

News of Jackson County

THOMPSON CREEK

Al Leonard and son Ed, Mrs. A. H. Soderer, and George Kendall motored to Medford on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Soderer returned to her home at Santa Cruz, Cal., after a few days visit at the home of her uncle, Al Leonard.

Marion Bingham went to Applegate on day last week.

Mrs. Fred Ruch visited Mrs. Will Jordan on Wednesday of last week.

The snow is practically all gone and we get occasional showers of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lofland and children, all of Williams, and Mr. Norris visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knutzen on Monday evening of last week.

Several of the Thompson Creek people met at the Leonard home on Monday evening of last week as a surprise to Ed Leonard who had recently returned from a visit to relatives in California. While gone he visited San Francisco, San Jose, Santa Cruz, Monterey, Pacific Grove, Carmel, and reports an enjoyable time.

Mrs. F. F. Grove called on Mrs. Anderson Mee on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. Norris came out from Steamboat on Thursday of last week and we understand is going to move his band of sheep from the Warren Mee place to Ed Brown's where they expect to feed them for a month yet before taking them to Steamboat.

Mrs. W. Crain visited her daughter, Mrs. Billy Kinsman one afternoon last week.

Frank Knutzen went to Medford on Monday of last week.

APPLEGATE

More than half of the pupils of the Applegate school have been absent this week on account of sickness.

Leon Offenbacher left last Tuesday for Roseburg, where he has work. Leon's genial countenance will be missed.

Mrs. Louise Culp returned to Applegate last week after visiting friends in Medford.

Walter Miller made a business trip to Medford Monday.

Mr. Clute who has been in Grants Pass for more than two months, having an eye treated, returned home Monday. Mr. Clute finally had to have one eye removed since which time he has improved rapidly.

Johnny Rhelkoft, a former resident of Applegate, died at his home in Grants Pass last Thursday. He was buried Sunday at the Missouri Flat cemetery.

The A. V. H. S. were disappointed in not being able to play this game for it would necessitate extending the basketball season to the last of March or the first of April. We do not know when our girls will be able to play again, as only one of the team is able to be in school today.

The Applegate valley is enjoying the sunshine of the past few days. The grass is beginning to grow and the fields are turning green notwithstanding the cold nights.

EVANS VALLEY

The Mays creek school had perfect attendance for the month of February.

The new Victrola purchased by Mrs. Carls and the pupils of the Mays creek school arrived one day this week; they also have purchased some new playground equipment.

J. L. Johnson, salesman for the Koch Drug and Medicine Co., was selling goods on Evans creek and Pleasant creek Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

R. E. Richman was transacting business in Grants Pass last Monday.

Frank Woodbridge of Missouri Flat was calling on friends in this locality Tuesday.

W. L. Nesler of Medford, was a business visitor in this locality Thursday.

George Obenchain of Central Point is stopping at Mr. Philip's place for a few days this week.

Mrs. Agnes Skelton has sold her farm on Mays creek to Mr. Hutch, who will remodel it into an up-to-date poultry farm.

Dr. Loughbridge was in this locality one day this week, in attendance upon Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Moore and Mr. Baker and children, who have been quite sick with the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carls were Grants Pass visitors from here last Saturday.

Sherman Estell is carrying the mail this week as Mr. Martin is taking his vacation.

School began again at the Bybee Springs school last Monday with Miss Johnson of Gold Hill in charge.

Glen Woodbridge of Foothills creek is spending a few days at R. E. Richman's this week.

Miss Grace Carter, who is attending high school at Grants Pass is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Carter this week.

Miss Bertha Borrell who has been attending school at the O. A. C., is visiting at the home of her cousin, Mrs. R. E. Richman.

R. E. Richman drove out a bunch of beef cattle Thursday.

Mrs. George Crawford of Hugo, visited at Bybee Springs one day last week and attended the school meeting while here.

Dr. Chisholm was called quite suddenly to the home of his sister who is seriously ill. This is the doctor's first trip to Grants Pass in thirty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Muna, former residents of Gold Hill and now located at Myrtle Creek, were visiting friends in Gold Hill Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Smith were Gold Hill visitors Sunday. They are located in Medford, where Mr. Smith is employed by the California-Oregon Power company.

Quite a number of ladies attended the meeting at the domestic science room at the school house Saturday, where Miss Pool demonstrated sewing and other useful things. Miss Pool will be in Gold Hill on March 31st.

Mrs. Geo. Garrett and daughter Edna are quite sick at present. Dr.

Loughbridge was called one day last week, as Dr. Chisholm is in Canada at present. Mr. Garrett is also on the sick list.

Mrs. Alva Walker is able to be up once more after being confined in bed for the past week.

One of the men employed at the cement quarry had the misfortune to break one leg and dislocate some bones in the other leg, when he became frightened by some rocks sliding and jumped over the cliff, a distance of 18 feet. He was taken to a doctor as soon as possible.

Mrs. Hugh Hayes is confined to her bed with a severe case of la grippe.

Robert Adams had the misfortune a short time back to cut one toe off while splitting wood.

Mrs. Thompson who has been quite sick for some time is not improving very fast. Miss Turner is still nursing her and it is hoped she will start improving soon.

Arthur Mullen who has been stationed at Powers, Ore., in the depot, is again at his old place in the freight depot at Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ettinger have moved from the Parker residence to the house just vacated by Mr. Abbetta.

Mrs. A. Scherman spent several days the past week in Gold Hill.

TRAIL ITEMS

The school program was a splendid success and was greatly enjoyed by all present. There was not a very large crowd on account of so much sickness in the neighborhood, but the program was fine, and also the pictures shown by Miss Burr, our supervisor, were splendid and we all enjoyed and appreciated her part very much.

Mrs. H. L. Ash and little daughter Betty of Elk creek, spent a few days visiting at Trail this week.

Mrs. Ash is improving rapidly and hopes soon to be able to attend to household duties again.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hutchison were Medford visitors Tuesday, and little Elford visited with the Middlebushes during their absence.

We are glad to say our mail carrier, Mr. Peterson, is on the gain, and expects to be able to carry the mail again in a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blaes of Medford were Sunday guests at the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Zimmerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Middlebush spent the week end with relatives at Trail.

Lowell Ash visited at the Cushman home a few days this week.

Lewis Bines is hauling hay these days.

W. E. Hammel, Fred Pettigrew, Mike Hyenburger were among the business callers Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Marshall and two children of Brownboro came in on the Lake creek stage on her way out on the Crater Lake highway to visit some of her husband's relations, Saturday.

Professor Chester L. Ward returned from Portland Saturday and went directly on up to Butte Falls to take charge of his school Monday morning.

He was intending to remain here and take part in the Teacher's conference, but owing to the lack of means of transportation from here to Butte Falls or from Butte Falls here and other reasons, he concluded to go on via the stage that only makes one trip each day and then leaves here about ten o'clock in the forenoon, except Sunday, and leaves there in the early morning and the two mail carriers meet at Derby and exchange mail and passengers, so he wrote a letter to "Home" reading by the San Gordon. They came in to attend the dance Saturday evening, and report that there was a very good time and good behavior.

Ed Gomez, who is working on the P. & E. railroad, came in Monday morning from Medford where he had been to look after a law suit he has in the divorce court.

J. W. Bertram, the superintendent of the fish hatchery business in this section, was also a business caller Monday, and so was Mrs. Susan Hart, Mrs. Fellows of Trail came out on the Eagle Point-Medford stage on her way home and when she reached here found that all the room on the Eagle Point, Trail, Peaslee stage was engaged, as Miss Francis Greh, who is teaching the Peaslee school, had already engaged a seat, but as Mrs. Susan Hart only wanted to go out home, about two miles, she made arrangements with Mr. John Greh to take her out and by that arrangement Mrs. Fellows secured a seat and went home, Mrs. Phillips of Trail was also a passenger on the Trail stage.

John Nichols and wife of this place who have been spending the winter with their son, Artie, and family, near Ft. Klamath, came in last Saturday, and reports that they have had a very pleasant winter, especially for that section.

Mr. J. Walter, who has been spending the winter on Reese Creek, was a business caller Monday.

Robert Harnish and J. O. Patrick were here for dinner and so was Charley Brown, salesman for C. E. Gates, Fordson, G. W. Hadyson of Central Point; Pearl Stoddert, Charles Feller, H. L. Wright, Buster Matthews, Geo. Albert and J. H. George of S. Francisco were also here.

Carl Norris, one of our progressive youths, has installed a shoe polishing parlor in a part of the Earnest barber shop, although he does not keep open all the time, only on Saturday nights, he seems to be doing quite well.

CHILDREN'S COLDS should not be "dosed." Treat them externally with—

VICKS

VAPOR

Over 17 Million Jan Used Vics

The reader will bear in mind that

Leon Phillips met with a serious accident at the school Thursday afternoon, while playing in the swing, received a serious cut on his head. She was taken to the Butte Falls hospital at Medford for surgical help.

Bruce and Bobbie McMahon are reported ill with pneumonia at their home in our city.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Morison

W. E. Hammel, Fred Pettigrew, Mike Hyenburger were among the business callers Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Marshall and two children of Brownboro came in on the Lake creek stage on her way out on the Crater Lake highway to visit some of her husband's relations, Saturday.

Professor Chester L. Ward returned from Portland Saturday and went directly on up to Butte Falls to take charge of his school Monday morning.

He was intending to remain here and take part in the Teacher's conference, but owing to the lack of means of transportation from here to Butte Falls or from Butte Falls here and other reasons, he concluded to go on via the stage that only makes one trip each day and then leaves here about ten o'clock in the forenoon, except Sunday, and leaves there in the early morning and the two mail carriers meet at Derby and exchange mail and passengers, so he wrote a letter to "Home" reading by the San Gordon. They came in to attend the dance Saturday evening, and report that there was a very good time and good behavior.

Ed Gomez, who is working on the P. & E. railroad, came in Monday morning from Medford where he had been to look after a law suit he has in the divorce court.

J. W. Bertram, the superintendent of the fish hatchery business in this section, was also a business caller Monday, and so was Mrs. Susan Hart, Mrs. Fellows of Trail came out on the Eagle Point-Medford stage on her way home and when she reached here found that all the room on the Eagle Point, Trail, Peaslee stage was engaged, as Miss Francis Greh, who is teaching the Peaslee school, had already engaged a seat, but as Mrs. Susan Hart only wanted to go out home, about two miles, she made arrangements with Mr. John Greh to take her out and by that arrangement Mrs. Fellows secured a seat and went home, Mrs. Phillips of Trail was also a passenger on the Trail stage.

John Nichols and wife of this place who have been spending the winter with their son, Artie, and family, near Ft. Klamath, came in last Saturday, and reports that they have had a very pleasant winter, especially for that section.

Mr. J. Walter, who has been spending the winter on Reese Creek, was a business caller Monday.

Robert Harnish and J. O. Patrick were here for dinner and so was Charley Brown, salesman for C. E. Gates, Fordson, G. W. Hadyson of Central Point; Pearl Stoddert, Charles Feller, H. L. Wright, Buster Matthews, Geo. Albert and J. H. George of S. Francisco were also here.

Carl Norris, one of our progressive youths, has installed a shoe polishing parlor in a part of the Earnest barber shop, although he does not keep open all the time, only on Saturday nights, he seems to be doing quite well.

CHILDREN'S COLDS should not be "dosed." Treat them externally with—

VICKS

VAPOR

Over 17 Million Jan Used Vics

The reader will bear in mind that

Leon Phillips met with a serious accident at the school Thursday afternoon, while playing in the swing, received a serious cut on his head. She was taken to the Butte Falls hospital at Medford for surgical help.

Bruce and Bobbie McMahon are reported ill with pneumonia at their home in our city.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Morison

W. E. Hammel, Fred Pettigrew, Mike Hyenburger were among the business callers Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Marshall and two children of Brownboro came in on the Lake creek stage on her way out on the Crater Lake highway to visit some of her husband's relations, Saturday.

Professor Chester L. Ward returned from Portland Saturday and went directly on up to Butte Falls to take charge of his school Monday morning.

He was intending to remain here and take part in the Teacher's conference, but owing to the lack of means of transportation from here to Butte Falls or from Butte Falls here and other reasons, he concluded to go on via the stage that only makes one trip each day and then leaves here about ten o'clock in the forenoon, except Sunday, and leaves there in the early morning and the two mail carriers meet at Derby and exchange mail and passengers, so he wrote a letter to "Home" reading by the San Gordon. They came in to attend the dance Saturday evening, and report that there was a very good time and good behavior.

Ed Gomez, who is working on the P. & E. railroad, came in Monday morning from Medford where he had been to look after a law suit he has in the divorce court.

J. W. Bertram, the superintendent of the fish hatchery business in this section, was also a business caller Monday, and so was Mrs. Susan Hart, Mrs. Fellows of Trail came out on the Eagle Point-Medford stage on her way home and when she reached here found that all the room on the Eagle Point, Trail, Peaslee stage was engaged, as Miss Francis Greh, who is teaching the Peaslee school, had already engaged a seat, but as Mrs. Susan Hart only wanted to go out home, about two miles, she made arrangements with Mr. John Greh to take her out and by that arrangement Mrs. Fellows secured a seat and went home, Mrs. Phillips of Trail was also a passenger on the Trail stage.

John Nichols and wife of this place who have been spending the winter with their son, Artie, and family, near Ft. Klamath, came in last Saturday, and reports that they have had a very pleasant winter, especially for that section.

Mr. J. Walter, who has been spending the winter on Reese Creek, was a business caller Monday.

Robert Harnish and J. O. Patrick were here for dinner and so was Charley Brown, salesman for C. E. Gates, Fordson, G. W. Hadyson of Central Point; Pearl Stoddert, Charles Feller, H. L. Wright, Buster Matthews, Geo. Albert and J. H. George of S. Francisco were also here.

Carl Norris, one of our progressive youths, has installed a shoe polishing parlor in a part of the Earnest barber shop, although he does not keep open all the time, only on Saturday nights, he seems to be doing quite well.

CHILDREN'S COLDS should not be "dosed." Treat them externally with—

VICKS

VAPOR

Over 17 Million Jan Used Vics

The reader will bear in mind that

Leon Phillips met with a serious accident at the school Thursday afternoon, while playing in the swing, received a serious cut on his head. She was taken to the Butte Falls hospital at Medford for surgical help.

Bruce and Bobbie McMahon are reported ill with pneumonia at their home in our city.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Morison

W. E. Hammel, Fred Pettigrew, Mike Hyenburger were among the business callers Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Marshall and two children of Brownboro came in on the Lake creek stage on her way out on the Crater Lake highway to visit some of her husband's relations, Saturday.

Professor Chester L. Ward returned from Portland Saturday and went directly on up to Butte Falls to take charge of his school Monday morning.

He was intending to remain here and take part in the Teacher's conference, but owing to the lack of means of transportation from here to Butte Falls or from Butte Falls here and other reasons, he concluded to go on via the stage that only makes one trip each day and then leaves here about ten o'clock in the forenoon, except Sunday, and leaves there in the early morning and the two mail carriers meet at Derby and exchange mail and passengers, so he wrote a letter to "Home" reading by the San Gordon. They came in to attend the dance Saturday evening, and report that there was a very good time and good behavior.

Ed Gomez, who is working on the P. & E. railroad, came in Monday morning from Medford where he had been to look after a law suit he has in the divorce court.

J. W. Bertram, the superintendent of the fish hatchery business in this section, was also a business caller Monday, and so was Mrs. Susan Hart, Mrs. Fellows of Trail came out on the Eagle Point-Medford stage on her way home and when she reached here found that all the room on the Eagle Point, Trail, Peaslee stage was engaged, as Miss Francis Greh, who is teaching the Peaslee school, had already engaged a seat, but as Mrs. Susan Hart only wanted to go out home, about two miles, she made arrangements with Mr. John Greh to take her out and by that arrangement Mrs. Fellows secured a seat and went home, Mrs. Phillips of Trail was also a passenger on the Trail stage.

John Nichols and wife of this place who have been spending the winter with their son, Artie, and family, near Ft. Klamath, came in last Saturday, and reports that they have had a very pleasant winter, especially for that section.

Mr. J. Walter, who has been spending the winter on Reese Creek, was a business caller Monday.

Robert Harnish and J. O. Patrick were here for dinner and so was Charley Brown, salesman for C. E. Gates, Fordson, G. W. Hadyson of Central Point; Pearl Stoddert, Charles Feller, H. L. Wright, Buster Matthews, Geo. Albert and J. H. George of S. Francisco were also here.

Carl Norris, one of our progressive youths, has installed a shoe polishing parlor in a part of the Earnest barber shop, although he does not keep open all the time, only on Saturday nights, he seems to be doing quite well.

CHILDREN'S COLDS should not be "dosed." Treat them externally with—

VICKS

VAPOR

Over 17 Million Jan Used Vics

The reader will bear in mind that

Leon Phillips met with a serious accident at the school Thursday afternoon, while playing in the swing, received a serious cut on his head. She was taken to the Butte Falls hospital at Medford for surgical help.

Bruce and Bobbie McMahon are reported ill with pneumonia at their home in our city.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Morison

W. E. Hammel, Fred Pettigrew, Mike Hyenburger were among the business callers Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Marshall and two children of Brownboro came in on the Lake creek stage on her way out on the Crater Lake highway to visit some of her husband's relations, Saturday.

Professor Chester L. Ward returned from Portland Saturday and went directly on up to Butte Falls to take charge of his school Monday morning.

He was intending to remain here and take part in the Teacher's conference, but owing to the lack of means of transportation from here to Butte Falls or from Butte Falls here and other reasons, he concluded to go on via the stage that only makes one trip each day and then leaves here about ten o'clock in the forenoon, except Sunday, and leaves there in the early morning and the two mail carriers meet at Derby and exchange mail and passengers, so he wrote a letter to "Home" reading by the San Gordon. They came in to attend the dance Saturday evening, and report that there was a very good time and good behavior.

Ed Gomez, who is working on the P. & E. railroad, came in Monday morning from Medford where he had been to look after a law suit he has in the divorce court.

J. W. Bertram, the superintendent of the fish hatchery business in this section, was also a business caller Monday, and so was Mrs. Susan Hart, Mrs. Fellows of Trail came out on the Eagle Point-Medford stage on her way home and when she reached here found that all the room on the Eagle Point, Trail, Peaslee stage was engaged, as Miss Francis Greh, who is teaching the Peaslee school, had already engaged a seat, but as Mrs. Susan Hart only wanted to go out home, about two miles, she made arrangements with Mr. John Greh to take her out and by that arrangement Mrs. Fellows secured a seat and went home, Mrs. Phillips of Trail was also a passenger on the Trail stage.

John Nichols and wife of this place who have been spending the winter with their son, Artie, and family, near Ft. Klamath, came in last Saturday, and reports that they have had a very pleasant winter, especially for that section.

Mr. J. Walter, who has been spending the winter on Reese Creek, was a business caller Monday.

Robert Harnish and J. O. Patrick were here for dinner and so was Charley Brown, salesman for C. E. Gates, Fordson, G. W. Hadyson of Central Point; Pearl Stoddert, Charles Feller, H. L. Wright, Buster Matthews, Geo. Albert and J. H. George of S. Francisco were also here.

Carl Norris, one of our progressive youths, has installed a shoe polishing parlor in a part of the Earnest barber shop, although he does not keep open all the time, only on Saturday nights, he seems to be doing quite well.

CHILDREN'S COLDS should not be "dosed." Treat them externally with—

VICKS

VAPOR

Over 17 Million Jan Used Vics

The reader will bear in mind that

Leon Phillips met with a serious accident at the school Thursday afternoon, while playing in the swing, received a serious cut on his head. She was taken to the Butte Falls hospital at Medford for surgical help.

Bruce and Bobbie McMahon are reported ill with pneumonia at their home in our city.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Morison

W. E. Hammel, Fred Pettigrew, Mike Hyenburger were among the business callers Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Marshall and two children of Brownboro came in on the Lake creek stage on her way out on the Crater Lake highway to visit some of her husband's relations, Saturday.

Professor Chester L. Ward returned from Portland Saturday and went directly on up to Butte Falls to take charge of his school Monday morning.

He was intending to remain here and take part in the Teacher's conference, but owing to the lack of means of transportation from here to Butte Falls or from Butte Falls here and other reasons, he concluded to go on via the stage that only makes one trip each day and then leaves here about ten o'clock in the forenoon, except Sunday, and leaves there in the early morning and the two mail carriers meet at Derby and exchange mail and passengers, so he wrote a letter to "Home" reading by the San Gordon. They came in to attend the dance Saturday evening, and report that there was a very good time and good behavior.

Ed Gomez, who is working on the P. & E. railroad, came in Monday morning from Medford where he had been to look after a law suit he has in the divorce court.

J. W. Bertram, the superintendent of the fish hatchery business in this section, was also a business caller Monday, and so was Mrs. Susan Hart, Mrs. Fellows of Trail came out on the Eagle Point-Medford stage on her way home and when she reached here found that all the room on the Eagle Point, Trail, Peaslee stage was engaged, as Miss Francis Greh, who is teaching the Peaslee school, had already engaged a seat, but as Mrs. Susan Hart only wanted to go out home, about two miles, she made arrangements with Mr. John Greh to take her out and by that arrangement Mrs. Fellows secured a seat and went home, Mrs. Phillips of Trail was also a passenger on the Trail stage.

John Nichols and wife of this place who have been spending the winter with their son, Artie, and family, near Ft. Klamath, came in last Saturday, and reports that they have had a very pleasant winter, especially for that section.

Mr. J. Walter, who has been spending the winter on Reese Creek, was a business caller Monday.

Robert Harnish and J. O. Patrick were here for dinner and so was Charley Brown, salesman for C. E. Gates, Fordson, G. W. Hadyson of Central Point; Pearl Stoddert, Charles Feller, H. L. Wright, Buster Matthews, Geo. Albert and J. H. George of S. Francisco were also here.

Carl Norris, one of our progressive youths, has installed a shoe polishing parlor in a part of the Earnest barber shop, although he does not keep open all the time, only on Saturday nights, he seems to be doing quite well.

CHILDREN'S COLDS should not be "dosed." Treat them externally with—

VICKS

VAPOR