

News of Jackson County

APPLEGATE

The Applegate girls won the basket ball game from Central Point Friday night on their home floor, by a score of 18 to 11. The Applegate team has just recovered from the flu, and was not in its best form, which held the score down. This game gives them the championship of Jackson county for the third successive year. The team never has been beaten on the home floor and has lost only one game in the three years and that one was after a long drive of 21 miles over rough roads on one of the coldest nights last winter.

A petition is being circulated to unite Thompson creek district with Applegate district.

Thomas Roberts and family are going to move to Gold Hill Thursday.

The shooting match held at Applegate Sunday was well attended.

The dance given Saturday was a success. Everybody reported a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lay of Medford were week end visitors at the home of Mr. Lay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDaniel.

Roy Brown who is teaching school at Holland, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

EDEN PRECINCT

Mrs. Bell Purvis was visiting at the home of Mrs. Louis Colver, with Mrs. Dean last Friday. Mrs. Purvis and Mrs. Dean have been friends for many years.

Last Sunday was the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. French of North Talent. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rapp accompanied them to Jacksonville, where Mrs. Ray Coleman, nee Anna French, had prepared a bounteous dinner for the occasion, and where all celebrated.

It is easy to get rich in Oregon. We have a million dollar rain every few days; and one looking over the tax list can see that the people are taxed accordingly.

Mr. Werschukul of Talent was down to C. Carreys Monday to buy some hay, but found that article rather scarce. There is a great demand for feed throughout the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Will High of Talent, went over to the county seat to pay their taxes Tuesday. An error that had occurred on the tax list, caused them to have to make the long trip.

The new brooder house of the White Wing Poultry Farm is now in operation being fitted with the Cresky oil stoves. They have seven hundred baby chicks in the brooder house and the little fellows are certainly doing nicely.

The many friends of Aubrey Furry were pleased to know that he would appear in the University of Oregon Men's Glee club in Medford where they had the pleasure of hearing him sing. Also Carl Newbury who has many friends and acquaintances here.

Mrs. Bert Peachy of Medford came out to the Plant farm Wednesday, where she bought a setting of Mrs. Carey's fine Light Brahma hatching eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson, and Mrs. Donna Graffes were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Furry last Sunday.

Mrs. T. T. Simpson of Medford was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Noah Chandler, last Sunday. As was the two Miss Bowles and Miss Bessie Hildebrand and Miss Vivian and Mrs. Stanciff.

Mrs. Fred Furry went to Central Point last Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Earnest Reams.

Mrs. G. C. McClain gave a surprise party for her daughter, Dorothy, whose birthday occurred on the 28th of March. Those who had the pleasure of being present were mostly of the Phoenix high school, and their parents, with a few other friends among the younger set. All report having had a most enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen of String Town, went to Gold Hill last Sunday, where they visited with Mrs. Allen's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pratt. Mrs. Pratt came home with them Sunday evening on business, returning home the next day.

Again our little community was both shocked and grieved to learn of the sudden death of our old friend, and pioneer citizen, John Budgon of Talent. Mr. and Mrs. Budgon have lived in this community for over 29 years, and are held in high esteem. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved wife.

Miss Lucile Holdredge came home from Corvallis last Saturday and spent several days with her parents at their orchard home above Talent. Sunday her parents gave a big dinner in honor of their daughter's visit, and several guests were partakers of the feast. Miss Lucile returned to her school work the last of the week. Jay Terrill was out with the tax roll, making the assessments for the 1923 assessment. He was in the Phoenix portion of his district Monday and Tuesday.

Noah Chandler has rented the place belonging to Mrs. West in North Talent, and is plowing the land preparatory to sowing it in barley. Mr. Chandler may plant a portion of the land to potatoes.

George Alford, who has consented to run for county commissioner on the republican ticket, was out interviewing some of his friends last week. George is one of the best known men in this precinct, having grown to manhood in the little town of Talent.

He received his education in Talent and Ashland, having graduated from the Ashland Normal business course. Mr. Alford worked his uncle's farm one year and went to school the next, until he finished his school work. Mr. Alford has not sought the office, but rather the office has sought him. He is a man of strict principles of right, a man who believes in economy as well as efficiency, a man not easily influenced; firm in his own convictions, where the question of right and wrong is to be determined.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. McVittie

Mrs. George Brown of Brownsboro and daughter, were transacting business with our merchants last Saturday.

Walter Wattenberg was here also Saturday and so were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Fuller.

Alvin Muroso of Auburn, Calif., is here visiting his sister, Mrs. Ernest Dahack. He said that he was simply looking over the country, and seemed to be favorably impressed with its appearance, although the cold backward spring has kept vegetation back so that the country does not show to advantage as usual.

An item I picked up Saturday afternoon: The Eagle Point baseball team met Wednesday, March 22nd and organized by electing Fred J. McPherson manager and Lyle Vanscoy as treasurer and secretary, and are so anxious to show their skill in that line that they are ready to meet any baseball team north of the Equator outside of New York state. The boys are feeling their oats and are anxious to show their prowess. Suggestion: Suppose that the Medford and Ashland teams unite and re-elect a team out of the two teams and come over and meet the Eagle Point boys and learn a few tricks.

Wm. Perry, our road supervisor was here Saturday and reports that his road district has been enlarged so as to take in the country up Rogue river to near Trail, and that he had two graders at work, one on the Persist road, by way of the lower bridge across Little Butte creek up Rogue river to the Dodge-French bridge, crossing that stream to Trail, and the other on the boulevard in the Asheloep country, and that he did not know how large his road district was until the county court sent him a blueprint of it. But Will is capable of filling the position, in fact there are a lot of people out here who think that he is good material to make a county commissioner of.

James Pew of Rogue River, came in last Friday to make his annual visit to Mr. and Mrs. David Cingade to take their birthday dinner together, he being 78 years old on Saturday and Mr. Cingade being 77 years old on the day before, March 24. They have made it a rule to have a birthday dinner to gether on either one or the other's birthday for the last thirty-eight years, with one exception, and that was when Mrs. Cingade was in the hospital some years ago.

John A. Miller and wife and Mr. Wilson Martin, better known as Bill Martin of Lake Creek, were here Saturday night for late supper. Mr. Miller had just got in with his last load, moving out from his ranch on the south fork of Little Butte into our town, and Mr. Martin was helping Mr. Miller move, so came in late for supper.

Sunday morning was warm and pleasant and I ventured out to take my place in our Sunday school, for the first time since the 1st of December, to return home before preaching. I noticed that there was quite an addition to the number of scholars, although I was informed that there were not so many as there had been attending, and on looking out of the window I saw quite a company engaged playing baseball and suggested that was the reason for the falling-off. But we had a very interesting session and at the close a sermon by our minister, Rev. H. G. Adams. I noticed a very important addition to the literature of our Sunday school and that was a nice large map of the two kingdoms of Israel and Judea hanging on the wall. Rev. Adams will preach next Sunday morning and evening, April 2nd, in Butte Falls.

Sunday noon when I reached home I found that dinner had already been announced and that there were fourteen busy trying to satisfy their appetites and quite a number in the sitting room and parlor, so that I did not succeed in securing the names of many of them, besides many of them were people of our own town and so just left all of them except those from a distance. Among them were L. Deuel, merchant of Medford, Carl Jackson and wife of Butte Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Davis of the Medford Auto Co., and son Charles Davis, Jr., Mrs. J. D. Jackson, Mrs. Anderson, Sidney F. King, Miss Gertrude Frederburg and Geo. Taylor of Medford.

Charles Pennington of Butte Falls was here and went out to Medford Monday morning and Ralph Bieberstadt, Raleigh Mathews and Paul Janney of Prospect was on his way to his home on the stage.

J. Monia of Brownsboro came in on the stage Monday morning. He had been on a business trip to California and was just returning. He went up home on the Lake Creek stage.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Florey, March 25, a boy baby.

C. E. Bellows was here Monday circulating a petition for signers to have George Alford's name put on the republican ticket as a candidate for county commissioner.

E. G. High and Kelly Paris of Ashland, were among the business callers Monday. They are in the auto business.

R. B. Faffer came in on the stage Monday from Medford and took passage on the Lake Creek stage for his home at the Dead Indian Soda Springs. Mrs. Ed Cowden came in Tuesday morning to bring her sister, Mrs. Ira Tungate of Butte Falls in so she could go home on the stage.

Perry Foster and one of his granddaughters, Miss Cora French, and Miss Lillian Cottrill of Debenzer Gap were transacting business in our town Monday.

Ship Saved From Fire. NEW YORK, Mar. 31.—The American-Hawaiian liner Iowan has been saved from fire which raged in her hold for two days, officials of the line were advised today in a wireless message from her captain.

LESEUR, Minn., March 31.—E. C. Ball of Casper, Wyo., who was shot and killed on a passenger train near here Tuesday, came to his death by his own hand, a coroner's jury decided late yesterday. Mrs. Ball, the widow, was exonerated.

G. Washington's COFFEE

ORIGINATED BY MR. WASHINGTON IN 1809

Make Coffee the Improved Way— In the Cup at the Table

G. Washington's Coffee dissolves instantly when water is added. Put it in the cup just as you do sugar.

The bulky, woody fibre which makes the coffee grounds and the digestion-disturbing acids have been refined away by Mr. Washington's special process which makes G. Washington's Coffee 100% pure. No coffee pot or percolator needed. No waste.

It is estimated that more than 25% of all bean coffee made is wasted.

Measure the cost by the cup —Not by the size of the can

One can of G. Washington's Coffee is equivalent to ten times its weight in roasted bean coffee.

For greatest economy buy the larger size cans.

No trouble—no waiting—no grounds. Always delicious. Every can guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Booklet free. Send 10c for special trial size.
