Pending an opinion from Attorney General Van Winkle as to the effective date of the new irrigation district code, as amended by the special legislative session last week, State Engineer Cupper is advising all districts to prepare to hold their annual elections on January 10, as provided under the old statutes. The new code, which does not carry an emergency clause, provides for holding elections on the second Tuesday in October. The code was passed by the last regular session but was vetoed by the governor and was passed by the special session over the veto. Weather conditions led to objection to the January date.
