BRINGING UP FATHER

SPORTSMEN ASK STOCKMEN TO ATTEND DINNER

As the time approaches for the big banquet and meeting of the Jackson County Game Protection association at the Hotel Medford on the night of March 1st, interest in the event increases. A meeting was held here last night by the Medford and Ashland members of the committee on arrangements.

A special invitation is extended to the stockmen and farmers of southern Oregon to attend for the purpose of discussing ways and means to handle the predatory animal situation, which is becoming such a great menace to the wild life of Oregon. The farmers and stockmen are also urged to come and participate in a discussion on the county law question, and the game laws pertaining to the opening and closing of the season. Their advice is wanted on many important questions.

And far more than 100 cents worth of fine eats will be served for the banquet dollar ticket, along with a fine entertainment. The banquet will be served at 7:30 p. m., there will be both vocal and instrumental music, and 1100 feet of moving picture films showing pictures of wild game, birds, and wild Oregon life, by and under the direction of A. C. Allen.

Prof. Irving Vining of Ashland will be the main speaker of the night. Captain Bergduff, state game warden, member of the state game commission and a number of the hotel men of Portland will be present. Ashland expects to have a delegation of not less than fifty at the gathering.

RESERVATION TO PACT HITS SNAG

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The move to attach a blanket reservation to the four power Pacific treaty and then report it promptly to the senate struck a snag today in the foreign relations committee, which again adjourned with action after a session of more than an hour.

The administration senators on the committee indicated afterward that further consultation with President Harding would be necessary before they could accept the reservation proposed yesterday by Senator Brandegee, republican, Connecticut, providing that none of the adjustments to be made under the treaty should be binding without the consent of congress.

Heretofore proponents of the reservation have declared they were certain of its acceptance by Senator Lodge, Massachusetts, leader and chairman, as well as by the president.
