THE WHEREAS AND WHEREAT OF THE WHEREWITH Coos Bay Times

Whereas my wife Nellie Whereat and myself are living separate and apart, under a written contract and agreement, and I am paying to her each month a sum of money agreed to be sufficient for her support and maintenance.

Dated this 5th day of March, 1922. L. A. WHEREAT.

The announcement is made that the nation has "officially" recovered from the Great War mentally, but a number of communities never will get over their last revival.

No candidate for governor has come out for the development of the natural resources of Oregon by forces other than waiting for the Lord to do it. Neither has a public spirited candidate declared for the gagging of a foolish legislature, that at the first sign of capital coming in, passes nice bills to keep it out.

(Mound, Ill., Star) "Little girl you look so small, Don't you wear no clothes at all? Don't you wear no shimmy shirt? Don't you wear no petty skirt? Just your corset and your hose, Are those all your underclothes? Little girl you look so slight, When I see you in the light With your skirts cut rather high Won't you catch a cold and die? Ain't you 'fraid to show your calf? It must make the fellows laugh; Little girl, what is the cause? Why your clothes are made of gauze? Don't you wear no undervest When you go out fully dressed? Do you like those peek-a-boos 'Steal of normal underclothes? Little girl, your 'spenders show When the daylight shines on you; I can see your flimsy flesh Through your thinnest gowns of mesh; Is it modest, do you 'spose Not to wear no underclothes? Little girl, I see your chest— Yes, I see way past your throat To a region most remote; Tain't my fault now, don't suppose, Why not wear some underclothes? Little girl, your socks have shoats Or those tiny little holes; Why you want to show your limb I don't know—is it a whim? Do you want to catch the eye Of each fellow passing by? Little girl, where is the charm In your long uncovered arm? In the V behind your neck Is it for the birds to peck? Little girl, I tell you these Ain't so nice as underclothes. Little girl, now listen here, You would be just twice as dear If you'd cover up your charms, Neck, back, legs and both your arms. I would take you to some shows If you'd wear some underclothes. Little girl, your modesty Is what makes us fellows keen To possess a little queen; But no lover—goodness knows— Wants a girl 'saw' underclothes. Suppose I wore some harem pants Or a skirt like all my aunts, Or a ringle through my nose, They'd arrest me, don't you 'spose If I wear a coat of mail, Clothed from head to big toe nail; I might cover up my toe Even when the weather's warm."

BIG BILL HAYWOOD ARRIVES AT LAST.

THE best thing Big Bill Haywood ever did for his country was to leave it. Now he is adding to his beneficent service by calling over a ship load of fellow I. W. W.'s to help him run the Nadejdinsky Iron works, about 1500 miles east of Moscow.

We hope he succeeds. For the more I. W. W.'s he takes from the United States the better for this country and the better for the world. Russia is back at the starting off place. Economically she is today in the middle ages. There are no established industries, no capitalists, no money. Those prosperous conditions of modern civilization, which arouse such hate and rage in the I. W. W. breast, are conspicuous by their absence. Bill can proceed to construct the world he has dreamed about these many years.

And as Bill has helped the United States, so Russia has helped Bill. For Bill has at last decided to go to work. He is to manage the Iron works,—be a sort of bolshevik edition of Charley Schwab. Now we shall see,—what we shall see.

The soviet government will collect a revenue of seven per cent from the industry, and reserve the right to collect approximately fifty per cent of the output of coal, iron and machine products. The remainder is to be left to the workers to dispose of as they see fit.

As they see fit. Having a half-interest in the industry, the workers will theoretically see fit to assist Bill in making a success of the enterprise. Believing in communism they will cheerfully turn over half of their toil to the government, and not object to a ten-hour day. Bill, as manager, will get no unearned increment, he will follow the I. W. W. formula, and only take out in profit what he puts in by the sweat of his brow and the force of his pick axe.

An expectant and sympathetic world will await the developments with interest. For Bill the proof of the pudding is at hand. There can be no failure, however, from the American viewpoint, as long as the Nadejdinsky Iron works keeps Bill and his fellow wobblers as they are now, eight or ten thousand miles away.

HOW MUCH DO YOU KNOW?

- 1—Is the mayor of New York a democrat or republican? 2—What is a plebiscite? 3—What variety of a tree is to be planted in Washington to commemorate the limitation of armaments conference? 4—How long can a hippopotamus stay under water? 5—Is the moccasin a poisonous snake? 6—Which member of President Harding's cabinet was not born in this country?

- 7—In what part of Chicago was the World's Fair held? 8—Why is pottery called Chinaware? 9—What metal is the lightest? 10—Is the surname the first name or the last name? Answers to Yesterday's Questions 1—What races are included in the colored race? Ans. Red, yellow, brown and black. 2—Where is the red race chiefly found? Ans. South of the Rio Grande. 3—How much do the colored races outnumber the white race? Ans. Two to one. 4—Why do brides wear orange blossoms? Ans. They are considered emblems of purity. 5—Where did New Jersey get its name?

I KNOW I might achieve renown by calmly shooting some one down, as do some folks debased; but I'm old-fashioned in my ways, and feel that shooting other jays is not the best of taste. Obscure, unknown I plod along, and do not join the gaudy throng who play the murder game; they shoot some pilgrims as they go, and then for seven years or so, they revel in their fame. Their names are blazoned everywhere, and from the public prints they stare, they're featured on the screen; they elbow out the seer and sage, uplift the platform and the stage, and gather in long green. I'm tempted off to shoot a hick, or fill him full of arsenic, or some deadly juice; but I was taught in childhood's day that it's a naughty thing to slay without some good excuse. My father used to say, "By jing, a human life's a sacred thing, when we get down to taeks, and one should ponder long and well before he journeys forth to fell a neighbor with an ax." The lessons that my parents taught seem foolish to a world distraught, jazz mad and murder-struck, and I feel sadly out of date as I keep up my humble gait and watch men run amuck. When tempted to remove a friend and thus to heights of fame ascend and gain a movie crown I think of dad, who always said, "It's wrong the cord up piles of dead to win a cheap renown."

name? Ans. From the Isle of Jersey. 6—On what coast of Italy is the Gulf of Genoa? Ans. Northwestern. 7—Under what flag did the first steamship cross the Atlantic? Ans. The American flag. 8—What was the name of the ship? Ans. The Savannah. 9—What year was the trip made? Ans. 1819. 10—In what state is Brandywine, the place where the Revolutionary battle was fought? Ans. Pennsylvania.
