

Local and Personal

A number of Medford people are complaining that there have been frequent instances in their yards where new spring flowers have been cut and stolen. This is a great disappointment to a flower lover who has labored and nursed small plants to the blooming point and wishes the blossoms of the daffodils and narcissus to grace the property. The flowers have been stolen either late at night or in the early morning hours. These depredations have become so frequent that several property owners promise the vandals a warm reception on the next visit.

The following item in the Eugene Guard, in view of the fact that the "London Follies" show here recently charged $2.50, war tax extra, for the best seats, is of local interest: "The London Follies" which played here Saturday night, is playing other Oregon towns for lower prices. Eugene people who attended paid $2.50 a seat, war tax extra, while Albany and Salem prices were $2. No really first class show plays all the western Oregon towns but the Follies' was billed for Medford, Grants Pass, Eugene, Albany and Salem. A line in the Albany and Salem advertisements reads: Eugene and other Oregon towns paid $2.50. Evidently Eugene is an easy mark, or the people can't help themselves. Next week is the beginning of the "Paint and Clean-up" campaign, so designated by Mayor Gates' proclamation in this paper. THIN, FLAT HAIR GROWS LONG, THICK AND ABUNDANT "Danderine" costs only 35 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair and in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after a few week's use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—comes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. "Danderine" is to the hair what fresh flowers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic cleans thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant.

Obituary FOLEY—Died at Gold Hill, Oregon, March 27, 1922. Michael J. Foley. The deceased was born in Davenport, Iowa, June 13, 1858. His parents were of Irish descent and came to Iowa in the early days. Here he lived during his early years, later crossing the plains in the Sacramento valley and was engaged in the farming industry. Leaving his ranch in California, he came to Oregon where he purchased another ranch on Kanes creek, southeast of Gold Hill. Here he was married to Alice Beale, who came across the plains with her parents from Missouri, and at that time was a resident of Butte Falls. The deceased had no attack of heart trouble last July and had been ailing ever since. He had been a hard worker all his life and when the time came that he couldn't go any longer—rather than suffer to the last—ended his life. He leaves to mourn his death his wife, Alice Foley and seven children, all whom are living: Frank J., Katherine, Margaret, William M., Harold A., Lester L., and Chester A. Besides the members of his own family he leaves two sisters and two brothers in Oklahoma and one sister in San Francisco. Funeral services for the late John Beale, who passed away at his home in Talent Tuesday morning, will be held at the city hall in Talent Thursday at 2:00 p. m., with Rev. E. E. Sashier officiating. Interment in Talent I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Obituary FOLEY—Died at Gold Hill, Oregon, March 27, 1922. Michael J. Foley. The deceased was born in Davenport, Iowa, June 13, 1858. His parents were of Irish descent and came to Iowa in the early days. Here he lived during his early years, later crossing the plains in the Sacramento valley and was engaged in the farming industry. Leaving his ranch in California, he came to Oregon where he purchased another ranch on Kanes creek, southeast of Gold Hill. Here he was married to Alice Beale, who came across the plains with her parents from Missouri, and at that time was a resident of Butte Falls. The deceased had no attack of heart trouble last July and had been ailing ever since. He had been a hard worker all his life and when the time came that he couldn't go any longer—rather than suffer to the last—ended his life. He leaves to mourn his death his wife, Alice Foley and seven children, all whom are living: Frank J., Katherine, Margaret, William M., Harold A., Lester L., and Chester A. Besides the members of his own family he leaves two sisters and two brothers in Oklahoma and one sister in San Francisco. Funeral services for the late John Beale, who passed away at his home in Talent Tuesday morning, will be held at the city hall in Talent Thursday at 2:00 p. m., with Rev. E. E. Sashier officiating. Interment in Talent I. O. O. F. cemetery.
