

N. Y. NEWSPAPERS CUT TO 8 PAGES BY PRESS STRIKE

NEW YORK, March 1.—The controversy between the publishers of the daily newspapers of New York City and the Web Pressmen's union over the arbitration award of Federal Judge Martin T. Manton was ended today. Don C. Seitz, manager of the New York World announced after a publishers' meeting this morning.

All afternoon papers which had omitted their first editions would appear in full size at 11 a. m., Mr. Seitz said.

Morning papers had appeared in abbreviated form with most of the advertising omitted.

The difficulty was terminated when the pressmen's union transmitted a letter to the publishers announcing the union had voted to abide by the decision of Judge Manton and return to work but would require the publishers to grant a conference within the next few days to discuss modification of some of the terms of the award.

The publishers accepted the pressmen's proposal to return to work and agreed to meet a union committee Friday.

Although the union had voted at 2:30 this morning to return to work, publishers of afternoon newspapers under an agreement did not permit them to go back to the press rooms until 11 o'clock. Early editions were omitted. Full publication was resumed at 11 o'clock.

AGGIES CLAIM CHAMPIONSHIP IN BASKETBALL

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 1.—The basketball championship of the Pacific coast conference, has been officially claimed by Oregon Agricultural college Coach Richard Rutherford announced here today. The University of Idaho, the other claimant to coast honors, was not in the conference when the schedule was made up, declared Rutherford. The Aggies' record comprises ten victories and two defeats.

"Idaho's and the Aggies' comparative scores are all at odds. We defeated Washington State, in one instance by a large margin, while Idaho succeeded in winning from them by only two points. It is conceded that Idaho has not played any of the leading teams of the conference off its own home floor, which is of peculiar design, and that for this reason its record is as high as it is."

Of the six games played to date by Idaho, Rutherford said, only two have been with leading coast teams.

EXPECT DECISION ON B. BALL FLOOR TOAY

Superintendent J. W. Mishler of Grants Pass, who is secretary of the Oregon High School Athletic association, and a member of the state board of control was in Medford yesterday. He, with Superintendent Smith of the local schools, made a trip to Ashland. Superintendent Mishler went to investigate the basketball floors now in controversy there. He will act as referee in the protest filed by the Medford high school against the Ashland high school floor.

Medford insists that the armory floor should be used because of the obstructions on and near the high school floor.

A decision in writing from Superintendent Mishler is expected today.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Feb. 27.—Wrestlers of the University of Washington were defeated by the Oregon Agricultural college team 26 to 8 Saturday night.

LANDIS SPENDS A HECTIC DAY AS PRIVATE CITIZEN

CHICAGO, Mar. 1.—Kenesaw Mountain Landis today put in what he declared was the busiest day in his life. Retired as a federal judge after 17 years of service, he reached his office as baseball commissioner at 8:30 a. m. and spent the day signing baseball orders, dictating letters and telegrams, shaking hands with scores of callers, consulting time tables for a trip south and posing for photographers and a portrait painter.

"I thought I would find a nice, harmonious office where I could get in some real ticks," the ex-judge told newspaper men.

"But, soon as I got there I found one of these painting chaps who said he came 1000 miles because he wanted to make my portrait. Then 3000 photographers and 12,000 reporters appeared asking how I liked being a private citizen. I may be a citizen but they're sure off on that private part."

On his lap the former jurist held a writing portfolio on which he signed letters, orders and telegrams, while the artist vainly tried to get him to keep still.

After an hour or two, Mr. Landis told the artist he "had enough for one day."

"Put out the standing room only sign, Mr. O'Connor," he said to his secretary.

Mrs. William N. Vilas Madison, Wis., Dead

MADISON, Wis., Mar. 1.—Mrs. William N. Vilas, widow of the former postmaster general, Colonel Vilas, died at her home here last night following a long illness. Her husband was a national democratic leader for years.

Mack Succeeds Landis.

CHICAGO, Mar. 1.—Federal Judge Julian W. Mack of New York was selected today by Judge George A. Carpenter senior federal judge of the northern district United States court to serve the unexpired term of Judge K. M. Landis, whose resignation became effective today.

Judge Mack will serve until such time as President Harding may appoint a successor.

LOVING CUP GIVEN

a few words. She spoke of the climate which we are now enjoying and of the brilliant sunshine and found only one fault with our city during her short speech. She seems to be of the opinion, as are many others, that Medford needs a "new fire engine or something." Miss Lovely was a spectator at the fire this forenoon which destroyed the J. J. McPherson house occupied by Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Donovan and family, and in her speech she stated that it took half an hour for the fire company to get the hose unrolled and turn water on the blaze.

The feature of the meeting was the appearance of the Craters club which sang as a body a number of snappy songs. A quartet, Larry Mann, Paul McDonald, Ernie Peck and Bill Vawter rendered "Ma" in a manner which brought down the house and warranted the demand for an encore.

H. L. Walther and H. B. Rankin were recognized as members of the "Two Toots," each having secured two new members. Mr. Walther was formally initiated, blowing the specified two toots on the tin horn provided for initiations. Mr. Rankin was not to be found and it is expected that he will be initiated at the next forum luncheon. Dr. Rickert was named as successor to the place of Mr. Walther on the membership committee.

All in all the one-hundredth consecutive forum meeting was extremely successful and enthusiastic. Secretary Frohbach reported that 276 people were present and that this is a record attendance for any chamber of commerce meeting in this city since the reorganization of the chamber. It is also considered a record in itself that the Medford chamber has held 100 consecutive forum meetings and it is believed that the local chamber surpasses all other chambers in the state in this respect excepting possibly the Portland chamber.

The Craters terminated the program by singing a verse of "O Medford, You Medford."

PURDIN GETS 6 YEARS IN PEN

PORTLAND, Ore., Mar. 1.—Charles Wesley Purdin, convicted of manslaughter for killing his divorced wife, was sentenced in circuit court today to serve an indeterminate term in the state prison not exceeding six years. He also was fined $500.

A second indictment charging Purdin with killing Howard Sigaby, whom he found in his wife's home December 9, the night Mrs. Purdin was killed, will stand.
