Ye Smudge Pot By Arthur Perry.

A 3 year old boy at Joplin, Mo., shot his Grandpa, wounding him, following an argument. There is nothing like a blue-barreled .45 for a child to cut his teeth on.

The jumpless Chinese are talking back to the Japanese over Shantung. Like Tokio was trying to get the Mikado's shirt out of the laundry without paying for it.

It took the eagle eye of Elmo Mohr to discover a typographical error in the lighthouse sign, which was spelled by John Buchter.

The governor of Idaho smells a rat in the unlimited and boundless forking over of grub to Russia, and suspects that while relieving famine conditions along the Volga, America is also fattening up millions of haitraisers perfectly willing to work 24 hrs. a day at it.

A plot is afoot to improve the stability of money. There is no defect in its stability, the trouble being with its getability.

A RAIL PARTY (Pendleton Tribune) Miss Santa and Miss Fe Waters will entertain with a party Tuesday evening at their home, for the members of the Junior Atlantean club.

It begins to look like our Romeo of the Montana Juliet, was trying to beat Andy Gump's uncle's time in the romantic field. Once more he's gone to the pantatorium.

What is education in this commonwealth coming to, when the U. of O. basketball team gets beat three times in a row by outlandish scores.

The human race will be extinct in 1000 years, according to a Harvard anthropologist. Between autos, want ad wives, and moonshine no one expects it to last that long.

GETTING READY TO RUN FOR SOME OFFICE (Albany Democrat) Jack P. Nutz is very popular these days.

The bulwarks of the mining industry in this vicinity was operating at full speed all day Tuesday.

The 4-um vocal gymnastics were held today per usual. It was emphasized in song and speech, that practically all the potatoes devoured in this progressive valley were raised in the Yakima and Sacramento valleys, and in Idaho. However, these benighted sections are unable to catch their own fish.

CURE YOUNG'S WILDNESS BY SPINE ADJUSTMENT

DETROIT, Jan. 18.—"Pep" Young, Tiger second baseman, whose wild throwing finally led to his removal from the lineup last season, is undergoing treatment for a dislocated vertebrae at Philadelphia, which he expects to correct his trouble, according to a letter he has written to a friend here.

KEEP THE RED CROSS.

THE abandonment of Red Cross work in Jackson county would be a public calamity. The proper coordination of charitable work is more essential today than it has been for many years. The value of the Red Cross locally was never more effectively demonstrated than during the recent holiday season. The Red Cross acted as a clearing house and organization center for the distribution of food and clothing, and the filling of scores of stockings that otherwise would have been empty. Without such an organization center, there would not only be costly duplication of effort, but many worthy cases would be overlooked entirely. For the Red Cross not only attends to urgent requests, but it hunts for these cases, demanding assistance, which often prefer suffering to the humiliation involved in soliciting. The county court is to be commended for its decision to give financial assistance to this worthy cause. No one who has helped the Red Cross in the past, can investigate the present situation, and not be convinced that help should be continued, to the very limit of resources, now and in the immediate future.

No wonder rations are short in Russia. Soviet 'em. There would be fewer bones of contention if there were fewer boneheads. There isn't any safety in numbers if 5-5-3 doesn't apply to submarines. Trying to put a peace pact through the senate is one way to Berah trouble. Another difference between hog and pork is that pork never grabs the end seat. You can always estimate the length of time the wife has been away by counting the empty sardine cans about the premises. The Prohibitionists declare prohibition has been a great success.

BALMY SLEEP.

FOR THOSE who toil, for those who weep, there is no comforter like sleep. Sometimes we think, when making hay, there'll be no finish to the day; the sun is lagging in the sky, and we are tired and hot and dry. We long for evening and repose, but this long day will never close and yet the longest day will end, the grateful shades at last descend; the wearied plowman leaves the field and lies him to his lowly bield; the plumber doffs his workday garb, the barbet will no longer barb; the night is theirs for slumber deep, and there's no comforter like sleep. This life is like a summer day, and we grovy weary baling hay. The hours are long, our burdens gail, the recompense seems all too small; our neighbors get the softest jobs, our smiles all terminate in sobs; we're taxed beyond our modest means, and someone always spills the beans, we get the worst of every deal, and we have corns that will not heal, and so we grumble through the day, in our poor foolish human way. But night approaches and the dark will wipe out all the cares that cark; no more we'll labor in the sun and count the wages we have won; no more we'll sow, no more we'll reap; the greatest comforter is sleep.

SAP AND SALT BY Bert Moses. Troubles grow by telling them. Sassiness is all right in a sweetheart; but, goodness me! not in a wife. Youth and health are both gone before we realize their priceless value. There is more fun laughing at yourself than at others. No man is in greater danger of doing a thing than he who has just "sworn off" doing it. The history of the world is a story of the doings of radical men and women. HEZ HECK SAYS: "Lovin' one woman at a time is as fur as I figger it safe to go."

The anti-prohibitionists declare it has been a great failure. Neither know what they are talking about. In five or ten years, perhaps, they will.

"Rival postoffice elimants stack arms," says a headline. Probably a Hays' stack.

It's really heart-breaking the way French pride is hurt when nobody will grind the axes.

The touch system, however, is not employed by all typewriters. Some employers won't stand for a touch.

Russia may not believe in the capitalistic system, but her faith in Santa Claus has been clinched.

The increased cost of telephone poles may be due to the universal ambition to pass the other car at the turn.

The sound of the Irish harp will seem a little strange now that they are no longer harping on the same string.

The proof of the coffee is in the drinking. In 1850 they liked Folger's Coffee—so will you.

You must try Folger's Golden Gate Coffee to appreciate its unusual flavor—a flavor that has been developed through seventy-two years activity in selecting, blending and roasting coffee. You will find that Folger's Golden Gate Coffee is different from other coffee—pleasingly different. And you will find that this different flavor is uniform. Every vacuum packed Golden Gate tin guards the same delicious flavor. But the proof of the goodness of Folger's Golden Gate Coffee is in the drinking. Tell your grocer you want it.
