

Getting Rid of a Stubborn Cough Is Child's Play Now

Make the Medicine Yourself at Home. It's Cheap—but You Can't Beat It.

If you want to take care of that bad, hang on cough and do it in a few hours, better get one ounce of Parmitine (double strength) and mix a half pint at home. You can do this in two minutes by adding a little sugar and enough water to fill a half pint bottle. You'll travel the world over before you get a medicine that will act so surely and quickly on the mucous membrane of the nose and throat. It halts the inflammation, the tickling sensation stops with the first spoonful, the heavy breathing goes and the clean membrane, free from irritation and mucous follows. For Catarrhal conditions such as mucus droppings, clogged nostrils and watery eyes, it won't disappoint—ask for Parmitine (double strength). Speak plainly so that the druggist will know exactly what you want.

QUICK VERDICT IN GOLD HILL POKER GAME HOLD-UP

Mose Hall, a native son and pioneer resident charged with robbery of the inmates of the bunk house at the Gold Hill rock quarry, was acquitted this morning after three minutes deliberation by the jury, a record for this county.

Closing arguments in the case were made yesterday afternoon, Gus and Don Newbury for the defense and Rawles Moore for the state, Don Newbury, who last fall was admitted to the bar pleaded his first case before a jury in this case.

The selection of a jury to hear the case of Verd Chamberlain who is charged with complicity in the robbery of the quarters of the local National Guard on July 31 last, was completed this morning and testimony was begun.

William McClain, witness for the state took the stand and testified that Chamberlain had been with him at the time of the robbery and had assisted in transporting the stolen goods to the Korinek building where it was found.

William Brown took the stand for the state and testified that Chamberlain had entered the building with another member of the party at the time of the robbery and that Chamberlain and the other boy had stood outside and watched while he (Brown) and another boy had entered the building.

In answer to a question put by Gus Newbury, defense attorney, asking if he were sure Chamberlain had entered the building he replied that he was sure.

Ernest Henderson was called to testify for the state and testified that William Brown had been at Fish Lake on August 1, 1921.

Alva Stinslog was the next state witness.

Wants His Money Back

"I can thank Mr. O'Brien, a neighbor, for my recovery from severe colic attacks and stomach trouble that nearly forced me to cross the river Jordan. I spent thousands of dollars in the past nine years for doctors and medicine and would have died but for my neighbor's advice to use Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. I wish I had the money back I spent for other medicine." It is a staple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists.

ness. He testified that he had heard Brown, McClain, Schaffer and Chamberlain talking together in a shed near the Farm Bureau building and that at the time he had seen different articles of army goods. He stated that the conversation had to do with the disposal of the goods and that it was decided to hide them under the Korinek building and return for them the next day and had them away in a car supposed to be Chamberlain's.

H. A. Canaday, captain of the local company of National Guards, testified that part of the goods had been recovered from their hiding place under the building. He testified that the goods belonged to the government of the United States of America and described the stolen goods and the amount recovered.

D. H. Lewis was called as the last state witness before noon and testified that he had assisted the authorities in locating the stolen goods and that he had seen the goods, comprised of rifles, belts, blankets and other army equipment under the approach to the Korinek building.

Geo. Schaffer, a state witness was served with a subpoena yesterday but did not appear. The court ordered the issuance of a bench warrant and the arrest of the witness and ordered that he be brought to court at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

MADRIGAL CLUB HAS GOOD PROGRAM

The O. A. C. Madrigal club gave an excellent program at the high school last night. The costumes and the musical program were unusually good. The first part of the program was featured by fancy dances by Miss Helen Rodolf, by the Blue Revue, five girls of the club and several central soloists by Miss Mildred Berg. A trio of the girls made up as darkies appearing in overalls were also a hit.

The second part of the program consisted of the Cantata "A Midsummer Night," which went through smoothly and with a good deal of harmony.

Former O. A. C. students and alumni were stirred by a number of O. A. C. songs, sung by the club ensemble.

After the concert a dance was held in the American Legion Hall. O. A. C. student and high school students attended and introductions were disregarded, everyone having a good time until 11:45 when Director Tully put a stop to the festivities and ordered the Glee Club girls home and to bed in accordance with the training rules for vocalists.

The club departed at 9:17 this morning for Ashland where they will appear tonight.

VALLEY MINISTERS TO MEET MONDAY

The Rogue River Valley Ministerial association will hold its next regular meeting in the Public Library next Monday.

The session will open at 10:30 in the morning and following the transaction of business Rev. J. Randolph Sannett will address the members on, "The Kind of Preaching Needed Today." Adjournment will be made for luncheon which will be taken at the Medford Cafeteria.

At 1:30 the meeting will be reconvened and "The Sunday Evening Problem" will be presented by Rev. P. Gordon Hart, the newly installed pastor of the Bethany Presbyterian church of Grants Pass.

From Poverty to Wealth

Herbert Rawlinson, who stars in "The Millionaire," at the Rialto theatre this week, puts the rich man's duty in a far different light than it customarily takes. Being neither a poor man nor an extremely rich one his opinion has the complexion of good metal.

Mr. Rawlinson has the part of a young fellow who is apparently worth just twelve dollars a week to the world when suddenly the death of a miserly old man who had once loved the young clerk's mother brings eighty millions in place of the twelve per.

The young man sets about ridding the world of a gang of crooks who had murdered the old man. In contrast, the old man's life had been spent in unceasing attention to money alone, with thoughts of real human usefulness wholly excluded. The old man's life had been one extreme—the young fellow's is not the other extreme, but the happy medium where sanity rules.

A Western photoplay that is as full of action as the conventional egg is of meat, is William S. Hart's new picture, "Three Word Brand," that will be featured at the Page theatre for three days beginning tomorrow matinee. From the opening scenes when Ben Trego, after placing his twin sons in safety, blows himself into fragments by igniting a keg of gunpowder to escape a band of savages that had him caught in a trap, to the final fade out when he holds the girl of his heart in his arms, there isn't a wearisome moment. Mr. Hart plays three roles and he portrays them all with consummate artistry. Jane Novak is his leading woman and heads a strong supporting cast of screen players.

Added short features on the same program are, Tootherville Trolley comedy, "Skipper's Policy," Literary Digest, Aesop's Fable and Gene Howard at the organ.

PREHISTORIC FREAK FACE DEADLY GUNS

BUENOS AIRES, March 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Elaborate arrangements for the capture or destruction of the anaerobic creature reported to have been seen in an Andean lake have been made by the expedition which left Thursday for Patagonia under the auspices of the Buenos Aires Zoological garden. The members of the party are all well armed carrying elephant rifles. Explosives are also being taken with which to mine the lake and scare the monster.
