Miss Bruce Putnam of Salem, probably the youngest Oregon composer of music, made a fine impression Friday afternoon when presented in piano recital in the Multnomah hotel ballroom, says a Portland newspaper. "The program had been arranged by the Oregon Composers' society for the meeting of the Women's club, and two Oregon composers were heard, Miss Evelene Calbreath playing three of her own works, which are becoming well known. Miss Putnam is about 18 and her compositions, of the modern, impressionistic type, are therefore indicative of unusual talent and fine musical understanding. She played a half dozen of her own compositions and they were most enthusiastically received."

The Elks minstrel show again scored a hit with a large audience at the Page last night. The show will be given at Grants Pass tonight for the benefit of the American Legion post of that city, and the members of the large company began starting for Grants Pass this noon by auto. They will return home after tonight's performance. The show will be given at Ashland on Friday night, and at Yreka on Saturday night. Jerry Jerome, end man, again left his sick room in time to take part in last night's performance and although still feeling wobbly displayed his well known acting ability much better than at the first performance. By his physician's orders Mr. Jerome will not take part in the Grants Pass, Ashland and Yreka performances, and will now remain at home until he has conquered the flu attack.
