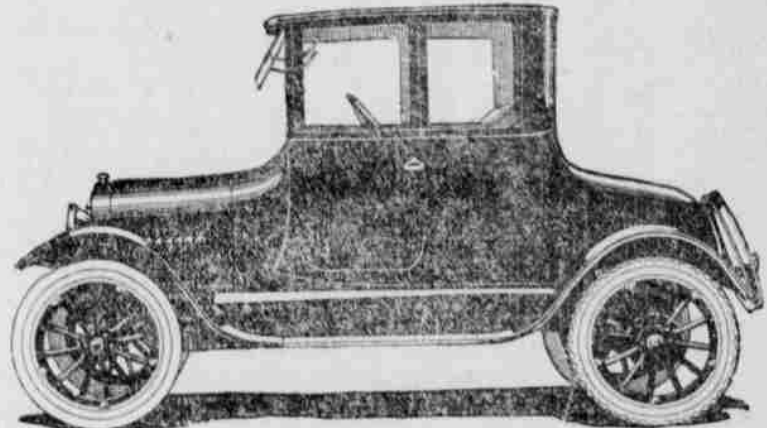

RATTLING GOOD WRESTLING BOUT G. HILL TONIGHT

Richard Kanthe, middleweight champion of Michigan will meet Ralph Hand at the Gold Hill pavilion this evening, and the bout is attracting considerable attention among the wrestling fans of the city and valley. Manager Bowers has made arrangement to heat the pavilion with four large old fashioned base burners, loaded with charcoal, for the comfort of patrons. Kanthe is a husky looking athlete, and ought to be able to put up a first class match. He weighs 155 pounds and appears to be in the pink of condition.
Hand is in Gold Hill from Cottage Grove, and last Saturday threw Young Hackenschmidt at Cottage Grove, and is improving under the tutelage of Ted Thye. Kanthe is about his weight and age. As Hand is very popular among the fans of the valley, a large crowd is expected.
There will be a preliminary bout starting at 8:30 o'clock, best two out of three falls, or a decision at the end of an hour.
The main event is to a finish, a $200 side bet, and a 75-25 per cent split of the gate receipts. Tickets are on sale in this city at Brown and Brown's.

MANY ATTEND PHOENIX CHRISTMAS EXERCISES

Notwithstanding the heavy storm of last night the Phoenix church was filled with a happy crowd of children and older people for the fine Christmas program presented by the Sunday school. This was unusually good and well given, from beginning to end; and was followed by distribution of the treats for the children, and a Christmas offering for relief and missionary work in the Near East.
On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock there will be a brief Christmas service of the Sunday school, with songs, etc. At 11 a. m. the special Christmas message by the pastor and music for the occasion.
Sunday evening at 7:30 stereopticon slides showing "The Other Wise Man", Dr. Van Dyke's beautiful Christmas story. C. E. Christmas meeting at 6:45. Topic, "Following the Star." All are invited to join in making these services expressive of the true Christmas spirit of gladness, helpfulness and good cheer.

For All the Family
Buy a Chevrolet "490" Closed Car and Make This a Real Christmas
Patton and Robinson Inc
Shasta
Tel. 150

Safe Milk for INFANTS and INVALIDS
ASK FOR Horlick's the Original
Avoid Imitations and Substitutes
For Infants, Invalids and Growing Children | Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder | The Original Food-Drink For All Ages | No Cooking - Nourishing - Digestible

ONE MORE CHANCE!
to get your Xmas presents—Come early and get in on that special priced candy—for it's about gone—
3 Dozen Oranges for 50c
10c Package Pressed Figs for 5c
$4.50 sets Table Cloth and Napkins ..... $3.90
1 French Ivory Jewel Case, worth $5.75, now ..... $5.00
1 set Ivory Comb and Brush, worth $3.50, now ..... $3.00
Baby Crip Blankets, worth $1.60, now ..... $1.35
STATIONERY! STATIONERY!
Nothing makes a nicer present and we are selling way below the other fellow.
FANCY BOX CHOCOLATES—SEE THESE
XMAS BOXES CIGARS
VEGETABLES GALORE—Lettuce, Celery, Sweet Spuds, Radishes and everything good.
YOU ALL KNOW WHO SELLS THE CHEAPEST
JONES--of Course
Free Delivery Phone 125-126

OBITUARY

GILBERT—Waldo E. Gilbert passed away at his home at 113 Cottage street, Friday morning, Dec. 23, 1921, at 10:35, at the age of 69 years, 2 months, 23 days.
He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Louise E. Gilbert, four daughters—Mrs. Blanche Reynolds, Waltonville, Ill.; Mrs. Mamie Morgan, Ashley, Ill.; Mrs. Mabel Kennedy, Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. Sadie Gulley, Sesser, Ill., and one son, Harry C. Gilbert, Yakima, Wash. One son, Everett Gilbert, died while in the service. Also four step-sons, Worth Stewart, Clinton, Indiana; D. M. Stewart, Mattoon, Ill.; Frank Stewart, Clinton, Ind.; D. M. Stewart, Medford, Ore., and Harry Stewart, Medford, Ore.
He was born at Mount Vernon, Jefferson county, Illinois. He came to the west eleven years ago, having resided in Klamath Falls six years and in Medford five years.
The remains are at Weeks-Conger funeral parlors. Funeral will be announced later.
ROBERTSON—Clea Emma Robertson, eldest daughter of John Leady Robertson died at her father's home in Eagle Point, Ore., December 22, from pneumonia, aged 16 years 7 months, 3 days, after an illness of two days. Funeral services will be held at the home Saturday at 12 o'clock, interment in Central Point cemetery.
TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY
FOR SALE—Turkeys, 2 year old toms for breeding. J. C. Heering, Central Point.
FOR SALE—Modern cottage at Ashland, 7 rooms and bath, 11 acres all cleared, 5 in orchard, fine soil, house in good condition. Sell on terms of $250 cash, balance to suit at 6 per cent. Wheeler, 204 N. Sixth St., Grants Pass, Ore. 230
WANTED—Man or lady for southern Oregon at $10 per day. Experience unnecessary but must have $50 and be a booster for the 1925 fair. Don't apply if you can't qualify. 115 N. Oakdale. 233
WANTED—To trade A No. 1 piano for milk cows. Address A. P. Ano, Gold Hill, Ore. 235
WANTED—To let a small logging contract on percentage basis: good house and barn to use; short haul. Address: Logs, Mail Tribune. 237
FOR RENT—Sleeping rooms with heat. 323 S. Riverside. 241
FOR SALE—Small home, east front, long lot, several fruit trees; water, sewer, inside toilet, new floors, paint and paper. Terms. Why not buy a little home you can afford to own and start the New Year right? Phone owner, 452-R, evenings. 236

Sound Rubber Company
wishes you
A Merry Christmas!
To you, the people of the Northwest, we extend the heartiest good wishes of the Christmas season.
And we express our sincere appreciation of your cordial support and good will toward an organization founded in the Northwest to serve Northwest tire users.
We have enlarged the factory facilities to care for an increased volume of business, and we pledge ourselves to maintain the high standard of SOUND TIRES in order to make 1922 a year of tire satisfaction for you.
Sound Rubber Company
Tacoma, Washington.