

Local and Personal

President P. L. Campbell of the University of Oregon wishes to meet the alumni and ex-students of that institution at the public library this evening at 8 o'clock.

Invest your savings in the Jackson County Building and Loan association.

Many complimentary remarks were heard last night on the splendid feature, "The Child Thou Gavest Me," by departing crowds at the Page theatre.

Glad Fabrick of the Medford Domestic Laundry, returned this morning from a business visit to Portland.

Everywhere you look you see a Chevrolet.

C. C. Lemmon, of the Oregon Growers' Co-operative association, returned this morning from a business visit to Portland where he witnessed the loading of 150,000 boxes of Oregon apples on a ship bound for England.

Big time, good time, at the American Legion hall tonight. If you are a city dad, if you are an officer or director of the chamber of commerce, if you are a Spanish-American war veteran, if you are a G. A. R., if you are a member of the National Guard, and most of all, if you are an ex-service man, or a father or a brother of an ex-service man drop everything else, break all other dates and come.—Committee.

Try a Super-tread tire—the tire with a wider and thicker tread—they wear longer. Riverside Garage.

A. C. Allen returned this morning from Eugene and Roseburg. While in Roseburg, Mr. Allen, who is connected with the state board of horticulture addressed the Farm Bureau in that city. He spoke in Eugene at a meeting called to meet the problem of a disease which is attacking strawberry plants on the coast. In the coast region this disease known as Strawberry Nematode is attacking over 100 different kinds of plants including strawberries, alfalfa, clover, beans, etc., and the forest service and the state board of horticulture are co-operating in determining the limits of the disease and are taking steps for checking its spread and for its eradication.

Fat goat meat from Webster Ranch, Booth 4, Public Market, Saturday. 262

When in need of shingles and roofing call Wallace Woods, 108, 711 E. Main.

James Mullaney, traveling weight inspector for the Southern Pacific stopped in this city yesterday while on his way from Portland to San Francisco.

Only a few lots on paving left. Get yours at once at City Hall.

Lath, lime, Medford Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly returned this morning after a ten days outing at Del Monte.

Service men, fathers and brothers, do not forget Dad's Night at the Legion hall tonight.

Why? Take chance running your auto radiator by freezing when it can be avoided by using "Aqua Zero" which is safe at 20 below zero, and absolutely harmless in every way, is not as injurious to metal as water. For sale at Valley Garage, $1.00 per gallon.

Mrs. J. H. Bateman, manager of the Medford building returned yesterday from a business visit in Portland.

Let's go Eagle Point Sat. night.

Moonlight dance? You bet! Eagle Point.

Lime, cement, Medford Lumber Co.

Paul Gulley, of the Ashland branch of the California-Oregon Power company was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Get acquainted with Cash and Carry system. This store was built up for the good of the hundreds of people that have been working hand in hand with us, and have learned to live and let live. We are now bringing down the high cost of living. All goods are marked in plain figures—100 cents, that is the value you get for every dollar's worth of goods you buy—just the best of everything for less, at the Spot Cash Basket Grocery, at the Vinson Barn, 226 N. Riverside Ave.

Prozen automobile, tractor and truck cylinders welded, re-inforced and guaranteed. Only the finest pre-heating fuels and metals used. Vulcan Welding Works, 38 S. Front street.

Lynn Sablin, secretary of the Grants Pass chamber of commerce, Amos Voorhies, of the Grants Pass Courier, Stanley Clark of the Grants Pass Copeco office, and James Logan, attended the bi-monthly banquet of the Craters club last night as guests of the club.

The Southern Oregon Lumber Co. will offer good 2x4's at their mill at end North Central at from $12 to $15 for balance of month.

All kinds of mill blocks, Valley Fuel Co.

Vernon Vawter returned the first of the week from a business visit to San Francisco.

Dr. Frank Roberts, dentist, Deuel Bldg. Telephone 583-R.

Try our merchants lunch. The Shasta.

J. O. Ewert, Southern Pacific engineer from Roseburg is visiting his mother, Mrs. Rose Ewert of this city.

Mrs. Paul Hansen corsetiere for NuBone. Phone 585-J.

High grade tailors for men and women. Orres, Ashland, Ore.

State Superintendent of Banks Frank Bramwell, accompanied by his father was a Medford visitor yesterday.

A complete line of McQuay-Norris piston rings in five and thirty-one thousandths oversize. Riverside Garage.

Get our prices on coal and wood by the cord. Medford Fuel Co. Phone 242.

S. M. Nealon, one of the enterprising young farmers of the Table Rock district was a business visitor to this city yesterday.

Fred Alton Haight, teacher of piano and harmony. Classical and popular courses. Studio 318 Liberty Bldg., Medford, Ore. Phone 72.

Phone or call our office for information Klamath Falls Tule lands. Page-Dressler Co.

At the last meeting of the council of the Knights of Columbus it was voted to move the K. C. headquarters from the old American Legion hall in the Medford building to the new Legion hall. The next K. C. meeting will be held there on February 13th at which time a Valentine party will most likely be given.

Edgar Wight, Oregon agate jeweler.

Mrs. Frank Parker, dressmaking, removed to 520 North Grape St. Tel. 441-X.

Miss Anna Tubbs, who has been residing with Mr. Pickel of the California-Oregon Power company, will leave Sunday night to join her father in Long Island, Neb. Miss Tubbs is but ten years of age and will make the trip unaccompanied by a grown person.

We specialize on reboring cylinders. P. F. Close at Riverside Garage.

Stylecraft Shop for all kinds of dressmaking and remodeling. Room 424, Medford Bldg.

Robert Brownlee will leave tomorrow for Luceada, Miss. to join Mrs. Brownlee who was called there by the illness of her father several weeks ago.

Get our prices on coal and wood by the cord. Medford Fuel Co. Phone 242.

We have another lot of those all wool raincoat overcoats for $18.00 at U. S. Army Goods Store, 32 Central Ave., South.

The regular monthly meeting of the Golden Link Bible class will be held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 26th, at the Y. M. C. A. home, 229 N. Bartlett street. All members are urged to be present.

Edgar Wight for low prices. Attention, ex-Soldiers: Ranches sold under Soldiers Bonus plan or pay with share of crop, like rent. Gold Ray Realty Company.

Lieutenant Harry Harper and his wife, formerly Miss Naomi Wilson of this city, arrived last night from Eugene and will spend a few days here visiting friends and relatives.

Roasted by experts, Red Ribbon coffee. Wrestling, Reuben vs. Hand, Gold Hill, Wednesday night.

The American Legion team, which is practically the same as the Alumni team which played the high school the first game of the season and incidentally defeated them, will play the Ashland Elks team at the Ashland armory tonight. The Elks are reported as being a fast aggregation and the same promises to be a real contest.

Will care for one or two small children at my home. Address Mrs. M. Josselyn, Ashland, Ore.

Alta Naylor, Goodwin corsetiere, 20 S. Fir street, upstairs. Phone 918-W.

Guests at the Hotel Medford include P. A. Rowe of San Francisco, Ben Reuben of Chicago, Loren J. Luper and Delmer Luper of Albany, Charles N. Kressler of Molina, D. R. Kellogg, Jr., R. E. Grace and J. J. Ward of Seattle, George W. De Lope and E. B. Sherwin of Spokane and L. V. Rex of Eugene.

Sash and doors, Medford Lumber Co.

Edgar Wight, reliable jeweler.

Among guests at the Hotel Holland are J. W. Hanners and F. P. Shaw of Portland, W. W. Kerns and J. H. Barbour of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Johnson of Albany, J. R. Fox of St. Louis, G. F. Ryan of Sacramento, W. C. Wallace of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Fargeter of Pretty Prairie, Kansas.

Get your calendar free at our office. R. A. Holmea, The Ins. Man.

We have the famous Herman army shoe, regulation marching, garrison tan and officers' dress shoe. U. S. Army Goods Store, 32 Central Ave. So.

Mrs. Ida Turner, who has been confined to her home with an attack of influenza is able to be out again.

Wrestling, Gold Hill, Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ling of Yreka, Calif., have returned to their home after a visit with friends and relatives in this city.

Hard times made easy, buy ranches without money, pay with share of crop, like rent; Gold Ray Realty Company.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ulrich who have been spending a month in the city left Tuesday morning for Union creek.

Properly blended, Red Ribbon coffee.

M. S. Johnson of Gold Hill was a business visitor in the city Tuesday afternoon.

Wrestling, Gold Hill, Wednesday night.

Frank Myers, Salem confertioner, left Salem yesterday for Medford where he will visit a brother. He expects to return to Salem in about one week.—Salem Capital-Journal.

Trench shoes with or without hobnails at Army Goods Store, 32 South Central Ave.

After February 1st, according to a new ruling of the postoffice department, the phone number of the post office will be in the telephone book, and patrons can call up and ask anything they desire, except if they have any mail. Heretofore, phones have been barred from public use in post-offices, and the new order will allow people to secure information about parcel post zone rates, etc.

Syltux Rope silk—black and colors. Free instructions. Deuel's Art Dept.

A force of men is employed by the Medford Coast railroad putting in new ties between this city and Jacksonville.

Army slickers $1.00, at U. S. Army Goods Store, 32 So. Central Ave.

Ted Thye, well known in this city and valley has been matched to wrestle with Pinky Gardiner at Portland February 1st. Gardiner has been wrestling in Los Angeles where he was flopped twice by Walter Miller. Richard Kanthe who met Ralph Hand at Gold Hill a month or so ago is scheduled to meet George Lambert at Salem this week.

High top rubber boots $4.85, at U. S. Army Goods Store, 32 So. Central Ave.

Mrs. John Reter of Jacksonville was among the out of town shoppers in the city Tuesday.

Wrestling, Gold Hill, Wednesday night.

Luper Brothers, saxophone and trombone soloists will demonstrate Conn band instruments at our store, Thursday, January 26th. You are cordially invited to come and hear them. Root Music Co.

Among the Grants Pass people in the city Tuesday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bramwell, A. B. Cornell and Attorney James T. Chinnock.

Best music Eagle Point Sat. night.

We are still selling Velvet tobacco 2 for 25c at U. S. Army Goods Store, 32 So. Central.

The many friends of Mrs. E. G. Riddell will be pleased to learn that she is convalescing rapidly from her recent serious illness.

We have inspected the reclaimed Tule lands at Klamath Falls. We recommend these lands as an investment. Page-Dressler Co.

Lowest rate of insurance carried by any car is placed upon the Hupmobile. Why?

Chinese New Years comes next week and will be observed by local Chinamen, in conjunction with cousins from Montague and Yreka, Calif., and Ashland. The season lasts for about ten days, and is devoted largely to eating and burning incense. Before the land went dry, the Mongolian would imbibe freely of high-powered Chinese gin, and shoot off firecrackers, but of recent years the celebrations have been tame.

Hemstitching, Picotting, 8c per yd. Buttons covered. Handicraft Shop.

Special attention to children's teeth. Dr. V. R. Kaufman, dentist, Sparta Bldg. Phone office 285, Res. 331-R.

The Southern Pacific, through its Portland office announces a change of time on two of its trains between San Francisco and Portland, effective February 12th. The Shasta Limited will run on a 28 1/2 hour schedule between the two points. The new schedule has not been completed relative to the arrival and departure at intermediate points.

Wrestling, Reuben vs. Hand, Gold Hill, Wednesday night.

Shakes, shingles, Medford Lbr. Co.

Miss Mabel Sandberg, who has been with the Patton book store for the past year and a half, will leave within a few days for Medford, where she will make her home. She has accepted a position with the Ivan Corner book store in that city.—Salem Statesman.

A new and complete stock of machine needles. Deuel's Art Dept.

Please remember that classified ads, locals and small ads are cash in advance. Bring in your ads and do not use telephone.

The county court will meet this week to select the election officers for the year, three from each precinct. They will serve at the spring primary and the general election next fall.

A new and complete line of Package Goods. Royal Society of Le Merite. Free instructions. Deuel's Art Dept.

Tickets for Eugene basket ball game will be on sale tomorrow morning at 9:00 o'clock.

State Superintendent of Banks Bramwell left for Salem Tuesday after spending a short time in consultation with Attorney George M. Roberts on the affairs of the defunct Bank of Jacksonville. A public statement on the situation will be issued, pursuant to a request filed by Louis Neidermyer and other depositors.

Madrona Dairy Jersey milk and cream. Its purity and quality speaks for itself. Phone 201-J for sample.

Lots of encores Eagle Point Sat. night.

William Oliver of Klamath Falls, a stockman of that district is spending a few days in the city on business.

For business opportunities in S. Oregon consult the Four-Site Sales Agency room 421 Medford bldg. phone 900.

Seven carloads of sheep and cattle from the Applegate and Jacksonville districts were shipped to Portland the first of the week.

A nice dressy raincoat for $7.50 at U. S. Army Goods Store, 32 So. Central Ave.

Snappy trots, Eagle Point Sat. night.

A force of carpenters are engaged in remodeling the new hall of the American Legion over the Toggery. Thomas Swem will decorate the interior.

Everywhere you look you see a Chevrolet.

Hot coffee and light lunches, tamales and chili con carne at DeVoe's.

Geo. M. Cornwall of Portland, publisher of The Timberman, was a Medford visitor today.

As strong men show their mettle under adverse conditions likewise does the Hupmobile.

Chimney sweep, John Buckley, phone 259-H, between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m.

R. A. Koppes, city editor of the Mail Tribune, is confined to his home with a severe cold.

All kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Wallace Woods, phone 108, 711 East Main street.

Everywhere you look you see a Chevrolet.

Ben Scovell, the popular war entertainer, will leave tomorrow morning for Roseburg after spending ten days in southern Oregon.

When in need of sash and doors, call Wallace Woods, 108 or come to 711 E. Main street.

When better automobiles are built, Buick will build them.

Ben Scovell gave an entertainment at the high school last night which was highly enjoyed by a fair sized crowd. He was introduced by the Rev. Sannett, who gave a brief history of his work. Scovell proved himself a good entertainer, and was particularly good in Shakespearean selections. He also rendered "Casey at the Bat." Mr. Scovell will make another appearance at Ashland, and then goes to Roseburg for a return engagement.

Tickets for Eugene basket ball game will be on sale tomorrow morning at 9:00 o'clock.

Orderly crowds, Eagle Point Sat. night.

Be sure and see the latest model Hupmobile. Clark Motor Co.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—Vulcanizing machine at 311 N. Central Ave.

FOR SALE—Good Swiss Jersey bull 12 months old. J. A. Manke, Medford, Route 1.

Zane Gray New Book

'To the Last Man' A GOOD ONE

Medford Book Store N. Central St. The Old Reliable—14 years in business

J. E. Mason will leave Thursday on an extended visit in California, and will stop at Sacramento and San Francisco, enroute to the southern part of the state.

New and reclaimed O. D. breeches and shirts at U. S. Army Goods Store, 32 South Central Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Edilson Marshall of this city spent the last of the week visiting friends and relatives at Eugene, Ore.

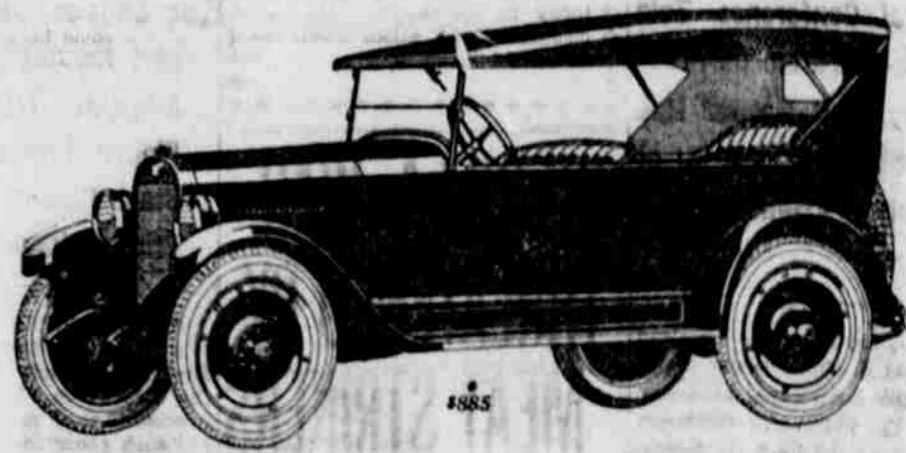

Tickets for Eugene basket ball game will be on sale tomorrow morning at 9:00 o'clock.

OBITUARY

HILDRETH—E. A. Hildreth Sr., passed away at Cottage Grove, Ore., Monday evening at the age of 80 years. He was a veteran of the Civil war, and a resident of Jackson county for more than 30 years. Mr. Hildreth bears a wide acquaintance and a more detailed account of his past will appear in a later issue. The body will arrive in Medford this evening, and funeral services will be held at the parlors of Wechs-Conger Co., at nett officiating. Interment in Central P. M. Thursday, Rev. J. R. Sasse, tral. Point cemetery.

Peckham's Remedy
A Medicine for Children
The best we know of for croup, cough and cold
Heath's Drug Store
The San-Tox Shop
109 East Main Street.

THE motor of the New Series of the good Maxwell is so finely balanced that high speeds are attained with minimum vibration.

This absence of vibration reduces wear, and assures a minimum of repair and maintenance costs.

These mechanical elements of great value are fittingly augmented by the great beauty of the New Series.

Touring Car, $885 Roadster, $885 Sedan, $1485 Coupe, $1388

A. W. Walker Auto Co. West Main Street, Medford

MAXWELL

Where Ford Work Is Guaranteed At the Lowest Cost to You

- Overhaul motor and transmission and re-babbit block . . . $29.00
- Overhaul transmission only . . . $14.00
- Overhaul motor and rebore block . . . $40.00
- Reline bands . . . $3.00
- Reline bands, starter type . . . $3.75
- Reline Bands, enclosed cars . . . $4.00
- Overhaul rear axle . . . $7.00
- Grind valves, test coils, adjust carburetor . . . $5.00
- Grind valves only . . . $3.50

Compare these prices with any other shop. We do it cheaper because we have the only completely equipped shop in town.

C. E. Gates Auto Co.

PAGE

NOW PLAYING

The drama of a faithful wife yet a secret mother, told with true artistry and crowned by a climax of vibrant power!

The Child Thou Gavest Me

With LEWIS STONE BARBARA CASTLETON WILLIAM DEMOND and Little Richard Headrick, the wonder child of "The Woman in His House."

SATURDAY GARETH HUGHES in "GARMENTS OF TRUTH."

COMING — DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS in "THE THREE MUSKETEERS."