

C. OF COMMERCE MEETING TONIGHT PUBLIC LIBRARY

A number of travelling men have already expressed their desire to become members of the Medford Chamber of Commerce if it were possible for them to do so under the proposed reduced membership fee. It is intended to give the travelling men every privilege of membership such as attendance at meetings and forums, full voting power for officers and referendum, and the right of their being elected to office is denied them as the very nature of their business would not permit their presence when required.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can tell. Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

ALUMNI DEFEAT H. S. HOOP TEAM BY 22-13 SCORE

The alumni team defeated the high school team last night by a score of 22 to 13, completely dazing the high school players in the first of the game. Although their teamwork was not particularly brilliant the old stars of days gone by demonstrated their ability to shoot baskets accurately, surprising agility being observed in members of the alumni squad, many of whom have been considered pitifully decrepit for the past year or more by high school students. The high school boys seemed unable to find themselves from the beginning of the contest and although they had the ball a fair portion of the time it appeared that they overlooked many good chances to shoot. The high school girls displayed teamwork, headwork and basket shooting ability which completely outclassed the alumni girls. In fact so far outclassed them that they were "whitewashed" 27 to 9. Lack of practice in shooting baskets also contributed to the defeat of the alumni girls.

Dentistry a Life and Death Problem

The condition of your teeth may mean a long life or an early grave. Modern dentistry holds the highest rank in preventative medicine. The object of a good dentist must be to prevent trouble and stop mouth disease.

Safer to Prevent Disease

It has been proven that it is better and a great deal cheaper to adopt measures for fire prevention than it is to fight fires and sustain losses on that account.

It is safer and better also to adopt measures for the prevention of mouth diseases.

Dentistry Insurance Against Disease

Disease lurks where bad teeth are found, and cleanliness should be taught in the homes and in the schools, and in all industrial institutions. Every measure should be taken against mouth infection.

Actors in the drama during film production and off-set. The animal was almost ferocious towards William Dyer, who plays the heavy in the cast. He growled and barked at the "villain" and when the critical moment of the story arrived, leaped for him with such realism that Director Trimble almost stopped the scene and called it off.

The dog's attitude was all the more remarkable because off-stage William Dyer was the one person in the cast to whom he had shown special friend-ship. It was a distinct contrast to his bearing towards most of the members of the cast, for despite his record of having mingled with many human beings to save their lives during the World War, Strongheart is an aloof personage and in his moments of relaxation prefers to jump to a high shelf where he can rest undisturbed.

"The Silent Call" will remain at the Page theatre one more day only.
