

HARRISON MEETING PHOENIX CHURCH BEGINS SUNDAY

Norman B. Harrison, Bible evangelist from Seattle, will begin a series of special meetings at the Phoenix church with a sermon Sunday morning at 11, on "God's Method of Making Men Good,"—seeing the whole story at a glance,—a keynote message for the week. At 6:30 p. m., Sunday, he will speak to the young people, and at the 7:30 service his subject will be, "How to Be Right With God."

Until a year ago, Mr. Harrison was pastor for ten years of the University Presbyterian church of Seattle, when he resigned to take up the work of Bible evangelism in the churches of the northwest, including several engagements in Seattle, where he has been working for the past month. He was very successful as a pastor, and has been so as an evangelist who speaks directly from the Bible as the word of God, and depends on God's power in answer to prayer by God's people, and not on sensational methods or excitement.

Monday evening at 7:30 his subject will be "How to Live the Christian Life"; and Tuesday evening, "The Secrets of a Satisfied Life." Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 he will present "Bible Pictures of Prayer."

There will be an afternoon meeting every day next week except Monday and Saturday. M. F. Sheets will sing a tenor solo at the meeting on Sunday morning; and the help of all who can assist in the music is invited as the meetings program.

Meetings full of interest, enthusiasm and helpfulness to everybody, and free from objectionable methods, have been the goal sought for over a year by the Phoenix church pastor and officers, and now the public is invited to these in full confidence that in Mr. Harrison's coming to Phoenix we have a very rare opportunity, and will have a splendid series of meetings with the cooperation of the people of the church and community.

Splendid Condition of Pine Belt Banking Co.

The Pine Belt Banking Co. of Butte Falls, recently re-elected its old directors and the officers who have so efficiently conducted the affairs of the past year, as follows: George W. Barker, president and cashier, and Wm. H. Barker, vice president. One of the excellent testimonials of the bank's condition was a letter from Supt. of Banks Bramwell, read at the meeting, which compliments the officers for the splendid way in which it has passed through the period of depression without embarrassment and their excellent financial showing at the last examination.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Last Saturday just after noon Prof. Chester L. Ward, athletic coach of Butte Falls basketball, and teacher of the sixth and seventh grades in the Butte Falls school, came in on the regular stage from Butte Falls and took dinner and went out to Medford on his way to Portland to be gone for a week and I have heard since that he had gone to receive medical treatment by nerve specialists.

Millard Robinson, the young man mentioned as having cut his hand quite seriously, was here for supper the same day. He says that his hand is very sore yet, but thinks that he will be able to use it again in the course of a few weeks.

Mr. P. F. Leabo, who left the hotel some time ago and started in to batch, has returned to his room in the Sunnyside.

Last Saturday night there was the regular dance here and there was only a very few in attendance and there was, according to reports, one of the most disgraceful affairs we have had here for some time. I heard one of our prominent business men, in speaking of the conduct there, say that almost every one of the young men and larger boys were drunk and that moonshine was there in abundance and another reported that one of the boys put a bottle of moonshine in the center of the room and commenced to dance around it, but finally one of them kicked it over spilling it over the floor. The conduct has reached the point where many of our young people treat our laws as a burlesque and defy our officers and make sport of the idea of enforcing any of the prohibitive statutes. For instance, I saw a small group of young men busily engaged at something on the sidewalk and I heard them laughing after the gathering dispersed, and one of them remarked, "well, I skinned him out of six dollars," but who the man was who spoke or who he referred to as having been skinned I do not know. But what else can we expect of our youths, when men are arrested and brought to trial for violation of the law and men are selected to sit as jurors to try a case and will hang a jury and then admit that they were satisfied that the man was guilty, but that the principal witness for the state, in a bootlegging case, assigned as a reason that the witness was drunk himself. It is a common thing to hear men and in some instances, women express their approval of the fact that certain ones are acquitted of a charge of crime simply because they object to certain laws that have been enacted by our representatives in the law making bodies of our country.

The Craters have had charge of this and cooperated with the boys of the local company.

With but the arrangement of the final details, the armory will be constructed during 1922 as the City of Medford and State of Oregon have their proportionate share of the cost available.

SOIL, CLIMATE AND MOISTURE PLUS — — — Plus What? CULTIVATION

Many an unsophisticated grower of trees, or many a man who wants to produce trees at the least cost takes the soil and climate which a kind providence has provided for him, pays for the water which the reclamation service delivers to him and turns it loose endeavoring to grow trees with the least amount of labor.

Visit our nurseries any time during the growing season and you will find constant cultivation going on. There is just one way to produce well rooted, well finished nursery stock, and that is to keep everlastingly at it, applying scientific methods that practical farmers have practiced for generations, namely—constant care and cultivation.

It costs money to grow good trees. It takes experience to learn the fundamentals of propagating nursery stock. First in the matter of selecting good roots, the procuring of good buds and scions, and the combining of the two at the right time and in the right way and under proper conditions to give the selected varieties every chance to produce the best trees for the orchard planter.

Our field superintendent has spent 47 years doing nothing else than field work in nursery stock. He knows the how and why of best nursery practice during all those years. Our trees are grown on selected clean soil on the Yakima Reservation. We have a long growing season and have moisture under absolute control for 7 months in the year. We are well equipped with the latest and best tools and plenty of horses, and we cultivate our stock regularly and incessantly. The result is found in the clean, healthy, well rooted, fully matured trees which we deliver to our customers and back of which we stake our reputation for genuineness, quality and a square deal.

For 19 years we have served our customers, old and new. We have no side lines. We are nurserymen exclusively. You can't buy trees of us if we do not think we can satisfy you. We appreciate the loyal and continued patronage of our thousands of customers, and are this year filling more orders than ever in our history. Write us, giving a list of your wants, or see our nearest salesman.

W. P. Holbrook, who owns a small farm and orchard west of town, about a couple of miles, has returned from Oakland, California, and was here Monday.

Last Monday morning when I went to the postoffice, as I passed the Childreth blacksmith shop, I found that it was open again, although the proprietor, W. L. Childreth, was able to be out again, he was very weak and did not attempt to do any work, but it looked good to see him around again.

I also noticed that there seemed to be quite a demand for wood, as our town is being filled up, and there seems to be no empty houses, although there has been several changes in the line of moving. A. M. Guy and Ed Spencer, who have been living in a house belonging to Mrs. M. S. Woods, have moved out and are going to Butte Falls. They have leased a tract of Beaverdam land from Mr. Stanley for three years and intend to clear it and turn their attention to raising garden truck and Mr. Groves vacated the house recently purchased by Mrs. George Holmes and moved into the house, and Mr. Holmes is putting in a water system so as to have plenty of good, pure water, both hot and cold in their house, and also have water to irrigate a garden and Mr. J. Bigsby, mentioned in a former letter as having moved into the upper part of the T. E. Nichols store, has moved to Butte Falls, where he expects to work on the C. H. Natwick contract on the extension of the P. & E. railroad.

Among the guests at the Sunnyside Hotel Monday, were C. H. Natwick and son, Carlyle, Everic Dackack, George Holmes and wife and Ed Spencer.

J. H. Carlton of Wellen was among the few business callers Monday.

Rev. H. G. Adams expects to preach here both morning and evening next Sunday, the 26th.
