Ye Smudge Pot By Arthur Perry.

The latest candidate for governor has announced his platform, on which he stands flatfootedly for the abolishment of everything but himself.

Cannibalistic traits in taxes are showing up again, many people complaining they are being eaten up by the same. As one downtrodden taxpayer said when he bought a $25 fishing reel: "Ain't taxes hell!"

The Eme Mohr kids have begun to act like Ireland again, and if they don't cut out the civil war will have to get up before breakfast.

Egypt has her freedom. Egypt is the father of the world's worst cigarette, and the mother of the muscle dance, always executed by plump ladies called Fatima.

James Middleton Cox, who has the honor of being the worst beaten candidate who ever stuck his nose into a presidential race, is going to tour the country for the democratic party, and with the assistance of the Portland Journal ought to be able to give it another good kicking. Mr. Cox has a hide like unto a bloodsweating hippopotamus, and more gull than Fatose Arigokele.

Owing to his razor skidding, the C. Chaplin mustache belonging to Geo. T. Collins has been obliterated.

The U.S. census report shows there are 21,098 reform organizations at it. If there were any more they could start in on themselves.

Women are smoking cigarettes like the men, and scratching matches on the bottom of their shoes.

T. Bill Isaacs is going to Portland to hear grand opera, and it looks like the valley never would get a bass solo it can make out hereafter.

A BACKHANDED WALLOP (Klamath Record) F. H. Downing, who has been "under the weather" since a Christmas vacation in southern California, is able to be around again.

Another cheap car is going to be put on the market. Then it will be every man for himself, and two cyclone cellars to the block.

Otto Wables is on the sick list—(Klamath Herald). Living up to his name.

The new curfew law is being observed to the letter—on Main street.

THE VACANT CRADE (Salem Statesman) LOVING LITTLE GIRLIE, JUST 16—Worth $60,000, will marry. Club, Box 55, Oxford, Fla.

The allies were astounded at the audacity of America in asking for expenses in keeping soldiers on the Rhine—a bill of $241,000,000. It was thought this account was settled last June with a speech on LaFayette.

Mica Womack floundered a rod from port Sat. and proceeded after a wheelbarrow load of mines had been discharged from his hip pocket.

The peace treaties are all right, with the exception that they were typewritten by a blonde stenog with bobbed hair, and the president did not nod all over Europe before springing them.

YAPPING WHILE THE WORLD BURNS.

PAT HARRISON hates Henry Cabot Lodge. That's the real reason for his fight on the Four Power treaty,—that and his obligation, as Democratic leader to fight anything with a Republican label.

If the Massachusetts senator could be eliminated from the treaty situation, the pact would be signed tomorrow. The senators who are fighting the treaty from motives of sincere conviction, can be counted on the fingers of one hand. The real fight is on Lodge, just as the real fight against the League of Nations was on Wilson.

"Getting even," that is the determining motive behind the opposition to the Four Power pact. It's merely a continuation of the old Wilson-Lodge feud.

According to "the Mirrors of Washington," Mr. Wilson would have agreed to the senate reservations, and the League of Nations pact would have probably been ratified if he hadn't suffered from the Lodge complex. Lodge would have accepted the reservation program if he could have forgotten Wilson!

The situation merely brings into sharp relief, the political bankruptcy of congress. Statesmanship has gone. Personal spite and partisan politics alone remain. No one thinks of what is good for the country, everyone is thinking of what is good political material or good for the payment of a personal grudge.

It is inconceivable that such tactics can win, that such flippant and childish folly, can be carried to the point of actually defeating one of the finest conceptions of American statesmanship in the country's history. "National Calamity" is a mild term. If the United States program should be destroyed, not only will American Democracy be made the laughing stock of all Christendom, but hopes for human betterment in this generation will be scattered wantonly to the four winds.

The only crime wave that shocks a rural community is when a fresh young thing waves at a married man.

Democracy has its little faults, but back in the good old days, "Darn the king" was a jail sentence.

There may be another war, however and the rising generation should be trained in the art of saluting.

For the good of the community, it might be a good idea to fumigate some of the divorce suits before they are pressed.

This covers a distance of 8.7 miles. From Trail to Prospect, the state highway commission and the forestry service will each spend this year $150,000 for the building of bridges and grading. This is a distance of 32 miles.

Entertained representatives of the Klamath Falls chamber of commerce and members of the Medford chamber of commerce were entertained by them at Klamath Falls. Tennis tournaments were held at each place.

Cooperated in the organization of the consolidated chamber of commerce of southern Oregon.

This display has been maintained for the past four months and is still attracting a great deal of attention. This exposition cost the chamber of commerce $36.59, although premiums approximating a value of $600 were offered by banks and merchants of Gold Hill, Central Point, Ashland and Medford to make the Pear show and Apple exposition possible.

FIRST MATE OF LURLING GIVES OUT THE FACTS

He Feels as Strong and Active as a Boy and Hasn't a Trace of Rheumatism or Stomach Trouble Left, Declares Meyers.

"I would be an unreasonable man not to be satisfied with all that Tanlac has done for me," said Fred Meyers, popular first mate of the Steamer Lurling, Alder St. Dock, Portland, Ore.

"For four or five years my stomach was all out of order and I suffered terribly from rheumatism. Nobody but myself will ever know the misery I went through in that time. I couldn't eat without suffering the greatest distress, my back hurt me so that it was agony for me to bend over and straighten up again, and I was so nervous and restless I couldn't get the sleep I needed.

"I have a splendid appetite now and my stomach feels just like a new one. I am as strong and active as a boy again and it is only right that I should give the credit to Tanlac, for it certainly did the work for me."

Tanlac and Tanlac Vegetable Pills are sold by the West Side Pharmacy, and by leading druggists everywhere. ADV.
