ARTHUR H. MEYERS MANAGER

MEDFORD LEGION TO ASSIST WORK LOCAL RED CROSS

Following the appearance of a delegation from the Red Cross before the regular meeting of the American Legion last night the local post voted to appoint a member to act in an advisory capacity with the local Red Cross officials and to support and co-operate in every way possible with the work of the reorganized chapter.

Several other matters of interest were disposed of by the legion, including the buying of trees for the new fair grounds, and after the meeting the men were entertained with a short program by the Ladies' Auxiliary which met at the same time.

With the work of decorating their new quarters practically completed Medford's American Legion post now has as complete and attractive a meeting place as could be desired. The new arrangement permits of meetings of the legion and the auxiliary at the same time there being two rooms approximately 25 by 50 feet each, divided by a large entrance hall, a completely equipped kitchen, ladies' room and canteen room.

The house committee responsible for the work of furnishing and decorating the quarters has spent a great deal of time in the work and many members of the post have also given their time to the project. Tom Seem, whose genius as a decorator is mainly responsible for the fine effects achieved has worked hard and Gain Robinson, another member of the committee, together with Ernest Peachy and George Kerr were also conspicuous in their efforts to complete the work. Ladies of the auxiliary also rendered invaluable aid.

Blue and gold, the legion colors form the motif of decoration of the lodge room proper, with olive drab woodwork. The rear hall or banquet room and dance hall is finished in French blue and marine khaki.

Seven organizations are now using the quarters as a meeting place.

LEGION THANKS AID OF W. C. T. U.

Believing that the permanently disabled veterans of the world war were most deserving of aid, the W. C. T. U., recently sent the balance of its patriotic war fund—$4000—to the American Legion to be used in furthering the comfort of our national heroes.

The national executive committee of the American Legion has just sent resolutions of appreciation beautifully engraved on heavy vellum and bearing the seal and colors of the organization. The resolutions are as follows:

Whereas: The National Woman's Christian Temperance Union has generously offered the balance of its patriotic fund in the sum of $4000 to the American Legion for the benefit of permanently disabled comrades; and

Whereas: this gift expresses, not money's worth alone, but sentiment and feeling which are beyond value;

Be it further resolved: that the gratitude of the American Legion be conveyed to them by this resolution duly inscribed and transmitted by the proper national officers.

(Signed) HANFORD MACNIDER, National commander, chairman. LEMUEL BOLLES, National adjutant, secretary.

THE BAT AT PAGE MONDAY, FEB. 27

Local theatregoers are to have the opportunity of seeing for themselves "The Bat" at the Page theatre Monday night, Feb. 27.

"The Bat" was written by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood and is presented by Wagenhals and Kemper. It is in its second year in New York, has played for one solid year in Chicago, something never before heard of in that city for any play and in every other city that it has been seen, it has played to absolute capacity audiences.

"The Bat" is a thrilling mystery story, filled with dramatic moments and interspersed with some of the rarest comedy ever seen on any stage. It comes here, presented in exactly the same careful, satisfactory manner as it was offered in New York and Chicago. Wagenhals and Kemper, sponsors of "The Bat," have long been noted for their success as producers. It has been staged with all the care of a Broadway performance and the company speaks for itself, including as it does: Lizzie Evans, William L. Thorn, Lucille Morris, Josephine Morse, Joseph M. Hollek, Charles Cahill Wilson, Arthur Hughes, Edward Pawley, Paul Huber, and George Allan Wilson.

Notice There will be a meeting in the Masonic hall Thursday evening, Feb. 23, for the purpose of giving the first class in the Order of De Molay the Initiatory Degree. All Master Masons should be present to give the boys a good send-off and to show them we are with them. Meeting called at seven-thirty. Refreshments. By order of committee, GLEN FABRICK, Chairman.

WILL HOLD NORMAL SCHOOL IN ASHLAND AGAIN THIS SUMMER

ASHLAND, Feb. 22.—A "second edition" of the summer normal is practically assured for this city the coming season according to announcements from the board of regents of the state institution. This decision was a foregone conclusion, inasmuch as the results of the session last summer were so satisfactory.

If anybody is bored by "Yankee Doodle" this week especially, the circumstance is due to the fact that this is national song week, musical maddness, both vocal and instrumental, being in order until Saturday, the 25th. The slogan for the week is, "Sing every day."

The well known Plaza Confectionery has changed hands, the Trustees having sold the same to Fred A. Taylor and Mrs. Claire Milard of Medford, who are already in possession. The "Plaza" will remain the same familiar headquarters for everything in the confectionery and allied trade, being exceptionally desirably located as a leading business enterprise along these lines. As its name implies, the establishment is on the Plaza, adjacent to postoffice and near the park entrance. The Trustees family will return to Medford. They are bright, energetic people, and have made many friends during their residence here.

The Presbyterian young folks anticipated the observance of Washington's birthday last Sunday by giving a special program during the Sunday school hour, the exercises incorporating musical selections by the orchestra and brief talks on the life of Washington.

Deciding not to wait upon developments respecting reopening of the Ashland Iron Works, Lindstrom & Hall, both former employees of the concern have formed a co-partnership and will enter upon a foundry and machine shop business, independent of the old concern, having erected a new building for this purpose, convenient to railroad tracks.

The Carron-Fowler Lumber Co., alert in the installation of improvements, has added a "studio" to its establishment, the better to display illustrations of elegant bungalows, in addition to substantial business blocks. Plans and specifications are also available, the intent being to make the rooms a sort of exposition of all phases of building construction, also displaying colorful effects as applied to best advantage.

The W. C. T. U. county institute will meet in Ashland next Tuesday, February 28, and preliminary thereto, Mrs. Alice Jillson, of this city, president of the county organization, is visiting various neighboring localities in the interests of the forthcoming reunion gathering.

Washington's birthday anniversary was observed in a double sense by the Ohio society, having met at Medford this year from several sections of the valley, in annual reunion assembled, singing the praises of the old Buckeye state.

Wednesday this week is well nigh a "complete" holiday, postoffice and banks being closed with the lid on as tight as of a Sunday.

The Ashland school district is in the market for 150 cords of wood,—good body fir,—cut from green trees 4 feet long,—that is, the cord wood, and not the trees. Specifications call for tree trunks not to exceed 10 inches in diameter, or less than four inches. Bids on this supply are wanted on or before March 1. Here's a chance for some choppers to get busy.
