TREE CAMPAIGN REACHES GRAND TOTAL OF 225

Requests are still coming in to the Medford chamber of commerce for trees to be planted at the county fair community grounds and the total number of trees so far assured exceeds the estimate of the committee that they believed could be secured. Two residents have asked for two maple trees to be planted in the name of a relative who recently passed away. F. Corning Kenly directs that three trees be planted in the names of Farwell Kenly, Corning Kenly Jr., and Granger Farwell Kenly. John C. Mann is going to have trees for Margaret Mary Mann and Janet Irene Mann, his small daughters. Dick Besse of Algoma, Oregon asked W. H. Gore, chairman of the committee on tree planting, to see that one tree is planted in the name of O. F. Strinson and one for Dick Besse. J. W. Wakefield requests that trees be planted in the name of Charles Wakefield and Hester Wakefield. Mrs. Gladys Losey of Folsom City, Calif., sent in a request that a tree be planted in the memory of Private Raymond M. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ward and brother of Mrs. Gladys Losey, Mrs. Hattie McElroy and Mrs. B. Buckley. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Ackley of Portland will have a tree planted in their name. Mrs. Iva Frederick asks to have a tree named after her deceased brother, Private Henry Ackley of Co. C, 128th Infantry. J. H. Mulhollen and Mrs. Elizabeth Mulhollen are having a tree planted for Medford Post No. 15, American Legion and one for the Woman's Auxiliary of the Medford post, American Legion. A total of 225 trees have been secured during the "Buy a Tree" campaign for the county fair grounds.

Stage and Screen

Wesley Barry at Rialto Wesley Barry is generally conceded to be the greatest juvenile actor in the history of the screen, and plays the part of "Freckles" in "Stranger Than Fiction," Miss MacDonald's starring vehicle through Associated First National Pictures, Inc., now playing at the Rialto theatre. Appearing in "Daddy Long Legs," and "The Unpardonable Sin," he attracted such attention that in Marshall Neilan's "Don't Ever Marry," and "Go and Get It" he was given important parts. He became a star in his own right in "Dinky." Mr. Neilan loaned him to the Katherine MacDonald company for the part in "Stranger Than Fiction." Wesley halls from Los Angeles.

At the Page Sol Smith Russell made "Peaceful Valley" one of the stage's greatest and most memorable successes and now it acquires Charlie Hay is more than duplicating the stunt with the same story on the screen. The latest Hay film closes tonight at the Page theatre.

Ducks and Drakes "Ducks and Drakes," the newest Hebe Daniels' comedy-drama which opens at the Page theatre for two days beginning tomorrow is the product of a craftsman long skilled in the art of extracting bountiful laughs from a tired public. Elmer Harris, author of "Ducks and Drakes," was, with Oliver Morosco, author of "So Long Letty," "Pretty Mrs. Smith," two of the most popular comedies of recent years.

"Ducks and Drakes" is distinctive among the Harris plays because it is the first of his offerings which will be first seen on the screen before being given a stage production.
