CENTRAL POINTERS APPRECIATE WORK OF COUNTY NURSE

CENTRAL POINT, Jan. 19.—(Special.)—The public health committee of this district met at the home of Mrs. Victor Bursell last week, Miss Carlton, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Clarke and Mrs. Pason being present. Miss Faldine gave a most interesting account of her work during the past two months. Each meeting of the organization shows a great need filled in Miss Faldine's work. It is hard for the public to realize how great is the noble work of this willing worker, and how much distress she relieves and lessens each day. If the public could only know the many pitiful heartbreaking conditions and cases that she attends to daily, faithfully and untiringly, with never a thought of self, she would receive the recognition and aid financially that is rightfully hers.

The Faber store here, one of the most flourishing and well known business firms in the city, which has been owned and managed by E. C. Faber for the past twelve years, was sold to a Grants Pass man, Evans by name, Saturday evening. It is rumored that the head of the firm will take possession of his business properties the first of the month. The deal came as a complete surprise to Mr. Faber's many friends and patrons here and when news of the transfer became known many considered it were rumor until acquainted with the true facts. Mr. Faber's plans for the future are not known, but it is hoped that he will decide to remain here and continue to make Central Point his home and business place.

Mrs. Josephine Kahler, prominent and greatly esteemed resident of this city for the past fourteen years, left here Sunday afternoon for Los Angeles, California, where she expects to make her future home. Mrs. Kahler was joined here by her son Edward Kahler and wife, late of Seattle, who are going south to make their home for the present and will probably reside with the one whom Central Point will miss more than words can tell. Mrs. Kahler leaves a place in the hearts of the people here that will be hard for another to fill. It is the sincere and earnest wish of all that she be happy in her new home and that in time she may return to Central Point, her real home.

One of the big events in the social calendar of the local Woman's Relief Corps was the installation of officers and the big annual dinner of the organization which occurred here last Saturday evening. Many invited guests were present and those added to the already swollen membership, made a jolly big bunch of people. The installation, the spicy, clever program and the best of food sets, made the evening one long to be remembered here. Everyone present had a delightful time and enjoyed hugely every minute of the evening spent there.

Mr. Hubbard, the self same man that was formerly the partner of Mr. Casebeer of the Casebeer and Hubbard firm that until very lately existed here under that name, has leased the Kahler place here west of town and will move his family there this week. Mr. Hubbard's time will be well filled at his new home as he intends to engage at once in the poultry and dairy business on an extensive scale, and will commence converting the property into a neat and modern dairy and poultry place at once.

Several small and petty robberies have been committed here during the past week. The work is evidently that of an amateur, not bent on much gain, but merely wanting something to satisfy present longings. The Ross Confectionery and Pool hall was entered late Wednesday night and several dollars' worth of the store's supply of sweets, tobacco, etc., was taken. On the same evening the building occupied by Alfred Gillette, and used as a shelter for his trucks and cars was entered, and a few things were found among the missing the next morning. Late Sunday evening the Faber store was entered and the stealthy visitors carried off overalls and working apparel to the extent of several dollars worth, showing themselves to be of a practical turn of mind. Blankets were also part of the stolen goods that they expected to take with them, but it is thought that some passerby frightened the culprit and in their haste to get away from the scene of their unlawful operations, they dropped them, and so they were found the next morning, a little crumpled, but otherwise all right except for being out of their proper place.

The printing office here on the Pacific highway, one block south of Main street, has been purchased by A. R. Parker and is being converted into a dwelling place. The building is a well constructed affair made of the best materials and with very little work can be made into a very attractive and comfortable living place. Mr. Parker and family will move to their new residence place sometime early this spring.

Mrs. Denton entertained the West Side Sewing club at her suburban home recently. Many members of the club were present, and the afternoon was happily spent in merry conversation and general good time. Refreshments that just suited the tastes of all present were served during the afternoon, and were greatly enjoyed. Everyone enjoyed the hearty welcome and splendid time which the smiling hostess extended to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McBride of Table Rock were guests Sunday afternoon of Mrs. May Jacobs and daughter, Miss Edith.

A jolly time was enjoyed by all present last Saturday evening when Mr. Russell Thronbrue gave a surprise party for Mrs. Hronbrue, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. A score of laughing, happy young people were there. The jolly crowd all met at the home of a neighbor, and at 8 o'clock made their appearance at the Thronbrue home home where games were played and a right happy time was had by all. During the evening the happy little honor guest was presented with a set of pretty Japanese cups and saucers, from her neighbors. A dainty supper was furnished by the guests was served at midnight. All departed at a late hour extending their hostess many happy returns of the day and she in turn, put in words the wish that on her next natal day the same jolly crowd come back and help her to make merry the day.

RUCH RUMBLES

Mrs. Rowden visited the school Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller of Medford are visiting with Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Brien.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matney entertained 24 guests at their home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Purcell attended Sunday school in Ruch last Sunday.

Mr. Donnerburg and Mr. Bryant drove a herd of cattle through the valley Thursday.

Frank Rice has been confined to his home on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cantrall motored to Medford Monday morning.

Tuesday the valley enjoyed a nice snowfall.

Mrs. Matney visited the school Monday.

Among visitors in Ruch Tuesday were Judge Dunn and Mr. McCoy of Ashland, and Mr. Cheney of Illinois Valley.

George and Jack Matney with their wives returned to California Sunday.

The school children are enjoying hot chocolate with their luncheons now.

The school directors purchased a new 2 gallon double boiler. This simplifies the preparation of the chocolate and takes less time from those who assist at luncheon time.

Leland Cantrall and wife and Harlan Cantrall motored to Medford Wednesday afternoon.

MRS. WELLS WILL CONTINUE AS HEAD OF COUNTY FARM

By Mrs. Mary O. Carey.

EDEN VALLEY, Jan. 19.—The many friends of Mrs. Irene Wells will be pleased to learn that she has decided to keep the County farm for another year at least. Mrs. Wells is fully competent to do justice to the inmates of that institution, and all of the reverence her, and would have greatly deplored her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. High of Talent, went down to Grants Pass last Sunday where Mr. High will move the household goods of his son-in-law to their farm near Rogue River, Mr. Evans having sold his interests in three stores which he had in Grants Pass.

We are glad to announce that Mr. Ed Lockwood of Phoenix, is improving greatly under the treatment of Dr. Hedges of Medford. This, after he had begun to despair of ever having any relief.

Mrs. J. H. Blain of Phoenix, is recovering from a very bad attack of lagrippe which came near taking pneumonia tendencies.

Mrs. G. C. McClain and Mrs. J. E. Roberts of Phoenix, were shopping in Medford last Saturday.

Mrs. Clyde of Ashland, returned to her home there Monday, after spending Sunday in Phoenix and Medford.

Word has been received from Lavica Reams, that her mother, Mrs. Mary Strong of Kerby, Oregon, passed away Sunday evening at the home of her son, Douglas Strong. Mrs. Strong was eighty years of age, and her death was due to infirmities of old age. Her children were all at her bedside when the messenger of death called her. Mrs. Strong was for many years a resident of Phoenix, and was one of the early pioneers of this valley. Mrs. A. H. Hearn, Mrs. E. G. Coleman, Harry Reams of Phoenix and Ernest Reams of Central Point, are grandchildren of Mrs. Strong. Funeral announcement later.

Wind from the north brought abundant rain in this part of the valley Monday evening which melted the snow on the foothills, causing the water in Bear and Anderson creeks to rise quite rapidly. And on Tuesday there was a heavy fall of snow in the lower range of hills.

There was another one of those enjoyable dancing parties at Talent last Friday night. Many who attended commented on the good music furnished at the Talent dances.

Guests at the Chester Fitch home in the Eden Valley district were Mr. and Mrs. Schuchard and family and Prof. Reimer and wife and daughter Lillian. A most bounteous turkey dinner was served and most heartily enjoyed by all present.

Many of the basketball fans of both Talent and Phoenix attended the game at the county seat between the Talent team and their local team, which resulted in the defeat of the Jacksonville team 35 to 12 in favor of Talent.

Mr. Fred Newland who has been employed for some time at the White Wing Poultry farm near Phoenix, returned from Colorado with his bride on Jan. 14. The happy young couple will make their home at the farm, where Mr. Newland is employed. The following is a clipping from the home paper, where the bride formerly resided:

St. Mary's Catholic church was the scene of a very impressive ceremony this morning, Dec. 28, at 9 o'clock, when Miss Lucille Marguerite Tobin and Mr. Fred Irwin Newland were united in marriage at low mass, Father Sasse officiating.

The church was decorated with Christmas greens and the wedding party entered the church and advanced to the altar to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Agnes Berry. During the ceremony hymns were sung by the choir. About one hundred relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The ushers were W. J. Tobin, brother of the bride, and Willis Newland, brother of the groom.

Miss Tobin wore a handsome dark blue suit with a hat of black tulle trimmed with black aigrettes and carrying in her hand a prayer book. Attending the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Tobin, brother and sister in law of the bride. Mrs. Tobin wore a suit of dark blue and hat to match.

Following the ceremony the wedding party with relatives and a few friends of the bridal pair left in autos for the B. S. Tobin country place where a three course wedding breakfast was served at tables decorated in pink and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Newland will not depart at once on a honeymoon but will remain at the Tobin ranch until next week, when they will leave for Phoenix, Oregon, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Newland is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Tobin, and is a Montrose girl in every sense of the word, having grown to young womanhood here and graduated from the local schools, after which she was an able assistant to J. L. Atkinson, clerk of the district court, at the court house keeping her position until time for her to prepare for her wedding.

Mr. Newland also grew to young manhood in our midst, and attended

SONG FOR EACH STATE

Miss Christine Anderson, of Washington, D. C., has a hobby, namely, the collecting of state songs. She numbers in her collection songs from nearly every state in the union. She has written the governor of each state requesting him to forward to her a copy of the state song and, in cases where the state is songless, has made suggestions and efforts to have some melody adopted.

the local schools. He is the third son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Newland, prominent Spring Creek mesa people. A year ago he went out to the coast where he entered into business and where he will take his bride.

Both bride and groom are widely known here and highly esteemed, and while they have the heartiest congratulations of all their local friends there is sincere regret that they are leaving here to establish themselves elsewhere. The Enterprise hopes that wherever they go all prosperity and happiness of life may attend them.

Phoenix and vicinity feel that Montrose's loss is their gain and are extending these young people a hearty welcome, and wish them happiness and prosperity.

Married, at the county seat, by Judge Gardner in the presence of the brother of the bride, Norvin Walters and Miss Sybil Furry, sister of the groom, Miss Elvira Walters and Robert Furry, both of Phoenix. These young people will be at home to their many friends in Phoenix and vicinity at the Milo Furry residence on the Pacific highway.

AMERICAN LEGION PARTY TONIGHT AT ASHLAND ARMORY

ASHLAND, Jan. 20.—At the Armory tonight occurs the American Legion and Auxiliary party, the culminating social event of "Membership Drive Week," a good-natured contest having been waged by the 105 posts throughout the state for the past few days. Of course there will be a bountiful supper and this will be served at 6:30, followed by an ideal program. The committee in charge include, from the post, Carl Loveland, Elbert Farlow, Milt Biegel, S. A. Peters, Jr., and Henry Pace; and from the Auxiliary, Mrs. Don Spencer, Mrs. Cecil Norton, Mrs. R. L. Burdick, and both senior and junior members of the S. A. Peters family. This big social event is for ex-service men and their auxiliary relatives. Commander Ed Dunn is at the head of the membership drive, personally having secured many recruits, and solicitation is to be made among all those eligible by a specially appointed squad of active canvassers.

Funeral services of the late Mrs. Nettie Wagner Lewis, who died in Los Angeles last Sunday, were held on Thursday afternoon at the Methodist church, Rev. C. A. Edwards officiating. Interment was in Mountain View cemetery. The deceased was 60 years of age, and the daughter of pioneer residents of this locality. She was the widow of W. H. Leeds who died in Ashland in February last. Three grown-up sons, Howard, Albert and Barclay, all residents of California, mourn the loss of both parents within the year. A daughter of Mrs. Ellen Wagner, the deceased leaves besides her mother, two brothers, Fred and Marsh Wagner, and two sisters, Mrs. A. E. Kinney and Mrs. T. W. Miles, as near relatives, besides a number of minor ones. Friends of the family, notably pioneer residents and their descendants, were present at the funeral as a tribute of respect to a most worthy woman whom they had known as an intimate companion since her girlhood days.

The Masonic lodge, mindful of the high cost of leasing, is contemplating raising the rent of the several affiliations occupying its premises, there being four other organizations in the list. The Eastern Star, anticipating the call Deputy Curry, Feb. 8. The matter of has voted the sum of $75 outright as a donation. In addition the Star, from time to time, has installed a piano, gas range, dishes, cupboards, and also applied $200 on carpet account. Furthermore, tradition has it that this auxiliary once on a time, in view of applying a tidy sum on the lodge indebtedness, virtually relinquished a number of bonds which they held as an investment. Under the circumstances it might justly be assumed that the sisters have paid their full proportion of rent intermittently, even if not on a specific basis.

John Maly, tailor, has removed from the Pell block to rooms upstairs in the Ashland Improvement Co.'s block on the Plaza.

E. L. Schmidt, of Grants Pass, new purchaser of the Overland garage, is installing notable improvements on the property.

Ben Sheldon, of Medford, having thrown his hat into the political ring, Fred Homes, of this vicinity, has thrown his out, declining legislative honors. By the way, Fred is extensively remodeling his residence property in the Bellevue district.

Chas. J. Ferguson, who died in Klamath Falls early in the week, was buried there on Thursday. He was a native of Kansas, 46 years of age, and by profession an attorney, associated in the practice of law with D. V. Kuykendall. The deceased was a Spanish war veteran, having served as personal orderly to General Bell, and was captain of the local military company at Pendleton. In a professional way he also served as court reporter of Umatilla county. He had been a resident of Klamath Falls since 1910, and was prominent in fraternal circles, being a Shriner and member of Hillah Temple of this city. His wife pre-deceased him about a year ago. He was a brother of L. F. Ferguson of this city, who with his wife attended the funeral services at Klamath Falls.

The high cost of feeding is driving quite a number to partaking of lunches on Southern Pacific diners, now being supplied on a flat eighty cent basis.

One Butler buys out another, Ed having purchased John's residence property at the intersection of A and Eighth streets.

Another basketball clash locally on Saturday night, Jan. 21, this one in the theological-educational series, Ashland Epworth Leaguers vs. Grants Pass high schoolers.

Hillah patrol meets at Masonic hall, Medford, Monday evening, Jan. 23. All turn out, qualifying for the big pageant in San Francisco next June.

The Modern Woodmen meet in Odd Fellows hall, Wednesday evening, Jan. 25, preliminary to visit here of State Deputy Curry, Feb. 8. The matter of a date for stated meetings will also be settled. Under existing conditions either the second or fourth Wednesday evening is available, on the basis of one meeting a month.

Weather on the brisk chilly order, and the Nat. which affords skating privileges, might in the event of the keen spell keeping up, furnish ice for runner skates instead of roller ones.

The Christian church will begin a series of evangelistic meetings on Jan. 27, to be limited to ten days only.

The D. A. R. met with Mrs. Alice Pell on Friday afternoon of this week, this being the stated gathering for January. Routine business matters were disposed of, following which the social hour was one of jollity and good cheer. Mrs. Cordelia Blake, Mrs. Elda Anderson, and Mrs. Mabel Stearns assisting the hostess as dutiful "Daughters," the refreshment dispensary being replete with an abundance of eatables "both useful and ornamental."

The Junior High team will encounter the Central Point schools in a basketball skirmish in that town, on Saturday evening, Jan. 21.
