WEDDING BELLS

Miss Agnes Letcher of Grants Pass and Gene Howard, the versatile organist at the Page, were united in marriage this morning at 11:30 at the Methodist rectory in Grants Pass by Rev. Knott. Only the immediate family of the bride were present. The bride is the daughter of a well known Grants Pass jeweler and is well known and popular in that city. The groom is a local young man who has been in this city for several months. He is a man of exceptional talents and is popular among all his acquaintances. The wedding came as a surprise to the many friends of the couple. They became acquainted about six months ago and not much time has been lost by Mr. Howard. However he explains the celerity by saying "It's the Climate."

Theatrical records have suffered some important readjustments since the first performance of Ethel Barrymore in Zoe Akins' play, "Declassée", at the New York Empire theatre. Throughout the entire season Miss Barrymore occupied the stake of the Empire theatre, achieving the distinction of being the only star who ever opened and closed a season at that aristocratic Frohman playhouse playing the same piece continuously.

At Powers' theatre in Chicago, later Miss Barrymore established a new record for enormous attendance and receipts. For fifty consecutive performances there was not an unoccupied seat in that theatre. In "Declassée" Miss Barrymore is to be seen at the Page theatre.

Tonight the curtain will rise promptly at 8:30.

AUTHOR MOTOR LAW TO SPEAK AT FORUM

The automobile license law will be the topic at the forum of the Medford chamber of commerce next Wednesday and it will be presented by W. B. Dennis of Carlton, Oregon.

As a member of the state legislature he was probably more responsible than any other member in formulating this law and sections which have the appearance of unfairness, were adopted after careful consideration of all phases which entered into the problem.

The forum on Wednesday will be the first one of the third fiscal year of the chamber of commerce and will be held at the noon hour at the Medford hotel.

At Page Tuesday

That all discipline and no fun makes Jill a naughty girl is the thesis of Frances Harner's amusing story, "One Wild Week," which will open for a three days run tomorrow matinee at the Page theatre. This picture, with Bebe Daniels the star playing the role of the too-sternly brought-up girl who makes a bet for lire, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness the instant she touches her majority.

Domestic Comedy a Hit

Local play-goers have a real treat offered them in Wanda Hawley's latest picture, "The House That Jack Built," which opened yesterday at the Page theatre. For clean, wholesome comedy, and a story about real folks, few plays of the season have equaled it.

The story is a clever and entertaining one of a woman who nearly loses her husband because she grows lazy, careless and finally unattractive under the temptation of too much luxury.

The fault is partly the husband's for letting and indulging her so much, but, of course, he heaps all the reproaches upon her and departs in a rage never to return!

Comedy is invoked when the young wife, again trained down to fitness, brings back a repentant husband, to the vast discomfiture of the vamp who almost won him.

Forrest Stanley does excellent work in the leading male role.

SPECIAL MEETING AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The special meetings which began at the Christian church Sunday were services. The music and sermons by services, the music and sermons by D. E. Millard, the pastor, were highly enjoyed.

The excellent music is a big feature of the meetings. The male quartette and chorus choir, in charge of Harry Scoullin, and the congre-
