1600 EGGS PUT TO HATCH INCUBATORS WHITE WING FARM

By Mrs. Mary O. Carey.

Word has come to the many acquaintances of Miss Audrey Roberts, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts, former residents of Talent and vicinity that Miss Roberts left Medford the first of last week for Denver, Colo., to be married to a promising young doctor upon her arrival at that city.

The Talent and Phoenix basketball teams met on the Phoenix floor Friday evening to try for supremacy. The Talent team having all confidence in their skill, played in their usual good form, and waxed bold in trying to carry off the honors for the home team, which they easily did. Both the boys' and girls' teams played, and both won from Phoenix. The night was a rather stormy one and all hands played a lively game in order to keep warm, as well as a determination to win.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams of Talent, expect to leave for the city of New York about the 27th of this month. They will go to Chicago and other far eastern points where they will visit with relatives. After they arrive in the city they will go by auto the remainder of the trip.

Last Thursday 1600 eggs were put into the incubators at the White Wing poultry farm. This is the first hatch of the season, and there will be a thousand eggs set every three weeks until the last of May, all of which are already ordered.

Last Wednesday Darby O'Toole and wife, former residents of Phoenix, and his son James and his wife from near Petaluma, Calif., came down from Ashland where James and wife have been visiting with his father, and took dinner with Mrs. Cally Steadman. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Furry were also guests the same day with Mrs. Steadman.

E. R. Jones, former Talent resident, but now keeper of the oil station and lodge on the Siskiyou, was in this vicinity Tuesday after a load of hay for Mr. Denny of Ashland, who was buying a few tons for another party and having Mr. Jones do the hauling. Mr. Jones says they are doing a good business in their line at the summit, and that when spring opens he will have all he can handle.

Talent residents feel quite proud that the Talent bonds went so readily when put upon the market. It speaks well for the surrounding country, that bond buyers of southern California should snap up the bonds thus quickly. It goes without saying that Talent is situated in one of the most productive sections of the valley, and that there is no doubt that the bond houses know a good thing when they see it.

Mrs. G. C. McClain of Phoenix, was a dinner guest of Mrs. W. S. Stancliff at their pleasant home south of Phoenix Tuesday, as also was Ed Hamlin of Eden Valley, a guest in the evening.

The flu has gained quite alarming proportions in the Talent district, and many persons are confined to the house from the disease. It is in a light form, but should the patients unduly expose themselves serious consequences are apt to follow.

A number of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church met at the pleasant home of Mrs. Reimer last Thursday and tackled out a beautiful comforter for her. A most delightful luncheon was served at noon, to which all did ample justice. The ladies planned to do some sewing for persons in the town whom sickness had rendered in need of such kindly services.

Talent has been having a regular shower by the stork in the past few weeks. Among the happy recipients are Mr. and Mrs. Morse Barlow, who have a son, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Withrow have a girl.

We are sorry to announce that Uncle George Roberts, who makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. Lein Hughes of Fern Valley, is in a rather critical condition from heart trouble. Mr. Roberts is in his eightieth year, or past, and fears are entertained for him.

Mrs. Sula Dean has been quite sick with the flu at her daughter's, Mrs. Louis Colver's. Mrs. Dean's home is on Wagner creek, above Talent, but she has been staying with her daughter since her husband's death.

Work started with the drilling at the Triconia well again Tuesday, after several weeks work resitting the casing and trying to shut out the water. It seems there was a fissure opened from the explosion, which was rather difficult to remedy, and water kept coming in. It is hoped now that work will go forward more rapidly.

Reports say that it is almost impossible to get coal enough to run the entire at the test well on the Westlund property, and work had to be suspended there for the present.

Mrs. Pratt was called to Talent Tuesday night to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clint Dunnington of the Talent garage, where the stork has made his expected visit.

The little girl of Mr. and Mrs. Will Wright of Phoenix, was reported in a very dangerous condition Tuesday night with the flu and complications. We hope the child will recover. She is the only daughter of Will Wright, and a bright and lovable little child.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Denzer about twenty couples gathered for a dance and a good social time. Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Yost, Mr. and Mrs. Alben Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rathburn, Mr. and Mrs. George Drake, Bert Yost, Lois Yost, Mr. and Mrs. Childers, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Denzer, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Denzer, besides several couples from Phoenix and Ashland. A good supper was served, which consisted of ham sandwiches, salads, pickles, cake, pie, candy and nuts, popcorn, coffee. All voted this one of the best social gatherings of the winter.
