M. D. Hogan and son Bernard and Cyril Atkins went to Medford Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Mee returned to their home Tuesday after a few days visit with relatives at Central Point, and Mrs. Mee's mother at Grants Pass, Mrs. Margaret Taylor.

A Christmas tree and entertainment given by the school children, at the home of A. Leonard, under the supervision of the teacher, Miss Lizzie Ellman, proved quite a success. After the program the presents were distributed among the children. The home-made candy was furnished and made by Mr. Leonard.

Mrs. Will Jordan returned to her home last Friday from Grants Pass where she had gone a few days before expecting the remains of her father, Riley M. Thompson, who died at Aberdeen, Wash., Dec. 15th, at the age of 31 years, 1 month and 15 days. Mr. Thompson was a resident of Josephine county, having lived a number of years in Jerome Prairie. The last few years he had made his home with his elder daughter, Mrs. Miles Mee of Aberdeen, Wash. Mr. Thompson had requested to be buried by the side of his wife, Rebecca Thompson, who died and was buried in the old cemetery near Grants Pass. Mrs. Jordan went to Grants Pass to make arrangements for the funeral, intending to have the remains laid by the side of his wife as he had requested, but he could not have him buried in the old cemetery and decided to have him buried at Aberdeen by the side of his son-in-law Miles Mee who recently died at Aberdeen, Wash.

Mr. Thompson leaves to mourn his loss two daughters and one son, Mrs. Miles Mee of Aberdeen, Wash., Mrs. W. Jordan of Applegate, Ore., and Riley Thompson, now of Aberdeen, nine grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren.

Steve Emery station at Holland, working on the Josephine Caves road is spending Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Hayward.

Chester Howard and wife from Portland are visiting Mr. Howard's parents Captain and Mrs. Howard.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

Leland Pettigrew of Reese creek, Rev. Charles C. Huet, the Sunday school evangelist, E. G. High of Ashland, Roy Lewis of Talent were here for dinner Friday. Rev. C. C. Huet was on his way up to Derby to deliver some fixtures for the Sunday school Christmas eve entertainment at Derby Sunday school, and Rev. H. G. Adams, the minister who is in charge of the work here, Butte Falls, Brownsboro, Sams Valley and Table Rock, who is boarding at the Sunnyside hotel, accompanied him to Derby, and after supper they returned to Reese creek schoolhouse where they were having a Christmas entertainment, and Rev. Adams took part in the exercises. Rev. Huet returned to Derby to assist in the work there, and Mr. Adams returned to his room at the close of the meet on foot, a good introduction to his new field.

While on the subject of ministerial life will say that Mr. Adams will preach here next Sunday, Jan. 1st, 1922, at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. E. G. High of Ashland, was here in the interest of the aviators, and Roy Lewis came in Saturday evening with a six horse team from Fish Lake and spent the night at the Sunnyside on his way to Talent. He had been working on the Fish Lake dam all summer and as the work was shut down for the season was bringing out some of the things. J. D. Patrick, another member of the force who had been working on the Fish Lake dam, a carpenter, also came out and spent Friday night with us.

Miss Alice Humphrey of Derby, and Miss Lay Toney came out on the Butte Falls stage and went up home to spend their vacations. They are attending the high school in Medford.

We had an unusually interesting session of our Sunday school Sunday morning, Rev. Adams leading the Bible class and H. E. Campbell the intermediate class. There were twenty-seven in attendance and Rev. Adams preached the Christmas sermon at night. Before he commenced his sermon he presented the cause of the starving children of Armenia, but I did not learn the amount, but from the appearance in the basket would amount to several dollars.

At the close of the Sunday school the annual election of officers was held and Mr. Carl Esch, who has held the position of superintendent for the past two years was re-elected by acclamation but refused to hold the position any longer and then our Bible class teacher, H. E. Campbell was elected superintendent and Carl Esch as assistant and Miss Nora Childreth was elected secretary-treasurer in place of Miss Cleo Robinson, deceased. A committee was appointed to draft memorial resolutions to her memory.

There were only a few people came in Christmas for dinner beside our regular boarders. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Hubbs, the shoe dealer in Medford, and John W. Smith and family of Medford.

F. A. Whaley, the section boss on the P. & E. R., went up to his home in Butte Falls to spend Christmas with his family, and his daughter, Miss Rose, who has been helping in the Sunnyside hotel also went home to spend Christmas week with her mother and family.

Miss Frances Greb, who is teaching in the Persist district, and had been out to take the examination, returned to take charge of her school Monday morning.

The mail carriers are rejoicing to think that the Christmas season is over as they have been simply loaded down with parcel post.

Lois Martin and Aden Hazelton who have been stopping at the Sunnyside for the past week or two have rented the Haeckathorn house and gone to batching. They will spend their time trapping this winter along the banks of Butte creek and Antelope creek.

J. D. Patrick, since he left Fish Lake, has been spending a part of his time with us.

Mrs. Thomas F. Nichols has gone up to her old home to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farlow and her husband is taking his meals at the Sunnyside hotel.

Mrs. Wm. Smith of Ashland has been here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gus Nichols.

Harry Pellett, the foreman on the Butte Creek orchard, was a business caller Tuesday morning and so were John Norris, the foreman on the Willey orchard, and Guy Conner, at present at Wellen, who also is one of the fruit men of Jackson county, and A. C. Spence of Brownsboro and J. W. Miller of Lake creek, also Lew Grison of Lake creek were here.

Gus A. Johnson, a traveling hardware man of Sacramento, Cal., was here for dinner Tuesday. F. W. Thullens of Honey Lake, Cal., was also here.

Frank Ditsworth and wife passed through here Tuesday on their way to Medford with five cans of cream.

Mrs. W. E. McDowell of Kansas City, Mo., who is here visiting her brother, O. M. Goss of Butte Falls, passed through here on the stage Tuesday for Medford.

Roscoe Davis of Klamath Falls, who is visiting his brothers Roy and Chester was in town Tuesday and he and his brother Chester took dinner at the Sunnyside.

This Wednesday afternoon E. G. High came in to the Sunnyside hotel accompanied by Owen W. Reid and Miss Dorothy Tucker of Ashland, and after introducing them informed me that they wanted to be married and in less time than it takes me to write it I pronounced the ceremony making them man and wife, and they immediately started on their way for their home.

Chris C. Beale who is carrying the mail for the contractor from Butte Falls to Derby, came out and took dinner here today.

PLEASANT CREEK

The Wimer and Pine Grove schools gave an interesting entertainment at the church Christmas eve. The children all did remarkably well, owing to the efficient training of their respective teachers, Mrs. Grace Bush and Miss Alberta Orr.

Hubert Smith spent Christmas visiting friends and relatives in Medford. Col. B. F. Millard and Oscar Brink of Seattle, spent a couple of days at Chas. Owen's last week.

Mr. Davis has gone to Alameda, Cal., for a few weeks.

Fred Williams has returned home after an absence of several months.

The farmers of this vicinity are rejoicing over the fact that John Brownworth trapped three coyotes very recently.

The Williams Bros. are busy these days getting their cattle in off the range. To say they are hustlers is putting it very mildly.

Roland Baer who has been working near Crescent City, Cal., has returned home.

Miss Helen Monthorn spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minthorn.

Wm. Hillis and Shorty Smith, Peter of Evans creek were in our midst last week, looking about cattle that were still on the range.

Ed Thompson, the all-round handy man of our neighborhood, acted as typist for J. E. Ryno a couple of days this week.

The men working on the J. E. Ryno mining property have been transferred to Grants Pass to help out with the work on his property in Josephine county, for a short time.

Mat Neathammer who recently went to Portland, has returned to this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Woodcock spent Christmas with friends in Rogue River.

Leslie Jones has gone to Grants Pass to work.

This community was both pained and shocked to hear of Grandma Rule's sudden death last week, as she was known and respected by everyone.

From all indications the miners of upper Pleasant Creek are getting after the yellow metal, as the creek water is decidedly of that color.

Roland Smith of Medford visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith.

ANTIOCH ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Lucus of Beagle received two blue ribbons and a ten dollar premium on their Romney sheep at the Ashland fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sanderson went to Jacksonville Tuesday to visit a sick cousin of Mrs. Sanderson.

Mrs. Forleigh will attend Teachers Institute at Jacksonville this week.

Mr. Mynatt and Mr. Sebreen had the misfortune to have some of their turkeys stolen two nights before Christmas.

Mrs. C. M. Chapman and Myrtle Chapman are staying with home folks this week.

Mr. E. Glass, Sam Gordon and W. C. Chapman made a trip to Central Point Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Diamond and daughter spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Pollard.

Quite a number of parents were out to the nice program given at Antioch school Tuesday.

During the two weeks vacation Mrs. Farleigh will visit her mother, Mrs. Archie M. Bunch of Leland, Ore., and then go on to Portland for a visit.

Ernest Webb and Mr. Cocker of Central Point, went out to Mr. and Mrs. Lucus Monday as they are interested in Rhode Island Red chickens, and Mrs. Lucus has several hundred of them.

Bert Chapman lost his brood sow by a car running into it and killing it.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whitte of Moonville and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Case Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Glass and Mr. and Mrs. Frink all spent Christmas with Mr. Gordon at Beagle.

Mr. Powell is now staying with his sister, Mrs. T. Godfrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson and family spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Lucus.
