

Items of Interest From the Rogue River Valley

HOTEL LOCATORS VISIT ASHLAND ON APRIL 15TH

ASHLAND, Mar. 31.—On or about April 15, prospective hotel locators will visit this vicinity, as per late announcements made. The project involves either a large sanitarium annex to the hotel proper or a building by itself devoted to sanitarium purposes. Evidently interests closely allied to those of the Southern Pacific will be back of the enterprise, provided it is, go, the names of McCormick, Richmond and Pollock being mentioned, the latter of whom has been prominently identified with the company's eating house and dining car service. It is taken for granted that a substantial bonus will be a prerequisite in advance of guaranteeing any project whatever. As to a site for the big improvement, the knowing ones are confident that an eligible and extensive one in the park domain will be insisted upon.

"Theodora" will be the attraction at the Vining April 5, 6 and 7, a reminder of "Florodora," the gay entertaining factor of former days.

The Ashland Iron Works will be reopened within a short time, not under auspices of a joint stock corporation, but managed by private parties, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O'Brien, Milt Biegel, one of the captains of industry formerly connected with the concern, will supervise activities in the operating department, Mrs. Dodson O'Brien attending to office business details.

Residents of the east side are indignant — some terrorized — over the sneaking proclivities of a "Peeping Tom," and some of the women are mobilizing with intent to shoot.

Ashland voyagers to the Orient, returning after a visit to Japan, China and the Philippines, report having met Capt. E. T. Foss, of the regular army, now stationed at Camp McKinley, near Manila. The captain's assignment to the Philippines was made sometime

RED PEPPERS STOP PAIN OF RHEUMATISM

When you are suffering with rheumatism so you can hardly get around just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Instant relief. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Frees the blood circulation, breaks up the congestion—and the old rheumatism torture is gone.

Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, costs little at any drug store. Get a jar at once. Use it for lumbago, neuritis, backache, stiff neck, sore muscles, colds in chest. Almost instant relief awaits you. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package.

Watch the little folks speed home for Kellogg's Corn Flakes

"Mudder, I always wins the race when I carry home Kellogg's Corn Flakes. I can't hardly wait till I have some quick, mudder!"

It's great to see child-enthusiasm for Kellogg's; great to see every one in the family enjoy their crisp crunchiness and wonderful flavor! To sit down before a heaping bowlful of these joyous oven-browned "sweet-hearts-of-the-corn" and some milk or cream—and fresh fruit, if it's handy—is just about the very last word in appetizing appeal! And, your good taste will prove that!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes ought to be superior—they are the original Corn Flakes! Kellogg's are never tough or leathery; never hard to eat; never a disappointment!

Be certain to get Kellogg's—the delicious kind of Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package—because none are genuine without the signature of W. K. Kellogg, the originator of Toasted Corn Flakes.

RAILROAD WORK AT BUTTE FALLS GOING FORWARD

BUTTE FALLS, Mar. 29.—The railroad work is progressing very nicely, though interrupted somewhat by bad weather. The P & E has purchased a new oil-burning locomotive. We are having some rain now, but it is warmer than it has been, and we are in hopes it will forget to snow the rest of this month.

J. L. Patton was hired as janitor for the school last Monday.

Mrs. S. Johnston returned home Thursday from Medford, after spending the fore part of the week there shopping and visiting.

Chas. Patton returned Sunday from Medford with his bride who was Alvah Hontvedt, a teacher in the high school and will make their home here, having bought the H. D. Mills residence. Mr. and Mrs. Horn also arrived on the same train. Mrs. Eunice Horn is a teacher here, and during the Christmas holidays was married to Mr. Horn of California. He is on a short visit during Easter vacation.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Everett Abbott a seven and one-half-pound baby girl.

Mrs. M. P. Baker returned Wednesday with little John Frederick Baker, a new arrival. She has been visiting with her sister Mrs. Oscar Hicksbottom, the last week, waiting to get a chance to come home on the spur.

Mr. and Mrs. Day went out on the stage Monday and when they got to F. Neil's where they change stages, Mrs. Day fell and broke her arm.

Mrs. Fox and son, Elmon, have moved back to the Weed Lumber camp in California, where her husband is working.

Cecil Ahlstrom went out to Medford last week to have his wrist X-rayed, a fracture having been received at the Central Point basketball game, and found out it had been crushed, that is, some of the bones. It seems to bother him when he lifts or works it very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Swink were down from their homestead Friday and Saturday visiting and trading with the merchants and listening to the assessor, as they have a fluffer which is snowed in up at their home, and perhaps will be until June, so he was inquiring in the new tax law on cars, as the people don't get to use their cars but six months here, unless they run through a snow drift, or mud hub deep, as the roads are surely a sight up here in the woods as soon as the fall rain sets in and lasts till late in the spring. Of course if this extra tax or compulsion to buy license, proceeds was intended to improve our mountain road, the people would be very glad of the cause, but whereas we see no such good luck in store for us, everyone has a kick coming.

Allene Jackson and Gertrude Fredenburg left for Medford Sunday to have some dental work done on their aching teeth, and will remain till the middle of the week.

Mrs. Carl Jackson went down on the stage Saturday to meet Mr. Jackson (who is stationed at Squaw Lake hatchery until May) but had to come to Medford on a short business trip.

Mrs. J. L. Patton was in Medford last week visiting her mother, Grandma Edmonson, who has been quite sick, but is improving slowly.

NEW OFFICERS ROGUE R. CIVIC CLUB ELECTED

ROGUE RIVER, Mar. 29.—On Friday afternoon, March 24th, the ladies of the Civic Improvement club met at the home of Mrs. Fairchild, Mrs. George Lowd assisting as hostess. Mrs. Snaack was guest of honor. The subject for roll call was "Events" responses bringing out many interesting experiences. New officers were elected as follows: Mrs. Earhart, president; Mrs. Minthorne, vice-president; Mrs. Anna Clark, recording secretary; Mrs. Wilson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Melvina, treasurer. The new president in her charming manner, made a very helpful and appropriate speech. Mrs. Philip Strahan gave a reading. Delicious refreshments were served, and the meeting adjourned, everyone feeling that a profitable time had been spent. There were 25 in attendance.

Mrs. Snaack left Sunday evening for Corvallis, where she resumes her work as matron of one of the sorority houses.

Mrs. George Martin was called to Fresno, Calif., a few days ago by the serious illness of her brother's wife. Monday evening's entertainment, given by George Titus Wilson of Medford was thoroughly enjoyed by those present. Sickness and bad weather kept many from attending. The variety of literary selections, depicting child and home life, romance, plantation scenes, comic pieces, as well as the musical selections, were all well rendered. J. Whitcomb Riley's "When the World Busts Up" was a winner. Come again, Mr. Wilson.

J. M. Carlton, former rancher of this vicinity, passed away at Medford on Tuesday. Friends and neighbors extend their sympathy to Mrs. Carlton and children.

The L. O. P. H.'s and T. O. P. H.'s once more gathered up their baskets, bags, hooks and needles and hid themselves off to the home of Mrs. Jacobson Wednesday evening. After the usual stunts and eats they wandered back home.

The Anti-Saloon league gave their interesting and instructive lecture, "Safeguarding the Nation," Tuesday evening in the community hall.

A large gathering of relatives and friends paid their last respects at the funeral of C. B. McClellan on Wednesday, March 29th at the Presbyterian church. Service was conducted by Mr. James Martin in the absence of the pastor. At the cemetery the I. O. O. F. had charge. Mr. McClellan was a citizen of this place for many years. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Neathammer on March 12th, a daughter.

Mrs. George Smith is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Caris this week.

STOLEN PLUNDER AT CENTRAL POINT FOUND UNDER MILL

CENTRAL POINT, Mar. 30.—Plunder, including goods taken from the local pool hall and other business places here several months ago, was accidentally discovered recently by boys while working under the Central Point Mill. The goods were evidently placed there some time ago with the intention of securely hiding them until the time was ripe for the thief to come and get them without fear of arrest or detection. It was a good place to hide them and all would have worked well for the lawbreaker had not his plunder been discovered, and taken away out of his reach.

There will be an all day quilting party for members of the Ladies' Aid society at the home of Mrs. Joe Bos-
