

WHISKEY FUMES ASHLAND PLAZA EXCITE POPULACE

ASHLAND, April 5.—There was a great outpouring of the spirit, without accompanying benefit of clergy, on the Plaza, at 2 o'clock sharp, Tuesday afternoon, when several gallons of booze were dumped into the sewers. The ceremonies were witnessed by quite a number of uninvited guests. Members of the local unit of the W. C. T. U. poured, that function having been delegated to them by the chief of police. The contraband was the accumulation of various seizures made recently from bootleggers, who were not only heavily fined, but cash penalties were supplemented by jail sentences covering periods to the limit. While the liquors were being spilled, there was a heavy downpour of April showers also, and as a consequence the whiskey was considerably diluted, the atmosphere about the Plaza, however, containing about the limit of alcoholic content, which the law allows under the voltage clause of the Volstead enactment.

Mrs. M. H. Ellis has returned from a two month's visit in San Francisco. The first unit in dressmaking classes finished the prescribed course last Friday. The millinery classes are busily engaged in rushing the spring bonnets in preparation for Easter.

"The Motor Vehicle License Law," was the topic assigned to Hon. W. B. Dennis, of Carlton, at the Chamber of Commerce forum luncheon on Tuesday. Geo. W. Dunn presided, and the speaker of the hour in view of the important question under discussion, easily proved that "his name is Dennis."

The apartment rooms over Isaac's store substantially equipped in every particular, are to be hereafter known as the Oregon hotel, a mistake in regard to nomenclature, as the term savors of the Hotel Oregon, and the names are too nearly inter-related. It took a long time for the present Hotel Ashland to become disassociated from the designations of the old Hotel Oregon and Hotel Austin respectively. A brand new distinctive term would be more appropriate for the fine apartment suites.

Mrs. Kathryn Umphlette, teacher at Junior high, participated among talent at the Civic Improvement entertainment at the Baptist church on Tuesday evening, in a series of readings, supplementing the musical portion of a very enjoyable program.

Clayton Geer, S. P. engineer located at Wood, has been in town this week on business.

The Methodist church held its regular quarterly conference on Monday. The funeral of W. H. Denham, who died last Thursday, was held at Talent, interment being in Stearns' cemetery. Deceased was a brother of J. F. Denham of Talent. He had resided in Ashland for some time past, and death was due to paralysis, he having suffered a stroke March 26. On Tuesday, April 11, the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church will hold an important business meeting. Another barber has come to town, but whether he will start another shop, or enter employment of one of the old timers, has not been determined. Owing to more demands for conveniences in the park camping grounds, the commissioners are about to supply a building to be used for laundry purposes. A storage room and chapel edifice will probably follow in due season.

The fine bungalow property, corner of Almond and Pine streets, has been sold by Jack Pales to Railway Mail Clerk Doherty, possession to be given May 1. This is the house originally built by the Barber brothers, afterwards bought and greatly improved by Clark Bush, at that time an employe of the First National bank.

The Modern Woodmen are to have a new state deputy for the Southern Oregon district, J. E. Welch having been commissioned as such, his territory including Jackson, Klamath, Josephine and Douglas counties. He has already entered upon these duties with headquarters at his residence, 242 Laurel street, the plan being to unite the camps in Ashland, Medford, Central Point and Talent in co-operative activities of benefit to the fraternal order in general.

Radio activities are being exploited locally by Lloyd Crowson, a young electrician particularly enthusiastic over this fascinating work. This is a reminder also that the Shrine club of Hillah Temple at Roseburg is about to install a radio receiving station at Masonic hall in that city. This club, known as "Elin," is one of the most active organizations connected with Hillah Temple of this city as an auxiliary.

Among returning vacationists who have passed the winter in California are members of the W. M. Foley family.

The Nazarene church family is being reinforced by the ubiquitous Smith family of Stockton, Calif., who joined forces with that denomination's congregation in holding revival services which began on Sunday. The visitors are not only evangelists, but also singers of noted ability, thus adding interest to a series of most successful meetings.

Professor Appiehoff of Grants Pass, has been here this week on a business mission. He formerly tutored the Ashland band while a resident of this city, and is now conducting music classes in the Josephine county capital.

"Dobbin" Irwin takes over the billiard rooms recently vacated by J. H. Cook on East Main street near Ellis temple premises, which will be remodeled and decorated before Dobbin reopens up the old stand.

Among numerous additions to shelves in the city library are quite a lot of volumes interesting especially to young folks, the classification including juveniles.

BROWNSBORO NEWS

Two houses on the range near Brownsboro have been broken into and quite a bit of damage done. At present neither house is occupied. One house was on Mrs. Bedford's homestead. She is at present in Florida for the winter months. The front door was completely smashed in and had been pried open with a heavy timber. Window lights were broken.

Blood was on the floors and furniture. Some of the local people think that a hunter or trapper might have spent the night here and the blood was from some dead animal.

The Thomas homestead was also broken into and a great deal of damage done. Some of the outbuildings were knocked down. There was a small chicken house which was dragged away from the house.

Some people are of the opinion that some of the cattle men who are opposed to sheep on the range might have done the damage.

Mr. Anderson is now living in the Thomas house and is ranging five hundred head of sheep on this range. Heretofore the Butte creek range has not been grazed by anything but cattle except when Mr. Phipps ran about a thousand head on the same range a few years ago. Objections to sheep in this district seem to be very strong.

Lewis Walsh and wife visited the latter's parents Saturday.

Carl Stanley who has been in Eagle Point, returned home Saturday.

We had a surprise birthday party last Friday, March 31. It was on the children whose birthdays are in March. They were Gladys and Robert Cowden, Donald Bieberstead and George Hoagland.
