

Local and Personal

The annual meeting of the Medford Farm Loan association was held last night in the office of the secretary, F. P. Farrell, the session being devoted mostly to routine matters. The officers and directors will continue in office until the new ones are elected at the next meeting, which will be called by the president, A. W. Stone. The association is in good condition, and now that the money market has readjusted itself hopes to handle a large number of applications from borrowers. Eighteen new members were added during 1921, making the total 90. The total amount of loans issued during the year was $329,750.

Ham and eggs 25c. Gusher Cafe. When in need of cash and doors, call Wallace Woods, 108 or come to 711 E. Main St. That much talked of special meeting of the city council will not be held tonight because Mayor Gates was still out of the city, and will not be held tonight, but is now scheduled to be held Friday night.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, phone 108, 711 E. Main St. A lighting plant for sale at a bargain. Owner has secured electricity from the Power company. See it at Paul's Electric Store. 254*

The lumber industry is greatly improved all over the coast and several big ships have recently loaded at Aberdeen and Hoquiam, Washington, and at Portland for Japan. The latter country is using vast quantities of lumber for building purposes.

Trench shoes, hob-nails, Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central. When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them.

Members of the American Legion are expected to turn out at 7:30 this evening equipped with saws, hammers and other tools to prepare the new quarters over the Toggery for occupancy. A large attendance is expected as work details were always popular in the army.

Army underwear and union suits cheaper than elsewhere. Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central. Army coats $3.25 at Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central Ave.

At Talent on next Saturday night the Junior high school team of Ashland will play the second team of the Talent high school at basketball.

Ham and eggs 25c. Gusher Cafe. Fresh tins and plaster. Medford Lumber Co.

Miss Mary Terwilliger who recently had a major operation performed in the Dow Association hospital, has returned to her home recovered.

Hot coffee and light lunches, tamales and chili con carne at DeVoe's. Mofeskin breeches and pants, Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central.

At a meeting of the Bellview Telephone company yesterday it was divulged that new construction during the year amounted to $200 in first class lines. The company owns three lines with 25 telephone connections.

The annual cost to each member last year was $8.50, a saving of $20.00 per year for each customer. The officers of the company are F. C. Holmes, president; A. C. Joy, secretary; C. A. Brown, N. S. Moore and W. R. Beebe, directors.—Ashland Tidings.

High grade tailors for men and women. Orres, Ashland, Ore. Lime at Medford Lumber Co. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Brownlee are in Portland for a few days on pleasure and business. Mr. Brownlee is looking after material for the Brownlee Lumber Co.

Community dancing Nat. Wed. nite. 249* Only a few lots on paving left. Get yours at once at City Hall. Guests at the Hotel Holland include W. T. Field of Rochester, N. Y., P. Maher of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Miller of Newberg, Ore., R. Stewart of Roseburg, Ira N. Gabelson of Portland and A. E. Brandt of Corvallis.

Lime and plaster, Medford Lbr. Co. Edgar Wight, reliable jeweler. White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250.

Mr. and Mrs. John Forncrook of Eugene who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in that city several weeks ago, arrived Monday, and will spend the winter with their son, Deputy Sheriff Forncrook in Jacksonville.

Try our merchants lunch. The Shasta. China Nip-its. Tap Art Store. Oregon's National Guard finished the year in first place for relative strength and general efficiency among all western and Pacific coast states of the ninth corps area. Oregon has held its place at the head of the procession now for 16 months, according to the monthly reports put out by the federal government. The strength of the guard is now 2490, having increased from 1400 during the last year.

Big time tonight! Nat! Balloon dances. 249* Any member of the Knights of Pythias wanting work phone 590-Y, six o'clock evenings, or see J. T. Perry, chancellor commander.

Get acquainted with Cash and Carry system. This store was built up for the good of the hundreds of people that have been working hard in hand with us, and have learned to live and let live. We are now bringing down the high cost of living. All goods are marked in plain figures—100 cents, that is the value you get for every dollar's worth of goods you buy—just the best of everything for less, at the Spot Cash Basket Grocery, at the Vinton Barn, 226 N. Riverside Ave. Try a Super-tread tire—the tire with a wider and thicker tread—they wear longer. Riverside Garage. Among guests at the Hotel Medford are J. A. Welch of Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. Alex S. Smith of Vancouver, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McDonald of Seattle, C. J. Hurd of Corvallis, S. H. Lindberg of Tacoma, and Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Garner of St. Paul, Minn. Ham and eggs 25c. Gusher Cafe. Dr. Frank Roberts, dentist. Deuel Bldg. Telephone 503-R. George Gates and Rawles Moore spent the day in Grants Pass on business yesterday.

The moderate charges for kindergarten training cannot be compared with the lasting benefit to the child. Transportation furnished. Tiny Tot School. Phone 332-W. Does your Ford start hard these cold mornings? We guarantee to make it start right or no charge. Riverside Garage. The newly elected officers of the American Legion post of Ashland were installed last night as follows: Geo. E. Dunn, commander; Lynn G. Slack, vice commander; S. A. Peters, Jr., adjutant; H. G. Wolcott, financial officer; Walter L. Evans, chaplain, and Don Spencer, historian. Shingles, shakes, Medford Lbr. Co. Murphy Junk House has changed hands into American Junk Co. Phone number will be given later through this paper. Another local boy found himself in trouble this morning as a result of the peculiar adaptability of snow as a missile. Retaliation and punishment did not come in the same form nor as quickly as it did in the case of a certain high school boy but it came and was in the form of a $5.00 fine imposed by Acting Justice Farrell instead of in the form of a short "course in astronomy." Stocking caps. Army Goods Store, 32 South Central. Mrs. Paul Hansen caretaker for Nubone. Phone 585-J. D. L. Ewing, formerly of this city, now of Grants Pass, was a Medford business visitor yesterday. We have inspected the reclaimed Tule lands at Klamath Falls. We recommend these lands as an investment. Page-Dressler Co. Money back guarantee on Red Ribbon coffee. 249* A dancing party will be given Friday night at the American Legion hall under the auspices of the 23-12 club of the high school. Phone or call our office for information Klamath Falls Tule lands. Page-Dressler Co. Great one day aluminum sale Thursday 9 a. m., Jan. 12. Don't miss it. M. F. & H. Co. 249* The latest style in the standard format service lookout house has a complete set of lightning rods projecting at every corner of the building, as well as from the cupola. Storm windows to be placed over the glass ones in the cupola during the winter are attached by hinges and let down in the summer, rather than removed entirely. Other minor changes of an improved nature have been worked out by the forest lookout experts and included in the new plans and specifications just completed under the direction of C. M. Allen, telephone engineer. From 12 to 15 lookouts will be built from the new plans, the work being done by the rangers during the winter, and the cut-out pieces put together on the mountain top in summer time. Aut-Account Books, 50c, pocket size, enables you to keep complete, accurate daily expense account of your auto for the year with little effort. For sale by the Medford Exchange, 211 West Main, Phone 931. 251* Combination toque and muffler, all wool, 50c. Army Goods Store, 32 S. Central. 249* The present weather is hard for stock in pasture, and stockmen are predicting a Chinook wind and warm rain by the end of the week. Frank Bybee has about 1000 head of sheep pastured on his land near Jacksonville and feeding has started throughout the county as a result of the snow of last week, which is hanging on unusually long for this valley. Invest your savings in the Jackson County Building and Loan association. Children cared for, Mrs. W. N. Campbell, 104 Newtown, Phone 371-L. 250 Dan Sauers of Squaw creek is spending the week in the city and the county seat attending to business matters. All kinds of mill blocks, Valley Fuel Co. Beat the burglar. Insure with R. A. Holmes, The Insurance Man. 11*

Modern Woodmen of America for the ensuing year was held last night at Althea hall and visiting members and the Royal Neighbors were guests of the occasion. The installation was preceded by a program of music, recitations, magic, etc. After the officers had been installed by Past Consul Fleming all repaired to the dining hall where a plentiful and delicious supper was enjoyed by all. The order last night changed its meeting nights from Tuesdays to the first and third Wednesdays of each month. Dance, Eagle Point Sat. night. 252* Crescent orch. Eagle Pt. Sat. night. 252*

William Campbell, local agent of Oregon Journal. Phone 371-L. 249 C. W. (Wig) Ashpole of this city has been selected by the stock shippers of Washington, Oregon, and Idaho as one of the two members of their business to represent them in conferences with the Southern Pacific railway officials at Portland and San Francisco, and to give expert testimony before the interstate commerce commission at Washington, D. C. A vote was held on the selection. J. R. Smith of Windsor, Idaho, received 37, and Mr. Ashpole 26, the other candidates getting 13 votes. The hearings are for the purpose of securing new freight rates on stock shipments, and all sections of the country will be represented. 5c, 50c, $1.25 aluminum sale. M. F. & H. Co. Thursday, Jan. 12, 9 a. m. First come first served. 249*

Reorganization sale starting Thursday, Jan. 12th. Millinery, blouses, silk underwear, purses, etc., at cost and less than cost at the Vanity Shop. 249* Asbury Deal of Central Point, spent Tuesday in the city visiting friends and attending to business matters. Suits to order at pre-war prices from $38 to $55. Klein the Tailor, Upstairs. 250*

Ida E. Wood and Florence Graves, piano teachers. Studio 428 South Ivy. Phone 778-W. Terms reasonable. 250 A meeting of the county court will be held Thursday, when appointments of road supervisors for the year will be made. A protest has been filed by residents of the Gold Hill district against the re-appointment of William Van Houten, and this matter will be settled. Friends of Van Houten claim there is no charge against his efficiency as a road builder, but refusal to re-hire neighbors after they had quit county work for higher pay is the basis for the protests. The jury list for the coming term of the circuit court will also be drawn.

Great one day aluminum sale Thursday 9 a. m., Jan. 12. Don't miss it. M. F. & H. Co. 249* A clean dance, Eagle Point. 252* A scheduled business change in the Eagle Point district is the purchase of the William Von der Hellen store by Roy A. Ashpole, the inventory of the stock now being underway. Mr. and Mrs. Von der Hellen will make their home in this city.

Liberty cars are in a class by themselves. See them at the Riverside Garage. Big reorganization sale at the Vanity Shop starts Thursday, Jan. 12. Everything goes for cost and less than cost. Vanity Shop, corner East Main and Haffgett. 249*

The county court ordered the county scraper run over the Medford-Jacksonville road Tuesday as the road was getting bumpy. Please remember that classified ads, locals and small ads are cash in advance. Bring in your ads and do not use telephone. Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano and harmony. Classical and popular courses. Studio 318 Liberty Bldg., Medford, Ore. Phone 72. 249*

George L. Dunn of Ashland, former county judge, spent Tuesday afternoon in the city visiting friends and transacting business matters. An expensive job of house wiring put in by a wireman who is looking for pay-day. See Pierce for "House Wiring of Quality." Phone 465-X. 251 5c, 50c, $1.25 aluminum sale, M. F. & H. Co., Thursday, Jan. 12, 9 a. m. First come first served. 249*

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

and relatives at Seattle and other northern Washington points. Edgar Wight for low prices. 249* Special one day aluminum sale at M. F. & H. Co., Thursday, Jan. 12, 9 a. m. 249* Tommy Farlow of Lake Creek, spent Tuesday in the city attending to business matters. Big time Eagle Pt. Sat. night. 252* Special one day aluminum sale at M. F. & H. Co., Thursday, January 12, 9 a. m. 249* Judge F. L. TouVelle of Jacksonville spent Tuesday afternoon in the city visiting friends. It drives and controls so easy. It's the car the ladies love to drive. The Liberty, at the Riverside Garage. When in need of shingles and roofing call Wallace Woods, 108, 711 E. Main. Rainey Phillips of the Applegate was among the out of town visitors in the city Tuesday. Thousands of miles without trouble. Remember Hupmobiles are doing it. 252 Get your lot to build on at the City Hall before they are all gone. 249* There was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hoover of Smith River, Calif., in the Dow Association hospital a seven pound son, on January 10. For January outy, tailor-made suits and overcoats reduced $10. Come and look them over. Klein the Tailor, Upstairs. 250*

The W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters. A full attendance is desired. Hemstitching, Picotting, 8c per yd. Buttons covered. Handicraft Shop. The Shasta Brotherhood of Railway Clerks will give a supper followed by a dance at the American Legion hall on Tuesday, Jan. 17th. A number of tickets have been sold which state that the affair will be given in Althea hall, but it has been decided to change the scene of the dance to the American Legion hall, as the other hall is too small. The supper will begin at 8 o'clock and the dancing at 9. Suits and overcoats of dependable stylish woollens tailored right. Prices $28 to $55. Klein the Tailor, Upstairs. 250*

Mrs. Emma Wooding of Portland arrived in this city last night for an indefinite stay with her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Hagon. To close out we offer you a genuine all wool raincoat fabric overcoat, regular price $37.00, sale price $18.00. Army Goods Store, 32 South Central Ave. Born to Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Hale of this city on Jan. 11th, a six and one-half pound boy. White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

and relatives at Seattle and other northern Washington points. Edgar Wight for low prices. 249* Special one day aluminum sale at M. F. & H. Co., Thursday, Jan. 12, 9 a. m. 249* Tommy Farlow of Lake Creek, spent Tuesday in the city attending to business matters. Big time Eagle Pt. Sat. night. 252* Special one day aluminum sale at M. F. & H. Co., Thursday, January 12, 9 a. m. 249* Judge F. L. TouVelle of Jacksonville spent Tuesday afternoon in the city visiting friends. It drives and controls so easy. It's the car the ladies love to drive. The Liberty, at the Riverside Garage. When in need of shingles and roofing call Wallace Woods, 108, 711 E. Main. Rainey Phillips of the Applegate was among the out of town visitors in the city Tuesday. Thousands of miles without trouble. Remember Hupmobiles are doing it. 252 Get your lot to build on at the City Hall before they are all gone. 249* There was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hoover of Smith River, Calif., in the Dow Association hospital a seven pound son, on January 10. For January outy, tailor-made suits and overcoats reduced $10. Come and look them over. Klein the Tailor, Upstairs. 250*

The W. C. T. U. will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters. A full attendance is desired. Hemstitching, Picotting, 8c per yd. Buttons covered. Handicraft Shop. The Shasta Brotherhood of Railway Clerks will give a supper followed by a dance at the American Legion hall on Tuesday, Jan. 17th. A number of tickets have been sold which state that the affair will be given in Althea hall, but it has been decided to change the scene of the dance to the American Legion hall, as the other hall is too small. The supper will begin at 8 o'clock and the dancing at 9. Suits and overcoats of dependable stylish woollens tailored right. Prices $28 to $55. Klein the Tailor, Upstairs. 250*

Mrs. Emma Wooding of Portland arrived in this city last night for an indefinite stay with her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Hagon. To close out we offer you a genuine all wool raincoat fabric overcoat, regular price $37.00, sale price $18.00. Army Goods Store, 32 South Central Ave. Born to Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Hale of this city on Jan. 11th, a six and one-half pound boy. White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb, California-Oregon Power Co., B. W. Paul at the Paul's Electric store, or to D. E. Millard, 521 W. Eleventh street, tomorrow if possible, or not later than Friday evening this week. Next time try a Hupmobile. 252 For service phone 341, Forsythe Dyers & Cleaners. 254

In order to have Miss Esther Dayman, national girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the first annual meeting of the Medford association, the annual banquet will be served Tuesday evening instead of Monday evening, January 17th, at the Christian church at 6 o'clock. Tickets 50 cents a plate, may be secured at the Y. W. C. A. or from Mrs. Minard, Mrs. W. E. Tomy, Mrs. Ella Wortman or Mrs. Loraine Cornish.

White corn for hominy at Monarch Seed Co. Phone 250. Orville Fry, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Fry, No. 1002 East Jackson street, had a narrow escape Tuesday from losing the sight of his left eye, by falling on a pair of old scissors which he had gotten hold of when his mother was out in the yard. A blade of the scissors cut and bruised the inner corner of the eye, but fortunately did not permanently injure the sight.

It is requested by the financial committee of the First Christian church that all persons having made pledges toward paying off the old indebtedness send or hand the amount to Mr. Cobb