The Gold Hill cement plant will resume operation Monday with a crew of more than 100 employes. The slowdown for repairs, since December 1, has been the shortest in the history of the plant. During the slowdown about 75 men were employed making repairs and operating the lower quarry at Zacker. With a large supply of cement in the storage bunkers shipment of orders was uninterrupted during the closed period.

The Parent-Teachers circle will meet at the library on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The executive committee met Thursday and made plans for the program, which promises to be a good one.

Local wrestling fans are much interested in the victory Wednesday night at Portland of Ted Thye over Pinky Gardner, after one of the fastest matches ever seen in the northwest.

Thye lost the first fall in 32 minutes, after Gardner had applied a crushing toe hold. Thye won the second fall in 25 minutes by a hold seldom seen in wrestling. He turned his back on Gardner, and suddenly reached between his legs and grabbed him by the ankles throwing him to the mat, and knocked the wind out of Gardner, thereupon pinning him to the mat easily. Thye won the third fall in 12 minutes without any difficulty. Thye had no chance to use his wristlock hold, Gardner breaking it easily. The latter made a speech, and challenged Thye to another match.

A special committee of the City club in Portland in a report yesterday declared that it was in favor of Diamond Lake remaining under the supervision of the forest service and was opposed to its being included within the limits of Crater Lake National park. The industrial value of the lake as a reservoir and the possibilities of the Umpqua river as a source of hydro-electric power when it shall be needed, were taken into consideration when making the decision. Industrial value was regarded as more important than scenic value. However no definite action will be taken by the club until next week.

TALENT TOSSERS DEFEAT MEDFORD SCORE 25 TO 16

The Medford high school student body and a number of other spectators witnessed last evening one of the most appalling and awkward exhibitions of clumsy, butterfingering, ever seen on the Nat floor, when the local high school team played the Talent high school a game of what was supposed to be basketball.

Medford was defeated by a score of 25-16 and has not played in as poor form all season. Passing was wild and it seemed impossible for the Medford hoopers to hit the ring. They shot repeatedly from close range and missed a remarkable number of times. In the first half Talent shot less than half as many times as Medford and at the end of that period the score was tied, 5-5.

In the last two or three minutes of the game the Medford quintet began to pick up and piled in two or three baskets with a brand of action which has been seen several times this season.

If this had happened earlier in the game a defeat would have been less probable, but as it was, the five Red and Black basketballers came to their senses about fifteen minutes too late to avert disgrace.

The Talent team, however was no mean opponent and it will be remembered that it was defeated by Eugene by a score of 22-15 and was coming strong with 12 minutes to go when the lights in the Talent gym failed. Also that it tied Ashland in the first half and ultimately suffered a defeat by a very small margin. However, the Medford five should have been able to defeat the Talent team and would have had they not all been in a state of jeharky. The home boys have been under a severe mental strain as this is the start of a new school semester and it appears that the heavy study recently indulged in has afflicted the squad with brain-fag which has produced temporary incapacitation for the use of that part of the anatomy which surmounts the shoulders.

It is hoped that before the boys start on their northern trip next Friday that they will regain their form. Roseburg and the U. of O. Freshmen are to be met and a little spirit and fight coupled with some head work will be appropriate in these games. A brand of ball such as was displayed in the Eugene contest will help out considerably.

Lineup: Medford—Payne, Purven, Prescott, Burnett, Rudy Singler, Pellet, Johnston, Straton, Dick Singler, Cochran, Substitutions—Medford, Allen for Dick Singler; Dick Singler for Prescott; Talent, none.

Referee—Finch.

The girls' game turned out as usual. The Medford girls played accurately and steadily and defeating the Talent girls by a score of 33 to 6.
