OBITUARY

PICKEL.—Betty Nadine Pickel born February 4th, 1918, passed away February 6th, 1922, after a short illness of pneumonia. She was the sunshine of her home and her bright sunny ways won the love of all who knew her. She leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Pickel, and brother Gordon.

A lily's broken from its stem, The waxen flower has faded; A home has lost a precious gem, It's sunlit portals shaded.

Aching hearts with grief are bound, And aching hearts are weary; A solemn stillness steals around; The rooms are hushed and dreary.

We miss the song of prattling klee, The laughing eyes so sweet; No more doth hither come and and and flow The patter of little feet.

Sweet little Betty! Thou art gone, Yet steals on us in silent flight Which kindles treasured thoughts at dawn And soothes the phantom dreams of night.

Our solace is a memory dear Of her sweet, sunny face, And lingering traits will give us cheer Of her innocence and grace.

And as onward through the years you tread These your bleeding hearts will heal; The saddening shadows will have fled And consolation o'er you steal.

Her brief young life was not in vain, Her mission was fulfilled, And though the parting caused you pain, It was as God had willed.

Some day you'll understand the why When you pass beneath the rod, When you see outstretched beyond the sky, Betty's and the hands of God.
