

TO REPEAT XMAS CANTATA SUNDAY EVENING AT 7.30

The Christmas Cantata, entitled "The Manger Throne" by Manny, which was given at the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning by a double quartet drew such a large audience and was so greatly enjoyed by those present that it will be repeated this Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m., by request. Those who wish will have this chance to hear it over again and those who did not hear it will be given an opportunity to listen to one of the finest concert ever given in the city. Everyone is urged to be present promptly at 7:30 p. m. The members of the double quartet, are as follows:

Sopranos, Mrs. Fred Straug and Mrs. E. MacElhose; contraltos, Mrs. Edna Isaacs and Miss Sherwood; tenors, Forrest Edmondson and Everett Braxton; basses, William Vawter and Dr. W. W. Howard.

At the morning service, there will be reception of new members and sacrament of the Lord's supper. "The Church and the New Year" will be the sermon subject.

Start the new year right by attending religious services somewhere.

GOLD HILL LIME PLANT SHOWS A LOSS TO STATE

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 31.—Demand for lime from the state lime plant at Gold Hill has fallen far short of the estimates upon which the state was induced to enter into the lime producing business, according to A. R. Cordrey, secretary of the state lime board, who, in a letter to Governor Olcott accompanying a financial statement of the board's activities, declares that the affairs of the board "are in an unsatisfactory condition." Estimates presented prior to the opening of the plant at Gold Hill were that from 20,000 to 60,000 tons of lime per year were needed on Oregon farms, whereas total sales during the three years of the plant's operation have aggregated only 4128 tons. Since the opening of the plant June 1, last, orders for lime have aggregated only 376 tons. Approximately 500 tons were produced during the time the plant was operated this year, leaving 100 tons in the bunkers unsold. The lime which has been sold to the farmers at a price of $1 a ton f. o. b. the Gold Hill plant has cost the state a total of $5813.27 to produce, or in excess of $10 per ton. Whether the plant will be reopened again, Cordrey states, depends upon the demand for lime and the cost of labor to produce the same.

the latter part of the past week to spend the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hamerick, and her many young friends in the city.

Christmas was beautifully and fittingly observed with appropriate exercises at the churches here Saturday evening. A record crowd was in attendance at both the Christian and Brick churches and those who attended were greatly pleased with the programs at both places of worship. Many consider the exercises held on Saturday evening the best ever given here and those people responsible for the success of the evening's entertainment are to be highly lauded and praised for their part in helping to make Christmas merry for all and for keeping alive and making real the true spirit of Christmas. "The Christmas story was never presented better in song, rhyme and story than at the churches here Saturday night."

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill O. Betts of Gold Hill were among the out of town people spending Christmas with the home folks here.

Misses Mildred Clayton and Josephine Thompson are spending the holidays with relatives and friends at their home cities in the northern part of the state. Both young ladies are members of the local high school staff.

Mrs. Josephine Kahler was a guest Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler of Ashland. Mrs. Kahler returned to her home here Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Horace Bromely (nee Hazel Behl) of Medford, visited her aunt, Miss Mary A. Mee, here Wednesday.

Mrs. W. J. Freeman is spending this week in Portland visiting her son, Henry A. Freeman and wife, and also her daughter, Mrs. Robert Kincaid (nee Lola Freeman) and husband at Camas, Washington.

L. I. Hatfield, well known business man of Central Point, and for many years an expert accountant of no little ability, has been appointed by Mayor W. C. Leever, said appointment being unanimously confirmed by the city council, city recorder of Central Point, to fill the unexpired term of the late John W. Jacobs. At a recent school election held here Mr. Hatfield was elected school clerk of district No. 6, to fill the vacancy caused also by the death of Mr. Jacobs, one of the most prominent and successful city officials that Central Point has ever had.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Leever of Seattle, Wash., are holiday guests in the city and valley this week. While here the visitors are stopping at the home of the former's parents, Mayor and Mrs. W. C. Leever. The hosts of friends of the young couple here look forward with great pleasure to these annual visits and are always glad to welcome these one time Central Pointers back home again.

Superintendent E. H. Hedrick of the local schools in the Rose City this week as a delegate to the Oregon State Teachers' association which meets in the Oregon state metropolis this week.

The news of the death of Miss Mary Collins, popular young Table Rock miss, who was well known here, was received with great sorrow and genuine regret by the many Central Point friends of the young lady. Gay, attractive, always the life of the party and ever a good comrade and friend, Miss Collins will be greatly missed by all who enjoyed her happy and bright comradeship. Many young friends from here attended the funeral services of their young friend which were held in Medford Thursday afternoon at the Weeks-Conger funeral parlors. To the father and brothers and sisters of the youthful girl who was called thus early from the earth, the great number of Central Point friends extend their sympathy.

M. and Mrs. Luther East of Nell Creek, were out-of-town guests here during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon D. Brophy and small daughter, Barbara Elaine, and Miss Gladys Holmes were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flick and daughter Virginia, at their home in Jacksonville.

William E. Price, Jr., of northern Washington, is spending the holiday time with his mother, Mrs. Mary Price of this city.

Miss Esther Pankey, former Central Point business woman, but now engaged as bookkeeper in the Cowley store at Dunsmuir, Cal., is spending this week in Central Point as a holiday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Pankey.

To Stop Coughing at Night
When anyone is suffering from a bronchial affliction or has a cough that lingers on and grows worse at night, the loss of sleep tends to weaken the sufferer and grows more serious the longer it is neglected. Mrs. M. Suter, 647 Longbrook Ave., Stratford, Conn., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar has given me great relief from a severe attack of bronchitis. No medicine stands higher throughout the nation as a family remedy for colds, coughs and croup. Sold everywhere. Adv.

'ARE YOU A MASON'
NEVER WEARS OUT
There's going to be a regular show at the Page theatre: one of the good old fashioned kind that you took your girl or your wife or your mother to and that everybody thoroughly enjoyed because of the clean and wholesome fun in it. "Are You a Mason" that celebrated lively and clever comedy is booked here for Monday, matinee and night. The lines have been slightly changed to suit modern developments, and music has been added. This famous, enjoyable comedy is based on the attempt to "get out" by an "old timer" on the excuse that he is joining the Masons. The complications that ensue when he discovers that his son-in-law is a high dignitary in the order is extremely funny, and the comedy throughout is of the clean, sparkling kind that lives forever.
