PHOENIX PEOPLE
ATTEND CHURCH
MEETING G. PASS

The following from the Phoenix church attended the annual meeting at Grants Pass on Tuesday and Wednesday of the Presbyterian society of southern Oregon Presbytery: Mrs. Walter Frazer Brown, president of the society, Mrs. M. J. Norris, Mrs. T. J. Mahongren, Mrs. O. T. Morgan, Mrs. John Bohar, Mrs. Donna Graffia, and Mrs. J. W. Angell, secretary of missionary education.

Also, on Tuesday evening, Mr. John Gore took an auto-load of young people down from Phoenix to Grants Pass for a banquet and addresses especially to the young people of the churches of the Presbytery, which extends from Ashland and Klamath Falls to Roseburg and Sutherlin. "A splendid meeting from start to finish," is the verdict of those who attended all sessions.

Sunday, March 19th, will be another special day at the Phoenix church. At the close of the morning service there will be a brief and important business meeting of the congregation to act on recommendations of the trustees and session for the coming year. All members and attendants requested to be present.

At 7:30 Sunday evening, "Two Rules of the Road—A Highway Sermon," with blackboard illustrations, will be given by the pastor. In the young people's meeting at 8:45, Miss Edith Gore will complete her report as delegate to the recent C. E. state convention at Salem. This was given in part last Sunday evening and was very interesting.

Next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 the Phoenix Women's Missionary society will hold its annual meeting, for election of officers and reports from the recent meeting of the Presbyterian society at Grants Pass.

O. PATTON HONORED
ST. PATRICK'S DAY

St. Patrick's day was properly celebrated in Medford today at the usual haunts of Owey J. Patton. When he came to work this morning his heart was cheered by the sight of his desk nicely trimmed in green and a green cora cob pipe lying invitingly handy for use.

He was still further gladdened when he entered the Elks club restaurant for lunch this noon and beheld the menu cards all in green and on the large family table in front of his usual seat a big square cake topped with a shamrock and wearing green trimmings. The non-Irish Elks were fairly green with jealousy and envy as they looked on, but Owey liberally shared the cake with the others. Among the Irishmen, natural and adopted, who got generous slices were Chris Gottlieb, E. N. Vilm, John Henselman, Judge E. E. Kelly, John C. Mann and Hamilton Patton.

Fail to Stop Hanging
On St. Patrick's Day

WASHINGTON, March 17.—John McHenry, 24, was hanged today for the murder of a Washington city detective and an automobile dealer.

Efforts to obtain a commutation to life imprisonment for the youth were continued up to the last, but failed, President Harding having refused to intervene. An attempt to prevent the hanging was made by the local branch of the Sons of Irish Freedom, whose officers said the taking of McHenry's life today would amount to a desecration of the feast day of Ireland's patron saint.
