

SHRINERS DONATE $25 FOR THE BUY A TREE CAMPAIGN

The shriners are the first one of the fraternal organizations to purchase trees in the "Buy a Tree" campaign to beautify the county fair community grounds.

The shriners have set a worthy example for other fraternities to follow. In years to come when the trees have attained a size that will furnish shade for the picnic grounds the members of these organizations will be proud to see the trees labeled as having come from their fraternal organization.

The first one of the individual contributions for trees comes from T. H. Simpson of Ashland. He has requested that two trees be planted in the name of Thomas Simpson and Nellie G. Simpson.

A number of Medford residents have expressed their desire to purchase some trees and plant them in the name of their children, but no report of same will be made until their names are on the dotted line, accompanied with a check for the number of trees they subscribe for.

Assurances are given by the Fair association that proper care will be taken in the planting of the trees and that provisions have been made to water them during the summer.

No reports have been received as to results in the "Buy a Tree" campaign in the outlying districts of the county, as there was an unavoidable delay in getting the blank forms to the chairman of the various districts.

The Screen

Movie Mule, Page Maud makes her appearance as a star in the movies at the Page theatre beginning today. Douglas MacLean is billed as the star of Maud's picture, "Passing Thru," but Doug freely admits that Maud carries away first honors.

Like the star that she is, Maud, who is a pure white, long-eared hybrid mule, displayed unglamorous evidences of temperament during the filming of "Passing Thru." Maud caused no end of worry to William A. Seiter, who directed the feature, as well as the entire company.

She was engaged under the supposition that she was a trick mule. The trick was to get her to work. Careful experimentation, however, revealed that Maud possessed little human weaknesses and through taking advantage of these she was made to perform in true stellar style.

"Behind Masks," Tomorrow E. Phillip Oppenheim's novel, "Jeanne of the Marshes," is the Paramount picture in which Dorothy Dalton will be seen at the theatre tomorrow under the screen title of "Behind Masks." This is a different type of story from Miss Dalton's recent releases and is replete with the big dramatic punches which one always associates with Mr. Oppenheim's work as novelist.

Wallace Reid Going That ever popular star, Wallace Reid, is closing at the Rialto theatre tonight, in "Too Much Speed," his latest auto race comedy in which he has the role of a speed demon, full of pep and as nifty as they make them.

Adopt the Direct Treatment for the Cold Troubles of all the Family

VICKS STANDING OFFER Vicks doesn't relieve every case. No remedy can possibly do that. But it is successful in such a large percentage of cold troubles that we have had for years this standing offer: Buy either the 35c, 75c or $1.50 size from your druggist. If you are not delighted with the results, mail us the top of the carton, and we will cheerfully refund the purchase price. Or, if you wish to try Vicks before you buy, mail the coupon below for a free sample.

Rub It On for Deep Chest Colds

ABSORBED, like a liniment, and, at the same time, INHALED, as a vapor, Vicks gets immediately into congested, inflamed air passages.

WHEN a cold goes down deep threatens to turn into bronchitis or pneumonia—with soreness, tight breathing and a heavy hollow cough, apply hot wet cloths over throat and chest to open pores of skin. Then rub Vicks in well until the skin is red. Spread on thickly and cover with hot flannel cloths, and arrange the bedding loosely so that the healing vapors will be inhaled all night.

off spasmodic croup. Also, its cooling, soothing qualities make it useful every day for cuts, burns, bruises, stings and itching skin.

A "Tar Heel" Discovery

Twenty-five years ago, Druggist Lunsford Richardson, of Greensboro, North Carolina, the "Tar Heel" State, seeking a better way to treat colds, hit upon a wonderful formula. He combined Camphor, Menthol and certain volatile oils in the form of a salve, so that when applied to throat and chest, it not only penetrated and stimulated like a liniment, but the ingredients were released as vapors by the body heat and inhaled directly into the affected air passages. This remedy, Vicks VapoRub, won instant local favor and its fame has spread, county by county, state by state, until now Vicks is a family standby from coast to coast.

Best of Nature's Remedies

Vicks contains valuable ingredients brought from distant countries—Camphor from Formosa, land of head-hunting savages; Menthol from picturesque Japan; Oil of Eucalyptus from Australia; Oil of Juniper Tar from Bedouin haunts of Northern Africa; Oil of

How Vicks Should Be Used

For Spasmodic Croup, Children's Colds—Rub Vicks over the throat and chest until the difficult breathing is relieved, then spread on thickly and cover with a hot flannel cloth. One application at bed time usually prevents a night attack of croup.

For Head Colds, Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever—Vicks should be melted in a spoon and the vapors inhaled, or a little can be applied up the nostrils and snuffed up the head.

For Deep Chest Colds, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis, Bronchitis, Coughs—Vicks should be applied over the throat and chest—if necessary, first using hot, wet cloths to open the pores of the skin—then rubbed in well until the skin is red; spread on thickly and covered with one or two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths. If the cough is annoying, swallow small pieces the size of a pea.

Used as a Liniment, Poultice or Plaster—On account of its penetrative and rubefacient effect, Vicks has been found excellent for bites, Boils, Bruises, Frost bite, Muscular Soreness, Poison Ivy, Sunburn, Headache, Neuralgia and Sore Calloused Feet.

VINING TO SPEAK AT TRI-L CLUB

The business and professional women's club has a real treat in store for those who attend the regular monthly club supper to be held Tuesday, February 7, at six p. m., at the Presbyterian church in that they have secured Prof. Irving Vining to speak at that time. The ladies of the Presbyterian church are going to serve one of their delightful suppers. Prof. Vining is well known to the people of Medford and those who heard him last year at the Y. W. C. A. banquet are glad of the opportunity to hear him again, and those who have never heard him should not miss this opportunity.

NOBODY INDEPENDENT, EVERYBODY DEPENDENT

A time of business depression has one beneficial effect of great value and that is to knock out of folks heads the idea that they can be "independent" and need pay no attention to the other fellow.

People who thought they were "independently wealthy" have found that when general business depression comes, dividends stop, interest isn't paid, values drop and after all their "fortunes" which were to make them "independent" don't succeed in pulling them away from contact with the rest of the world. They find that the good fortune or the ill fortune of the rest of folks has a direct effect on them.

This is particularly true in a community like ours. There can be no real prosperity that doesn't help everybody—and no ill fortune fails to touch all classes.

Pay Up Week, Feb. 13 to 18, is a community effort to start better times by the help of everybody. If you don't help, you'll lose. If you do help, you'll gain. Plan not only on your own individual action in this campaign but use your efforts to get everybody else into line. If you start cash rolling, you start better times, better jobs, more prosperity for everybody.

The Oldest Man in the World Just part of a skull, two molar teeth and a thigh bone! Pieced together they made—what? One of the most perplexing mysteries in the study of human history. Were these the remains of an ape-like man who lived 500,000 years ago? Scientists believe that they were; they call him the "Dawn Man," and out of the record embedded in the rocks they have reconstructed the conditions of his life. How he killed his food and tore the raw flesh from the bones; how he married and fought and died! How little by little he clawed and clabbed his way up to mastery over the beasts. It is a fascinating, gripping story, but it is only one of a thousand stories that stir your blood in this greatest book of modern times. H. G. WELLS' "Outline of History" Now Offered You at One-Third the Original Price A history that goes back 100,000,000 years—that traces man's race beginning 500,000 years ago—that follows him down through the ages to the Babylon of Nebuchadnezzar, the Egypt of Cleopatra, the France of Napoleon, the America of today, through the Great War and on into the future United States of the World—that gives ALL history as one story—this is "Wells' History." Not only the history of the world, but the science of the world; the outline of the histories of the world, the histories of the world—a vast panorama unfolded before your eyes by the most graphic word picture of modern times. And THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS TOO Wells begins with the dawn of time; before there were men, before there were even reptiles, in brief, significant stories, he points the picture, bringing you straight down to 1922. Alexander passes on the scene; and Nero, and Charlemagne and Napoleon; Ferdinand and Gonzales; Constantine and Akbar; Galileo and Marie Belva. Never a dull moment. Never a paragraph that is not crystal clear. And where Wells stops the Review of Reviews takes up the story. He is the history of the past; the Review of Reviews records and interprets the history of the world today. It is moving that these two should be joined together. By buying them we are able to offer you an educational course such as you get at no school in the land. Send No Money Mailed slip and mail the coupon below.
