

WOMAN ADMITS STAGED HOLDUP AT DEAL BEACH

FREEHOLD, N. J., Feb. 24.—After the alleged confession of Mrs. Sarah L. M. Robertson that she "staged" the holdup at her Deal Beach home last Saturday night, the police today were seeking to learn if she is the same woman who a year ago collected $10,000 from an insurance concern for the reputed theft of gems in Columbus, Ohio.

The police last night recovered Mrs. Robertson's jewels which were supposed to have been taken by a robber after she gave the authorities a note to the person in whose custody the gems were.

Two of the pieces recovered, the police say, correspond exactly to descriptions of gems alleged to have been stolen from Mrs. Robertson in Columbus.

The police say she included in her confession a statement that she was driven to desperation by embarrassment in her real estate business and that she had planned, in addition to the "fake" robbery of herself, two real robberies of New York friends.

The recovered jewels are said to be worth $30,000, although Mrs. Robertson claims their value to be $50,000. They were insured with Lloyds for $70,000.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL MARRIES PUPIL

AVON, N. Y., Feb. 24.—Mrs. Laura Spencer, preceptress of the high school here, has notified the school commission of her recent marriage to Neil Cushing, 19 years old, a student in one of her classes.

Mrs. Spencer, now Mrs. Cushing, is 45 years old and the mother of five children, the eldest of whom is a teacher in Rochester.

Mrs. Cushing has been going about her duties paying no heed to the excitement her romance has created. Her husband continues to attend his classes.

The Daily Bank Robbery

STEVENSON, Wash., Feb. 24.—An attempted robbery of the Bank of Stevenson early this morning failed when the robbers encountered an automatic burglar proof lock with which the safety vault was equipped. Although investigators have been unable to open this door, it is believed that the bank lost nothing except about $5 in cash which remained in the till. The bank's president is George F. Christensen, chairman of the democratic state central committee.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 24.—Discovery that the oxy-acetylene equipment with which burglars attempted to burn their way into the vault of the Meacham Savings bank here Thursday morning was stolen the night before from a local broom works, was announced today by the police. A stolen automobile apparently abandoned by the robbers, was found
