OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF MEDFORD, OREGON, under the act of March 1, 1919.

Ye Smudge Pot By Arthur Perry.

Eamon DeValera, president of the Irish republic, resigned Friday, but withdrew the same before it could be accepted.

The submarine, father of a number of dastardly deeds on the high seas, and mother of many high-sounding and meaningless phrases on land, during the last war, has been barred from participation in future killing bees.

Senator Watson is beginning to substantiate some of his wild charges of soldier hangings in France, and the defense will probably be: "War is war." The tragedies, if any, were largely due to the tendency of puttees to make despoils out of officers, selected for their social prominence, and the pull of their Pa's.

By careful selection, civilized man is gradually improving the quality of all animals except folks.

Environment counts for much. Keep him in hot water long enough and he'll be a hard-boiled egg.

We can't hope for the peace that passeth understanding until we make a peace that will pass the senate.

Perhaps you have noticed that if the accused is unknown and as poor as dirt, the case seldom results in a mistrial.

The great task of the movie director is not to hitch his wagon to a star, but to hitch his star to the water wagon.

The illustrations in the tooth-paste ads may not make you want the paste, but they make you want the girl.

Citizens of the United States may rejoice that Ireland has won freedom, but their rejoicing is not unmixed with envy.

It is all right for the bride's mother to weep, but if the groom's mother weeps, all the bride's relatives feel insulted.

When you hear a man bragging about what a wonder his wife is, you may safely bet that she carries out the ashes.

Love is the quality that keeps a young man still mooning about after he discovers that his best girl is an awful liar.

Edison's ambition to make gold out of other metals doubtless was inspired by his friend, Ford's success in making gold out of tin.

A few years ago a man was a suspicious character if he had a little German in him; now he is a suspicious character if he has a little Scotch in him.

Slowly but surely, woman is establishing herself in the world of finance.

King Winter is upon us, and is expected to get off of us by the first of the week. It is a cold snap—the former for the masses, and the latter for the plumbers.

DOCTOR SUEB; FAILED TO TREAT.—(Head Portland Telegram). The next time he will not be stinky.

Another careless engineer has crashed heedlessly into an auto load of folks at a rural crossing. The driver of the car was notorious for his carelessness.

THE NIGGER IN THE WOODPILE.

THERE is little left to the Washington conference now but politics. The French problem is essentially political, so is the Chinese problem.

The French insistence on a big submarine fleet should not be taken too literally. It is doubtful if France would spend millions she hasn't got on a submarine fleet, even if given the opportunity.

Convinced that American participation in such an alliance was impossible she concentrated upon England. The submarine program was a threat against England, it is true; but only a threat, a gesture,—the gun was never loaded.

"Give us an alliance against Germany or we will build a U-boat fleet against you." There is the political strategy of Paris in a nutshell.

Now the Chinese have broken with Japan over Shantung. The break is more nominal than real. What the Chinese delegation really fears is not so much robbery at the hands of Japan, as bomb throwing at the hands of their own people.

These breaks are largely for political effect at home. A Chinese delegation on friendly terms with Japan would never dare return to China. The Young Chinese party feels toward Japan something as the radical branch of Sinn Fein feels toward England. Nothing within reason is going to satisfy them.

So with armament limitation agreed upon, with the U-boat outlawed, with poison gas going under the ban, with a Pacific understanding reached, the Washington conference is, in a sense, over. Only the connecting up of the political loose ends remains.

But this is far from a trivial matter. Politics might conceivably overturn the genuine accomplishments of the conference altogether. The point we wish to make is not that victory has been won, but that politics alone threaten to render a complete victory impossible.

Quill Points

Charity also covers a multitude of skin games.

After all, the most prolific cause of war is the stork.

The secret of leadership is merely the knack of finding followers.

Some of the people who sing "Jesus Paid It All" seem to think this includes grocery bills.

It seems impossible to avoid hurting Japan's pride while interfering with her ambitions.

A lot of people who call to offer you sympathy are merely in quest of more detailed information.

SYMPATHY.

THE cold winds roar against the door, and sleet and snow are flying, and my Aunt Kate remarks, "Some skate is doubtless freezing, dying. Some homeless wight is out tonight in all this blowsy blizzard; the dawn will find him dead and blind, or I'm a finhorn wizard." The room is warm and my fat form on cushions soft is resting, and I would spend the evening's end in singing and in jesting. For comfort's mine, I sleep and dine, conditions all are pleasing; why should I care how others fare outdoors where things are freezing? But my Aunt Kate, as sad as fate, is murmuring and sighing; "It is a sin to sit within, when poor lost boobs are dying. Ah, hear that cry! Some luckless guy for succor now is yelling, so let us go across the snow and bring him to our dwelling." So winter nights to me are frights, they keep my wet tears falling; for my Aunt Kate is simply great at hearing phantoms calling. My good Aunt Kate she sits up late, and leaves her tea untasted; she makes me sore, for it's a bore when sympathy is wasted. I'll gladly aid the gent decayed or any one who suffers; but it's a shame for man or dame to fake up luckless duffers.

SAP AND SALT BY Bert Moses. Illustration of a man on a motorcycle. Text: "More women are won by indifference than by mad devotion." "Few things turn out to be worth the hard work we do in getting them." "Among things always subject to a big discount are fish stories." "Obstinate men are the hope of the legal profession."

A good reputation for paying your debts will have a lot of influence with St. Peter. Illustration of a man with a large fish. Text: "The more you know about microbes, the more you are apt to catch them."

HEZ HECK SAYS: "No fence is high enough to keep in the gal who is set on gaddin'." Illustration of a man and a woman.

PROFESSOR VINING OUTLINES NEW STUNT FOR SOUTHERN OREGON. Illustration of a man in a suit.

Advanced at a recent luncheon of the chamber of commerce in this city, Prof. Irvin Vining, of Ashland, has outlined a plan for a southern Oregon celebration to be staged annually in which all parts of the district would cooperate.

is about as easy as that of Mount Ashland. "Klamath Falls, the fourth place in the southern Oregon circuit of scenic attractions, could take tourists thru their rich irrigated and reclaimed lands to the Lava Beds, south of Tule lake. Here might be reproduced some of the thrilling incidents of the Modoc Indian war, including the tragic murder of General Canby and other peace commissioners. The nearby wonderful ice caves could be visited, in connection with a trip to the Lava Beds, supplemented, of course with campfires and barbecues, as at the other places.

"At each of the four places, side trips could be arranged to other points of lesser interest, with lectures, literature and other features which would make the event of the greatest possible advertising value, as well as social and aesthetic interest, to the community and visitors. Permanent equipment and accommodation could be accumulated from year to year, and cooperation practiced in advertising the enterprise as one of the big tourist attractions of the west."—Grants Pass Courier.

Head Ached and Body Ached There are various symptoms of kidney trouble—rheumatic pains, back ache, sore muscles, stiff joints, and "always tired" feeling. Mrs. Geo. Morgan, E. Fairfield, Vt., writes: "My head ached and my whole body ached so I could not sleep. Foley Kidney Pills gave me relief." They heal and strengthen weak, disordered kidneys and bladder and help them in their work of filtering the blood and casting out of the system the impurities that cause pain and disease. Prompt in action. Adv.
