By George McManus

KU KLUX ATTEND CALIF. FUNERAL

OAKLAND, Mar. 11.—The police are investigating today the presence of eight men arrayed in the garb of the Ku Klux Klan at the funeral here yesterday of George Brown, a retired fireman of Alameda.

The undertaker had been notified by telephone that the Klan would be represented and asked if he had any objection. He said he had none if the proper respect were shown the dead.

N. Y. Stocks

NEW YORK, Mar. 11.—Stocks moved forward again today after early hesitation by heaviness of local utilities. Motors and related specialties notably the rubber group, were most active at one to three point gains.

American Telephone was among the representative issues which made a new high price for the current movement. Oils were comparatively dull and there was little demand for high grade rails, but that group was firm to strong.

"So" was the only exception, reacting over one point to adverse dividend action. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 450,000 shares.
