

Local and Personal

On account of next Monday being a legal holiday the business places, offices, banks, postoffice and barber shops will be closed that day. The general delivery window at the post office will be open one hour in the morning, from 8 to 9, and there will be no carrier delivery of mail that day.

One Wake drag saw for sale, $75. If taken at once, 146 Front St. 242

Men's suits 10c pair. Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central. 14

The public market wishes you a Happy New Year, and a greeting on the bulletin board this morning, written by Superintendent Runyard, to the market patrons. "The year just closed has been the most trying year in the public market's history of ten years. Stuff was scarce and high. We believe better times are ahead." The scarce stuff referred to was potatoes, onions and vegetables.

Big masked ball, New Year's eve, Kingsbury Springs. Cash prizes, 241

Does your Ford start hard these cold mornings? We guarantee to make it start right or no charge. Riverside Garage. 14

Special New Year services are announced for Sunday at the First Baptist church, morning and evening, with themes appropriate to the day. Rev. F. R. Leach will speak at 11 a. m. on "What Will God Do This Year?" and at 7:30 p. m. on "The Parting of the Ways." Young people will be especially interested in the evening discussion.

City assessments will be delinquent after January third and a penalty of five per cent will be added. 242

Start the New Year right with a good accounting system. You can't beat mechanical speed and accuracy. Your business investment justifies this much protection. See Calles, the Burroughs representative now. Ask the man who owns one. 241

The Epworth league of the Methodist church will send three basketball teams to Talent on Saturday night to play the Epworth teams from that place. The teams consist of a first and second team for boys and one girls team. They will remain in Talent to a watch party being given by the church there. Wednesday night the local teams broke even at Rogue River. The first team took the corresponding Rogue River team to a cleaning while the second team was badly defeated by the villagers.—Grants Pass Courier.

Mrs. Paul Hansen corrects for Nubone. Phone 585-J. 14

W. H. Laverette, of the Four-site Sales agency, of Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass and Klamath Falls, was in Medford from Ashland Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Klocker leave this evening for Grants Pass to attend an annual watch party in the home of Dr. and Mrs. G. G. Bancroft.

Fresh lime and plaster, Medford Lumber Co.

Invest your savings in the Jackson County Building and Loan association.

Effective January 1, the internal revenue stamp on parcel post matter will be discontinued. Postmaster Wm. J. Warner announced this morning. These stamps have been affixed to all parcel posts bearing more than 25 cents postage.

Cash prizes at Kingsbury Springs masked ball, New Year's eve. 241

Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano and harmony. Classical and popular courses. Studio 218 Liberty Bldg., Medford, Ore. Phone 72. 14

A gigantic sale of groceries, flour and feed, fresh and salted meats at the Spot Cash Basket Grocery, cash and carry system, the Vinson Barn, 226 N. Riverside Ave. 256

Attention is called to all members of the First Christian church that Sunday morning is an important meeting for all members as plans will be completed and announced for the big mortgage burning, dedication and home coming services on January 15th. The presence of every member is urgently requested Sunday morning to assist in making this the greatest event in the history of the church. A helpful New Year's message and good music.

Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano, will resume lessons Tues. Jan. 3d. Studio 218 Liberty Bldg. Phone 72. 245

Medford has two splendid creameries making first class butter and furnishing a market for all the milk that can be produced. They have thousands of dollars invested, employ a number of men and the people should insist on having their butter when ordering from dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Garnett of Medford have been guests at the Portland hotel portland, this week.

January third is the last day to pay assessments without penalty. 242

Don't forget January 3rd is the last day to pay city assessments without penalty. 242

Among the corporations filing articles of incorporation with the state department at Salem yesterday was the Gold Coin Finance corporation of Medford, capital stock $50,000, with A. M. Knapp, M. P. Schmitt and Thomas J. Pele as incorporators.

Every child having the benefit of kindergarten training makes better progress in later school days. Tiny Tots School opens a new class Jan. 3. Phone 832-W. 241

Edgar Wight for low prices. 14

Guests at the Hotel Medford include P. Greenfield of Minneapolis, Fred C. Davis of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crane of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burnley of Seattle, D. D. McPhee and J. A. Welch of Spokane.

Shingles, shakes, Medford Lbr. Co. Masquerade at Eagle Point, New Year's eve. 241

Lime at Medford Lumber Co. 14

Although the finishing work incidental to the remodeling and renovation of the California-Oregon Power company offices has not yet been completed, and will not be for a day or so, the local and division offices which had been located upstairs for over a week, were removed down to their old location on the ground floor this morning, and began doing business there as a convenience to the public. Several more truck loads of office furniture and equipment arrived at the building this forenoon.

Dr. H. E. Murphy, dentist, over Woolworth store.

A penalty of five per cent will be added if assessments are not paid by January third. 242

Prof. Irving Vining has been appointed by the Ashland chamber of commerce to represent that community at the meeting of the state chamber of commerce to be held in Portland next Tuesday.

For Sale—Classified business directory of Medford containing the office buildings, schools, churches, lodges, clubs, and all lines of business in Medford. Only 50c a copy. Mail orders filled promptly. Bliss Helme, 816 W. Tenth street, Medford. 14

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 260.

Miss Alice Vandersluis, former supervisor of music in the Medford public schools was a visitor in this city yesterday and this morning. Miss Vandersluis left today for her home in Granda, Calif., to spend the rest of the Christmas vacation. She is supervisor of music in the public schools at San Rafael, Calif.

Try our merchants lunch. The Shasta.

Excellent supper at Trail New Year's eve! 241

Lys Brown, who had been visiting his brother Earl in Seattle for the past ten days returned to this city this morning.

Weyenberg shoes. Expert shoe repairing. Herbert Tilley, 7 N. Fir St. 14

Won't we have fun at Riverside Community Club ball New Year's eve! I'll say so! 241

Mrs. Mark Montgomery returned Thursday from her holiday season visit at San Francisco.

When in need of shingles and roofing call Wallace Woods, 108, 111 E. Main.

Masquerade at Eagle Point, New Year's Eve. 241

The work of renovating the Southern Pacific depot is progressing fast. The kalsomining of the interior has all been done, and the revarnishing of the benches and wood work will be completed by next Thursday. The painters of course will not work Sunday or Monday. When the depot job is completed they will repaint the water tank. Most of the depot benches were revarnished today and bore the warning "Wet Paint."

Big-Yama Yama party at Trail New Year's eve! 241

R. I. Stewart, builder, contracts for all buildings. Residence 217 Apple street. Phone 843.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Henry of Chicago who some time ago purchased the Chadwick orchard, will leave Monday for a two or three months stay at Chicago, during which time Mrs. Henry expects to undergo an operation.

Amy cott $3.25 at Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central Ave. 14

Hot coffee and light lunches, tamales and chili con carne at DeVoe's.

The local Red Cross headquarters requests that A. R. Rhoden communicate with it at once on an important matter.

Moleskin breeches and pants, Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central. 14

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, phone 108, 711 E. Main St.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Preston and son and Miss Billie Norris arrived this morning from San Francisco where they had spent the Christmas season. Miss Norris will visit indefinitely with her mother, Mrs. Preston.

Masquerade at Eagle Point, New Year's Eve. 241

See the new Liberty cars at the Riverside Garage. 14

J. V. Mason of Ashland was arrested yesterday by Deputy Motor Vehicle Inspector J. J. McMahon for driving a car without the necessary license plates attached. He pleaded guilty and was fined by Acting Justice of the Peace Farrell this morning.

When in need of sash and doors, call Wallace Woods, 108 or come to 711 E. Main St.

Insurance Plus Service. R. A. Holmes, The Insurance Man. 14

Mrs. Blaine Klum and daughter will remain in this city until time for Miss Klum to resume her studies at Mills college.

Ring out the old! Ring in the new! Where? Trail! 241

Lath and plaster, Medford Lbr. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loder of Corning, Calif., are visiting in the city for a few days. The Lodgers were formerly residents here, and Mr. Loder was associated with the local branch of the California-Oregon Power company at that time.

Masquerade at Eagle Point, New Year's Eve. 241

Try a Super-tread tire—the tire with a wider and thicker tread—they wear longer. Riverside Garage. 14

V. Meido Hillis, who had been visiting his family in this city during the Christmas holidays left this morning by auto for Portland accompanied by Miss Mary Ulen, Mrs. Hillis' sister, whose home is in that city.

Confetti and serpentine at Trail, New Year's eve! 241

China lily bulbs. Jap Art Store. 14

Trench shoes, hob-nails, Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central. 14

Ralph G. Bardwell left yesterday afternoon on a ten days business trip to San Francisco, Los Angeles and other California points. He will take in the big football game at Pasadena.

Start the New Year right in a new Liberty car, the car for those who cannot afford to own a cheaper one, and good enough for those who can afford a much higher priced car.

When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them. 14

Art Burgess of Chicago, arrived this morning for a week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Burgess.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 260.

Prize waltz at Trail New Year's eve! $10.00 pair of Walk-Over shoes given to the gentleman and a fine pair of silk stockings to the lady by the Hut Shoe Store of Medford. 241

C. C. Cate returned this morning from Salem where he had been attending a meeting of the board of directors of the Oregon Growers Cooperative association.

The famous Herman army shoes and officers dress shoes, Army Goods Store 32 S. Central. 14

High grade tailors for men and women. Orres, Ashland, Ore. 14

Frank Doremus is in southern California and will be among the Medford folks witnessing the football game between the University of California and Washington and Jefferson university at Pasadena, New Year's day.

Army underwear and union suits cheaper than elsewhere. Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central. 14

Dancing! Nat! To-nite! Confetti! Kernal Airplanes! Welcome the New Year in with fun and frolic. 241

E. H. Hurd recently arrived home from his extended business sojourn in the middle west, feeling fine after his attack of sickness while away and happy to get back to the valley again and see its prosperity, as compared with the financial depression he witnessed while away.

Grand New York high jinks! Trail! New Year's Eve! 241

If you want to rent an up-to-date furnished apartment, for two, with steam heat, hot and cold water, electricity for light, gas stove, etc., furnished in Mall Tribune building better pick it up at once. Can be occupied at once. 14

A feature of today's public market was the sale of fifty sacks of fine potatoes at $2.25 a sack and 400 pounds of first quality red Mexican beans, raised in the Applegate, at 8 cents a pound. The sale of these Applegate products will be continued next Saturday, and on that day there will also be large offerings of beef, mutton and pork.

Edgar Wight, reliable jeweler. Hemstitching, Picotting, Sc per yd. Buttons covered. Handicraft Shop. 14

The last day of the old year opened this morning with a nasty fog and a disagreeable chilly mist. Rain is the prediction for tonight and New Year's day.

Marinello Shop, 409 Liberty building. Graduate expert work. Satisfaction guaranteed. Marcelles $1.00, shampoo 75c, round curl 50c, manicures 50c. 245

Nat! To-nite! Watch the Old Year out and welcome the New Year in! William Von der Heulen arrived home this forenoon from a business trip to San Francisco.

A few slightly used phonographs at a bargain at Palmer's Piano House. 241

C. W. Shafter, stranger in the city, was arrested last night by Officer Leggett on charges of intoxication and having liquor in his possession, as a half pint bottle of moonshine was found on him. B. O. Thompson, a canal company worker was also arrested last night by Officer Adams on an intoxication charge. After they had sobered up both men put up a cash bail for their appearance in police court today, which bail they forfeited.

Army overcoats and genuine all wool English rainite overcoats, Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central. 14

Mrs. Pearl Dux Hollingsworth, a former resident of Jacksonville, was married a few days ago to a gentleman named Lee, in Portland, where they will reside.—Jacksonville Post.

Nat! To-nite! Big watch party. Admission 10c. 241

WEDDING BELLS

Wednesday evening, Dec. 28, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. D. E. Millard on West 11th st., Otto A. Wicklein and Miss Lillian L. Groves were united in marriage in the presence of Miss Mary Wheeler and Wm. P. Debiely, witnesses. Mr. Wicklein has resided in Medford for several months, coming here from California. Miss Groves has lived with her parents in Stockton, Cal., and is a charming and popular young woman of that city. Mr. Wicklein has a small ranch west of Phoenix, but they will make their home in Medford for the present.

Notice

The partnership formerly existing between Charles G. Goold and James F. Campbell in the dairy business has been dissolved. The undersigned has withdrawn from the firm, has nothing to do with the business from now on and will not be responsible for debts contracted from this date in said business. CHARLES G. GOOLD. 241

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—First class private milk delivered twice a day in neighborhood of 919 W. Eleventh. 242

WANTED—Woman who works would like to get board and room for work done during spare hours and days. Call at 302 E. Ninth St. 243

FOR SALE—No. 1 grain and alfalfa hay in the barn, $12 ton. Phone 10-F-2. 242

FOR SALE—Large Cecilian slightly used phonograph, $1.75 size, now $85 One Victrola, $100 size, $65. First come, first served. Palmer Piano House. 241

FOR SALE—A lot of building and foundation rock cheap now. 317 E. Jackson St. Phone 200. 241

FOR SALE—Swenson stump puller. Address M. Mall Tribune. 242

FOR RENT—Room, close in, 115 Mistletoe. 246

Masked Ball

New Years Evening

Kingsbury Springs

2 Cash Prizes—10 per cent of Receipts less War Tax. Everybody cordially invited.

CLOTHING SCHOOL
MEDFORD LIBRARY
JAN. 4TH TO 7TH

The Home Demonstration agent of Jackson county has secured Miss Cooley, state clothing specialist of the Oregon State College, to give a series of four lessons in clothing making, drawing, color, line and will be for training leaders in pattern 4, 5, 6 and 7. These classes design. This will be open to everyone, but those who attend must promise to help pass information she has gained on to at least one other woman.

The school will be held in the Medford library and will begin at 10 o'clock the first day and be an all-day session. The other days will begin at 9:30. Those attending are asked to bring their lunch, with a cup, cream and sugar. Hot coffee will be furnished.

This is the only time Miss Cooley will be able to be in this part of the state until next March. If interested in this school, phone Miss Cooley, 220.

VALLEY FUEL CO.
EXTENDS GREETINGS

The Valley Fuel company, having completed its second year of business in Medford takes this opportunity to convey to one and all its cordial wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year. This firm has built up a successful business, based upon high quality, service and fair and courteous treatment and are better prepared now than at any previous time, to serve its patrons. Its management takes this opportunity to thank the people of Medford for their patronage which has made possible this success and assure them that, during the new year, they will make an effort to be of even greater service to them. 240

At this season of the year it is natural that our thoughts should turn in appreciation to those whose kind consideration has done so much toward making 1921 a prosperous year for us.

We therefore take this opportunity of extending to you our best wishes for a happy new year.

Heath's Drug Store
The San-Tox Shop
109 East Main Street.

START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT

Attend services at the

First Christian Church

SUNDAY—Two helpful services

11 A. M. New Year's Sermon

"FORGETTING THE THINGS BEHIND"

7:30 P. M. Our popular evening service. Sermon "ADAM, WHERE ART THOU"

Music for the evening—Trombone Solo, Vocal Duet and Male Quartette.

"The Homelike Church"

"FIGHTIN' MAD!"

You'll be, too, if you Miss it!!!

BRAND NEW SHOW TODAY

That crack on the jaw is a humdinger!

There are others even humdingerer!

"Fightin' Mad" is the fightin'est kind of a fightin', punchin', he-man picture of the big outdoors!

It is described as having the vigor, the breeziness, the action and romance of "THE MARK OF ZORRO" with more up-to-date and AMERICAN adventure!

WILLIAM DESMOND

has the role of the irrepressible ex-service man who finds life too tame after the big war—and goes after thrills!

PAGE

COMING TUESDAY

Norma Talmadge

in "THE PASSION FLOWER"

IS IT TRUE

That there is

"Too Doggone Much Religion?"

No, I didn't say it; it is an expression used by a Medford man the other day.

Hear a discussion of this question Sunday evening, 7:30 in the sermon on

Goodbye Old Year

by

REV. J. RANDOLPH SASNETT

11 A. M.

Face Front With the New Year

You'll have some experiences in 1922 in which you will greatly need divine aid. Start the new year in league with God.

First Methodist Episcopal Church

Fourth and Bartlett