Every one knows him as "Toggery Bill" and he is about as rabid a sportsman as Medford can produce. After three weeks in Portland he checked out of the Multnomah yesterday and started to drive for home, with Roseburg as his first stop. Coming to Portland he drove from Medford to Portland in 1 1/2 hours, which shows that the Pacific highway is in splendid condition. There was a somewhat heated debate in the Multnomah lobby before Toggery Bill checked out as to whether a Tuxedo is proper wear at a formal dinner or whether a man must wear his "soup and fish." Being in the clothing business, Toggery Bill announced that a Tuxedo is perfectly proper for a formal dinner, unless there are women present, in which event the full dress is more nearly correct, albeit the dinner jacket is strongly championed by some good dressers. —The Oregonian.

Sunday night at the Presbyterian church, "The Gospel, What is It? Has It Come to You?" will be the theme for discussion. The message will be further enriched and interpreted by the singing of some of the fine old gospel hymns—and also by the playing on the pipe organ of a medley of some of the choicest gospel hymns by Mrs. H. E. Marsh, the organist. The large audiences at the morning service testify to the interest in the coming of the Easter season. The message as announced for this Sunday morning will be "Why Jesus Is Unattractive to Men." An inspiring message in song will be brought by the mixed quartet from the "Crucifixion" entitled "For Go So Loved the World" by Steiner. "Oh Sacred Head, Now Crucified" by Liszt will be sung by Forrest Edmendes. A sacred concert is in course of preparation by the quartet to be given Easter Sunday evening which promises to be one of the finest ever given by them. Lovers of the inspiring Easter music will look forward with anticipation to this date.

Too Busy?

Too busy to go to church Sunday? Some day the angel of death will tap your shoulder. You cannot put him off.

Why not cultivate the spiritual side of your nature?

The old commandment: "Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath" was intended for you. Cold-blooded economists tell us that men who rest on Sunday do the most work.

There is a seat for you in this church. Come Sunday.

Remember the Sabbath to keep it holy. In it thou shalt not do any work.
