

NOT SUFFICIENT COIN IN U. S. TO SATISFY LABOR

If Railroad Labor Demands Were Granted to All, Money Would Not Go Around, Declares Representative of Western Railroads.

CHICAGO, April 7.—If every family in the country lived on a yearly budget of $2,636.97, that proposed by railroad shop employees there would not be enough money to go around and the railroads would step into an annual deficit of over one billion dollars, the railroad labor board was told by officials of the carriers today.

"The country does not produce and never did, for such a budget," declared J. W. Higgins, for the western roads. "The theory advanced of making wages constant and profits variable, even to the point of extinction is absurd. There is no change in human nature today—no one is going to invest in railroad which won't yield a profit."

The shopmen's budget was an argument which evaded the issue, J. G. Walber, representing eastern lines, added. He said the board was directed by the transportation act to consider certain things, such as wages in outside industries and the cost of living, in fixing wages. The shopmen had avoided these points "to which the board is bound to give prime consideration," Mr. Walber said.

Under the budget which was introduced by H. M. Jewell, head of the shop crafts union, last week, Mr. Walber said the railroads' labor bill would amount to $4,508,857,582, or one and a half billions of dollars more than at present and 2.7 times net operating expenses.

LONDON, April 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—Smiling cheerfully, but unable entirely to conceal his careworn expression, Prime Minister Lloyd George headed a party of 20, including his wife and their daughter Megan, which left today for Genoa, where the international economic conference opens Monday. The continued illness of the Marquis Curzon, foreign secretary, has delayed his departure until next week, but Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, secretary for war, and Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the exchequer, accompanied the premier.

GENOA, April 7.—Gabriele d'Annunzio is to participate in the coming international conference here as the representative of Italy's seamen, according to the Italian newspapers.

PARIS, April 7.—(By the Associated Press.)—Extraordinary precautions are being taken to prevent indiscretions by members of the French delegation at Genoa. Louis Barthou, head of the delegation, has warned his collaborators that the first person who communicates directly with Paris in regard to the proceedings of the conference will be immediately sent back to France.

FIRST BREAK IN COAL STRIKE

(Continued from Page One) characteristic and typical of a policy he has followed for some time. He is engaged in a factional quarrel with the other operators of central Pennsylvania, the other faction being headed by Ben Clark. The loss of tonnage of which Mr. Watkins so bitterly complains is largely due to a fierce competitive warfare with his rivals.

The miners' chief declared that Mr. Watkins, for some time, "has been engaged in a frantic effort to destroy the relationship between operators and miners in central Pennsylvania. His utterances are directed solely by his selfish personal interests," he said.

The condition of Horace Bromley who was operated upon for appendicitis last Monday is no longer critical, and it is reported that he is convalescing in a satisfactory manner.

COSSACK LEADER HALTED IN N. Y. ON WAR CLAIM

NEW YORK, April 7.—General Gregorie Semenov "ataman of the south Russian Cossacks," denied today before a referee in bankruptcy that he had ever seized property of the Youre-vata Home and Foreign Trading company, a bankrupt New York concern which caused his arrest last night. He said that if the company ever lost any supplies through Cossack raids he knew nothing of it himself and he could not be held directly responsible for all his men did.

The Russian leader remained in seclusion most of the time. His wife, a comely Russian woman of former noble rank, testified she had left Russia with her husband, gone to Japan and taken a steamer for this country. "We had all our possessions in six small boxes," she testified, "and had only a little over $6000 in cash. We have the possessions now but our money has slipped away until it is only about $1500."

PRINCESS MARY'S WEDDING GIFTS EMBARRASSING

LONDON.—The vast number and varied assortment of wedding presents to Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles displayed here caused many people to wonder what the newly-weds would do with the 65 jugs and bowls, 16 silver toast-racks and 22 clocks included in the offerings.

The late King Edward, after his marriage, found himself the possessor of 1500 teapots of all types and descriptions and of more than 800 cruets. It is reported that some of these are still stored in London.

Only persons who had been presented at court or who could claim personal acquaintance with either Princess Mary or her husband were permitted to tender wedding gifts on the occasion of the recent royal wedding. Charitable and other public organizations and institutions were, of course, excepted.

This ruling perhaps saved Princess Mary the embarrassment over disposing of teapots and cruets suffered by King Edward.

A classification of the gifts exhibited at St. James' palace shows only 28 tea services were presented. Other items are 153 articles of jewelry, including bracelets, necklaces, pendants, tiaras, brooches, rings, caskets, fans and watches; a trayful of flawless, un-set precious stones; 893 gifts made from precious metals including 29 trunks, 24 vases, 31 cups, 12 goblets, 18 inkstands, 25 statuettes, 14 card trays, nine cigarette cases, eight traveling cases, and seven workboxes; 197 books and manuscripts, 22 candelabra, 17 umbrellas, 14 lamps and shades, 17 rugs, 22 sets of cutlery, eight wall brackets, 36 dinner services, 47 breakfast table services, 18 silver salvers, 70 pairs of gloves, 10 wedding cakes and seven hunting crops.

While correspondents invited to a private view were being shown about the state rooms where the presents were on display, the 22 gift clocks all began chiming at 6 o'clock at almost the same instant—and the newspaper party was ushered out as it had been invited to call "between 6 and 6 p. m."

COMMUNICATIONS

Agrees With Mr. Collins
To the editor: Mr. Geo. C. Collins' letter on developing trade by truck line to Klamath Falls is very timely and should be supported by every one in Rogue River valley. I do not believe the people are alive to the enormous amount of fruit and vegetables shipped into Klamath from California, which I contend by rights belongs to the people on this side of the mountain. Mr. Berry Grower seems to think Mr. Collins has misstated the case when he says the valley does not raise berries enough to supply the wants of Klamath Falls. If Mr. Howell has been unable to sell all the berries he has sent to Klamath it is because the California growers beat the growers of this valley to it. At any time one goes into the stores of Klamath they will find them well supplied with California fruits and vegetables of an inferior quality.

The early completion of the Green Spring highway whereby giving easy and quick delivery to Klamath, Mr. Berry Grower will have to increase his acreage to supply the demand.

PORTLAND BOXER TO MEET JOHNNY CARLSON, G. HILL

A lively evening has been arranged by the Gold Hill Boxing commission for next Tuesday, April 11th, as the opener for the wrestling season in these parts.

Ted Thye of Portland will clash with Tom Ray of Omaha, in a finish wrestling match, 145 pounds. Ray left Salt Lake City Thursday for Gold Hill after being unable to get a match with Mike Yokel. Ray is rated as a good wrestler, and everybody knows what Thye can do.

A special dish on the bill will be a six-round boxing bout between Johnny Carlson and George Brandon of Portland. Brandon is guaranteed by Thye to be a good fast boxer, and friends of Carlson expect him to have the hardest tussle of his career in getting by this time.

Seats are now on sale at Brown and

Brown's, this city, Ross and Ross, Central Point, and Niningor and Warner, Ashland.
The preliminary wrestling match will be called at 8:30 o'clock.

MAN INJURED IN AUTO COLLISION CAN'T BE FOUND

C. E. Hale of Phoenix, while on his way home last night in his Velie car ran into a hay rack and capsized it. The man occupying the wagon was rendered unconscious from the fall and Hale applied first aid measures and brought him to after he tried to awaken a physician in Phoenix to take care of the man. Being unable to do so he brought the man to Medford in his car and went into the Hotel Nash to telephone a doctor. When he entered the hotel he directed two men on the street to watch the injured man but evidently their watch was not particularly close as while Hale was inside the injured man ducked around the corner and disappeared. It was understood this morning that he was safe at home and had suffered no serious injury.

The wagon, according to Hale, had no light on it and he did not see it until he struck it. Officials declare that practically all accidents in which horse-drawn vehicles are involved are due to the absence of any sort of light to indicate their presence. It is against the law to drive on the public roads at night without a light which can be seen from both front and rear and a person may be prosecuted for doing so.

A collision occurred last night between two automobiles on the corner of Sixth and Central and another occurred this noon when a woman driver crashed into a taxi which was completely within its rights according to witnesses. No one was injured in the latter accidents and but slight damage was done in the former. In the latter which occurred in front of the city hall a running board and fender on the taxi were smashed.
