Ye Smudge Pot

By Arthur Perry.

The cigarette habit is growing among the women folks, and in some sections the fair ones are smoking on the streets.

It will be rude, however, for a man to ask a good-looking blonde for a match, if he has a pocketful.

The Woodrow Wilson Memorial Fund is half secured. A forgetting fund would have been over-subscribed in 10 minutes.

Unless some of the high potency is removed from the standard brands of moonshine, bootleggers will have to draft customers. A move is afoot to curb the washbottle distillers by abolishing washbottles.

THE SUNDAY-ONLY TYPE

(Sixday News)

Many people trying to be Christians continue their cigarettes, their selfishness, their profanity, their filthy conversations, their attendance at places of questionable righteousness; and they assume no religious responsibility, that places demands upon their time and energies.

The Stillman divorce suit is still struggling along through the maze of legal tinkering, but being just a plain case of orneryness without any frills, it is creating no public interest like movie cussedness.

Rain fell copiously all day Friday, and came close to being another Waterloo.

"GOOD ROADS AND THE CHURCH"

(Sermon topic Salem Statesman). They sure do increase the attendance on sunny Sunday mornings when the fish are biting.

Prices are getting down where the nickel key on a cash register gets a little exercise.

"She Flies With Her Own Wings"

the state motto of Oregon, is not appropriate, according to the artistic soul. They want a new one. Make it: As the Indians Left It.

THE SELF HATER

(Blue Mountain Times)

Exceptionally smart young man, college bred, magnetic personality, brilliant salesman, meet anybody, any time, noted for originality of conception, highly preceptive, and a social asset to any community desires position with firm that is able to recognize genius when present. Address W. F. A., Gen. Del.

It is about time the U.S. had a Pungle Up Week for European nations who refuse to pay their war debts without another war, and maintain all obligations were fulfilled when they cheered fool theories, and allowed American soldiers to march down the leading boulevards enroute to save their national bids, "La Belle France" is the chief fit thrower against remitting.

Hay hauling is still being indulged in. (Eugene Guard). The harness of the off horse was embellished with artistically arranged pussywillows.

William Jennings Bryan is engaged in an argument with a University president over the relations between science and religion. Not knowing anything about either, he is able to spout 16 words to the professor's one, and be wrong as usual.

Had That Tired, Worn-Out Feeling

Do you know that "awful tired feeling," languidness, lame or weak back, sore muscles, stiff or swollen joints, or rheumatic pains usually indicate kidney trouble? Foley Kidney Pills act promptly and effectively. Mrs. Roberta Lilly, 509 Alton St., Alton, Ill., writes: "For three years I had a tired, worn-out feeling. Various treatments failed. I began to improve on the second dose of Foley Kidney Pills and today I feel like new." Sold everywhere.

THE VALE OF TEARS.

HERE is no country here below that can't produce some brand of woe. I've traveled all the world around to find some hollow in the ground where one in comfort might recline, and cry aloud "This country's fine!" I've lived where it is always spring and birds are ever on the wing, and there I found the noxious fly would recognize no time to die. I pitched my tent beside the sea and watched the billows wild and free, and thought at last I'd found a place designed to soothe the human race. And then I saw a fogbank creep from out the reaches of the deep; the fog was gray and dank and cold, as thimmy as the graveyard mold; it soaked into my bones and thence, and filled my organs and my shoes, and rheumatism climbed my frame and broke my heart and left me lame. I built myself a little shack upon a mountain's rocky back; and there the air was pure and sweet, the view was fine enough to eat. But there large rats their council held, and all night long the bobcats yelled, and nameless varmints to their dens bore off my Poland China hens. If one's inclined to tear his hair, he'll gather lemons everywhere; he'll find no place beneath the sun where grief and trouble do not run. Contentment, like a thrifty tree, will grow wherever you may be, if you don't rake around to find some sorrows to disturb your mind.

Quill Points

When exports fall off, nations fall out.

Some people are good for nothing, and some are good for revenue only.

If the world goes back to the dogs of war, it will probably go to the how-wows.

Britain's Pacific possessions are about the only ones she has that stay that way.

If everybody could choose his lot in life, it would be one fronting on Easy Street.

When a man stands aside to let a woman board a street car, you can't tell whether it is chivalry or curiosity.

When all the fighting is done in the air, nations will be slow to fall out about trifles.

France can't duplicate Uncle Sam's isolation act without the two nice wide oceans as props.

It isn't probable, however, that business will get on its feet while the feet remain cold.

When the swords are beaten into plowshares, no doubt the theatre of war will be used for county fairs.

The poor will pay the war debt. At any rate, posterity will pay it; and the poor furnish posterity.

Old Dobbin had his faults, but you didn't have to pour hot water on him to get him started on a cold morning.

Men learn from hard experience, and next time they will have sense enough in time of war to prepare for peace.

"The bootlegger receives too much sympathy." He certainly does. Sympathy should be saved for the bereaved family.

They say insects cost the world a billion dollars a year. And this estimate doesn't include the ravages of the humbug.

Another excellent business policy is the one that makes the consumer the beneficiary of the wholesaler's reductions.

Divine love hates the sin and loves the sinner. But in the matter of submarines, nations appear to hate the sinner and love the sin.

It must be embarrassing to an absent-minded divorcee when she can't decide whether the man at the door is her new husband or a book agent.

Germany was militaristic because she called a treaty a scrap of paper; France is militaristic because she wishes to keep another treaty from being a scrap of paper.

INTERNAL ROWS TO BE ADJUSTED, END BUILDING STRIKE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—A national agreement designed to settle the jurisdictional disputes said to have caused most of the strikes in the building industry in the past was reached by the Associated General Contractors of America, the American Institute of Architects, the Engineering Council, the National Building Trades Federation of Labor through the national board of jurisdictional awards in its quarterly meeting just concluded here, it was announced today. The agreement provides that local building trades councils shall suspend unions and refuse to recognize or support unions which fail to abide by the decisions of the board. It also provides that general contractors and sub-contractors shall incorporate in agreements with union labor a provision for members of local unions, which do not abide by its decisions. Architects and engineers also are bound under the agreement to insert in all their specifications and contracts a clause providing that the board's decisions shall be followed.

COAST BASKETBALL TITLE IN DOUBT

SPOKANE, Feb. 18.—While basketball fans largely are centering their interest on the Pacific coast conference, the Northwest conference championship still is undecided with Idaho the most likely contender for honors. Washington at present is playing a two-game series with W. S. C. at Pullman. Idaho will play at Pullman on March 2 and 3. The University of Washington has yet another series to play. Standing of the teams: Games to Idaho 11 1 6 Washington 9 2 3 O. A. C. 8 2 6 Whitman 7 5 4 Montana 3 5 0 Willamette 1 7 4 W. S. C. 1 7 4 W. S. C. 0 5 0 Oregon 0 12 2

BASANTA WINS IN COMBINATION BOUT

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 16.—Just two rounds were needed for Basanta Singh, Hindu wrestler, to throw Eddie Richards, middleweight boxer, in a mixed wrestling and boxing bout last night at Milwaukee. Richards landed one blow on Singh and kept out of the wrestler's reach most of the time, but finally the grappler made a dive for Richards' legs, threw him and pinned him to the mat. Floyd Johnson, Oakland, Cal., heavyweight, scored a ten-round decision over Battling Kid Savage, Mexican. Jimmy West of Manila fought a six round draw with Battling Ortega of Oakland, and Jeff Davis and Young Britton, local boy, went four rounds to a draw. Clare Bromoe and Frank Ritchie, who were down for six rounds, were put out in the fourth by the referee, who declared they were not trying.

METHODIST BISHOP KEEN FOR BRITISH

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Bishop John Edward Robinson, who since 1875 has been missionary bishop for the Methodist Episcopal church in the United States, died at Bangalore Thursday night, says a Madras dispatch to the London Times. He is especially remembered in London for his strong views during the war. At one war time meeting he declared he "thanked God, as an American and in behalf of the American, for British protection abroad." John Edward Robinson was born in Ireland in February, 1849, but emigrated to the United States when he was 15 years old. He was ordained a Methodist Episcopal minister in 1874 and soon afterward went to the missionary fields in India and Bermuda.

STATE OFFICIAL IN ROLE OF HERO

WATERBURY, Conn., Feb. 18.—Governor Governor Charles A. Tompkins, a passerby, rescued Mrs. Michael Ryan from a blazing building shortly before midnight last night, after she had been overcome by smoke. Mrs. Ryan's clothes were in flames but the lieutenant governor managed to wrap his coat about her and escape. She will recover.

Stage and Screen

Tolable David at Page "Tolable David" now at the Page theater, is one of the finest pictures of this season or any other season. It is the story of production which the cynics, who see no good in motion pictures, should be made to view. "Tolable David" is an artistic piece of work, a picture with character, feeling and beauty.

Richard Barthelmess does the best work of his career as the boy who was judged by his mountain mother to be "tolable, just to'able." His David is a more delicate piece of work than the Chinaman in "Broken Blossoms" and it is more likable and far more brilliant than the hero of "Way Down East." It is one of the most complete and sensitive character studies ever presented on the screen.

The story is a thoroughly interesting and exciting tale of Kentucky mountaineers, but not the usual type of story. There is action aplenty, but the central interest is aroused over the emotions of the boy David, who secretly rebels, at being just a boy and yearns to be a man. He dreams of the day when he can drive the hack over the hills to get the government mail and be something more than the baby of the family.

The event which led up to the death of his father and the cruel injury to his brother, and the reasons which prevent his taking revenge on the terrible Hatburns are told with splendid pathos and strength.

Anita Stewart at Rialto "Playthings of Destiny" starring Anita Stewart, will be the feature attraction at the Rialto theatre tomorrow, Monday and Tuesday. This is a striking romance of the frozen north and the tropics and permits the talented and beautiful star splendid opportunities to display her versatility. It is a dramatic picture which allows the assembly of players to flash their individual talent to advantage. Miss Stewart does some of the best work of her career in the role of Julie Lennox who was unwittingly led into marrying a man she did not love when she was already the wife of another man she did love.

May Robson Coming The coming of May Robson, the talented comedienne who Augustus Pitus Inc. will present to the patrons of the Page theatre on Tuesday night, Feb. 21st, is always an event of importance to theatregoers for it is her custom to appear in a new play every season, and one is assured of a capital performance for her company and production is always up to the high standard established by her manager several years since.

For the current season she will be seen in a new comedy in three acts, "It Pays to Suffer." To tell the story of the working out of the plot would mean to rob the auditor of many pleasing and laughable surprises. Miss Robson has been surrounded with a most admirable cast of players and the play has been given a lavish mounting.
