NO. 18

TO PROPOSE PEACE PACT FOR EUROPE

Lloyd George Will Present Agreement That No Nation Shall Attack Another - Limitation of Armaments Is Also to Be Introduced Spite of French Protests.

GENOA, April 12.—(By the Associated Press)—Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain is expected to propose at the earliest opportunity, probably at tomorrow's sitting of commission No. 1 of the economic conference, a pact of understanding that no nation shall attack another, thus abolishing the possibility of war for the duration of the pact. Reuters' correspondent today says he has learned.

GENOA, April 12.—(By the Associated Press)—Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain contemplates suggesting an agreement for limitation of land armaments in Europe for a definite period, according to an unverified report before the adjournment of the present economic conference. The permanent holiday, it is thought, will be patterned after the naval holiday completed at the Washington conference. Disarmament continues to be most discussed subject among the delegates here, although barred from formal consideration following an initial tilt between the French and Russian delegations when M. Chicherin, Soviet foreign minister, endeavored to bring it before the conference.

French Oppose Idea. The statement of Louis Barthou, head of the French delegation to the Associated Press yesterday, explaining why France cannot discuss disarmament at Genoa probably will remain the basis of the French attitude on this question, despite the attempts of the Russian delegation and other national groups to raise the issue. "This is an economic conference," said the French leader last night again emphasizing France's position. "And we have simply got to stick to our agenda as we did at Washington, otherwise we will get nowhere."

Saar Valley Considered. GENOA, April 12.—(By the Associated Press)—Continuing in the Saar valley, control of which was awarded to France by the treaty of Versailles, are to be called to the attention of the economic conference by a delegation composed of prominent financial and other residents of the Saar says the newspaper Cattadino today. The French occupation, the deputation will declare, has caused a grave situation. It will present "numerous formidable accusations against the French troops."

Chamber of Commerce For Wine and Beer. LOS ANGELES, April 12.—Members of the chamber of commerce voted overwhelmingly in favor of the amendment of the Volstead act to permit the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer in a referendum taken at the request of the Grain Trade association of the San Francisco chamber of commerce it was announced today.

TACOMA POLICEMAN IS ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY OF YOUNG'S HOTEL

TACOMA, April 12.—William H. James, local police officer, is in the county jail today, charged with robbing the Young hotel early yesterday. He occupies a cell with Eddie Holmes, "steal pigeon" of the police department, also alleged to have taken part in the robbery. James was dismissed from the police department yesterday afternoon after he admitted he had "raided" the hotel and last night a warrant

Robbery Is Latest Vocation Recognized In Los Angeles, Cal.

LOS ANGELES, April 12.—Robbery as a vocation is registered against Jack Wathen, 32 years of age, held in the county jail here today awaiting trial for robbery, as a result of his declaration to police detectives and district attorney attaches that this was his one and only occupation, the officers assert. Police detectives here say that he boasted of robberies since 15 years of age.

TRUCE SIGNED FOR PEACE ON ULSTER BORDER

Ulster Constables and Free State Troops Agree to Lay Down Arms—De Valera Is Not Included—Masses His Force On Lough Levin.

BELFAST, April 12.—(By the Associated Press)—A truce has been declared between the Ulster special constables and the free state troops, which have been in menacing proximity along the Fermanagh border between Ulster and south Ireland, it was announced today. The pact does not bind the supporters of Eamon DeValera, who are massing on the shores of Lough Lavin, near the town of Garrison, where they have erected a large telescope and are keeping constant watch upon the special. Last evening a dozen motor cars brought reinforcements for the republicans. Sir Basil Brooke, commanding the Fermanagh special advanced into free state territory at Black Lion and conferred with the rival leader. The interview was harmonious and an agreement was reached under which both sides will withdraw their forces a short distance from the border line. Each commander agreed to punish infringers of the pact.

BELFAST, April 12.—(By the Associated Press)—The peace conference between leaders of the opposing parties of southern Ireland will open in Dublin, tomorrow afternoon, it was announced here today. Lord Mayor O'Neill of Dublin informed the Belfast telegraph correspondent in Dublin that Stephen O'Mara, lord mayor of Limerick, also had been invited to the conference and had accepted. Eamon De Valera, Charles Burgess, Michael Collins and Arthur Griffith accepted yesterday. Lord Mayor O'Neill, who has largely responsible for the move to bring the rival leaders together, was asked as to the scope of the conference, whether it was called to discuss the question of unity or only the best means of restoring order. "You never know what will happen," he said, "but it is somewhat enigmatical reply."

PORTLAND DOCTOR GETS JAIL SENTENCE

PORTLAND, Ore., April 12.—Dr. Joseph Murphy was sentenced today to six months in the county jail by Federal Judge Bean, following his conviction yesterday of violation of the federal prohibition law. He was accused of selling in his office a concoction containing denatured alcohol and glycerine. His attorney gave notice of appeal. Dr. Murphy occupied offices with Dr. C. Liscum, recently sentenced to two years at McNeil Island penitentiary for illegal sale of narcotics.

TACOMA POLICEMAN IS ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY OF YOUNG'S HOTEL

TACOMA, April 12.—William H. James, local police officer, is in the county jail today, charged with robbing the Young hotel early yesterday. He occupies a cell with Eddie Holmes, "steal pigeon" of the police department, also alleged to have taken part in the robbery. Russian Headquarters at the International Conference

The Imperial Palace Hotel where the Russian delegation to the International Economic Conference at Genoa, is housed during the conference. Inset, George Tchitcherin, leader of the Russian delegates, who yesterday started an attack on the admission of Japanese and Rumanian delegates.

ROBBERY GOLDEN RULE STORE IS FOILED BY COP

An attempt to break into the Golden Rule store last night was foiled by Patrolman Leggett, who frightened away the two marauders who were making the attempt. The two men had placed a homemade ladder on a large box in the rear of the store and were attempting to effect an entrance through a small second story window. The lower windows are protected with an iron grating but the second story windows are unprotected, and the culprits had succeeded in breaking all the glass from the window which they had selected before they were frightened away. They were working near the north end of the alley behind the store and when they heard Leggett at the south end of the alley they skipped. They were soon gone in the dark street, the officer having had but a glimpse of two dark figures. Had Patrolman Leggett been a few minutes later in making his rounds the robbers would most likely have been successful.

RE-ARGUMENT OF S. P. CASE STARTED

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Re-argument of the Southern Pacific case, the last of the railroad dissolution suits was concluded today in the supreme court. The proceedings involve an attack by the government upon the ownership and control of the Central Pacific by the Southern Pacific. The case was decided adversely to the government in the lower court and has been pending in the supreme court since 1917 when it was orally argued last April.

HUGHES TO BE HONORED BY WALES UNIVERSITY

LONDON, April 12.—(By the Associated Press)—The University of Wales has decided to confer the honorary degree of doctor of laws on Charles E. Hughes, American secretary of state, who is worthy of such honor for his "eminence as a statesman," according to the London Times.

Democratic Leader Guest of Portland

PORTLAND, Ore., April 12.—Cordell Hall of Nashville, Tenn., democratic national chairman, has the guest of Oregon democrats here today, the program including a luncheon at noon and conferences with state leaders of the party. Chairman Hall was to leave here tonight at 7:30 for Spokane. He spoke optimistically of democratic prospects.

Calif. Cat Buried in Snow 38 Days Lives, But Sawmills Quit

PLACERVILLE, Cal., April 12.—A cat buried in a snowslide near here was rescued alive recently after being imprisoned for 38 days, according to a report received here which stated that James Gais found the animal mewing faintly. The slide cost the life of J. W. Penders. QUINCY, Cal., April 12.—Indications are that sawmills in Plumas county will be compelled to postpone until May 1, the opening of operations which had been scheduled for the middle of April. Snow which fell Monday and Tuesday is thought to have made the depth too great for safe operation.

DANCING PASTOR GIVEN THE SACK

LOS ANGELES, April 12.—The officers of the Southern California conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, announced here today that they had revoked the license of the Rev. K. K. Allen, because he had been serving as "chaplain" for a dance hall and performing marriages on the dance floor. Mr. Allen had been without a regular charge for some months and his services as "chaplain" were under an arrangement made between him and the dance hall proprietor. Local ministers have been campaigning against dance hall weddings.

NEW PENNSYLVANIA SOLON NEAR DEATH

PITTSBURG, April 12.—United States Senator William E. Crow who has been in a hospital here for several months, was reported today as having suffered a relapse. His brother, Doctor Crow of Uniontown, Pa., was summoned to his bedside and it was said that upon his arrival, the attending physicians would decide whether they resort to blood transfusion in an effort to prolong Mr. Crow's life. Mr. Crow was appointed to the senate by Governor Spraul last October.

J. N. HILL AND LAMONT DROP OUT OF N. P.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Retirement of James N. Hill and Thomas W. Lamont from the directorate of the Northern Pacific railroad was announced at the annual meeting yesterday. No explanation was made of Mr. Hill's passing from the board but the financial district attributed the withdrawal of his name from the nominations as an indication that the Hill interests in Northern Pacific stock had been largely reduced in the last few years.

HUMAN EXHIBITS ARE OFFERED TO R. R. LABOR BD.

CHICAGO, April 12.—Human exhibits to prove that maintenance of way employes cannot live properly on their present pay today were brought before the United States railroad labor board hearing of the railroads' demand for wage cuts, when Frank P. Walsh, attorney, called to the stand a number of employes who told the board their present earnings kept them underfed, underclothed and lacking some of the necessities of life. Mrs. Joseph Saboni, wife of a Milwaukee section hand, told the board she had to borrow the old coat she wore to make the trip here. At the end of her story, she turned to the board members and said: "I know that you won't cut my husband's pay when you know we can't live on what he's getting now." Mrs. Saboni said her husband's earnings last month were $70. Her monthly expenses for bare necessities for herself, her husband and their three children were given as $40 for groceries, $39 for meat, $15 for rent and $5.50 for milk. Her ten-year-old boy was told by a school nurse that he had consumption and she took him out of school, but the doctor said he was merely undernourished, she testified. "We fed him mostly on tea, bread and syrup," she said.

DR. LORENZ WILL LIVE IN AMERICA

NEW YORK, April 12.—Dr. Adolph Lorenz was a passenger on the La France, sailing by Europe today. He was accompanied by Antonio Wedl, importer, who induced him to come to this country. Dr. Lorenz, who treated thousands of cripples during his visit at first was forced to curtail his operations because of the opposition he met from members of his own profession throughout the country. He finally conducted free clinics under the guidance of New York's health department until he secured a license from the state. Later he held clinics in New Jersey and Detroit. He is coming back to stay in September and will bring his family, which consists of his wife and two sons, with him. The elder son, who is 36 is a physician and his father's chief surgical assistant.

He stepped behind a classmate just as the latter swung his club for a drive.

Shotgun Disperses Ku Klux Klan at Bakersfield, Calif.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., April 12.—White robed and hooded men in seven automobiles last night took C. Haight, resident of Fel-lows, out of the west side oil fields town and delivered a lecture to him and later called at the home of Gus Schoenfeld, a druggist, who defied the visitors with a shotgun, whereupon they departed, according to a message received here today. The hooded men, it is said, represented themselves as Ku Klux Klansmen. They warned Haight to seek employment, according to a report to the sheriff's office. The visitors did not make their mission known to Schoenfeld.

STILLMAN CASE RESUMED AGAIN EVIDENCE RACY

Parents of Indian Guide Defend Son Accused By Mr. Stillman of Impropriety—Evidence Is Conflicting—Cross Examination Severe.

MONTREAL, April 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Severe cross examination awaited the full blooded Indian, Louis Beavais, father of the guide, Fred Beavais, when trial of the Stillman divorce case was resumed here today. Yesterday the Indian parents defended their son and Mrs. Anne U. Stillman against the charges of misconduct made by James A. Stillman, New York banker, who alleged in suing for divorce, that they had misbehaved in the Quebec woods and that Fred Beavais was the father of little Guy Stillman. By their testimony Fred's father and mother sought to show it would have been impossible for workmen at the Stillman summer camp near Grande Anse, Quebec, to have drawn aside roller curtains and peeped at Beavais and Mrs. Stillman in the bedroom of the lodge. They said there were no roller curtains on the windows at that time, the summer of 1918. Mrs. Beavais, however, was declared to have been uncertain on this point. There were other points of difference between their statements and those of their neighbors who more than a year ago testified against Mrs. Stillman. The neighbors swore that Mrs. Stillman and Beavais occupied adjoining rooms in the lodge and that the Stillman children, Anne, Alexander and James, slept in tents outside. Mr. and Mrs. Beavais said there were no tents on the place at that time. The children and Mrs. Stillman occupied rooms on the ground floor, they said, and Beavais slept upstairs. Mrs. Beavais, after identifying Fred's handwriting on three insignificant notes, however, was said to have also identified a letter in which Fred told of the tents being on the place. $5,000 Bribe Offered Counsel for Mrs. Stillman called several French Canadians today to batter down evidence alleged to show that Mrs. Stillman miscondemned herself at their place along the St. Maurice valley. Others were summoned to support charges that attempts to bribe witnesses to tell of such improprieties were made by J. Albert LaFontaine, alleged representative of Mr. Stillman.

PLAY BALL! RINGS OUT BIG LEAGUE

President Harding Throws the First Ball in Opening Game at Washington With Senate and House Members Looking On—Big Crowds Turn Out in the East.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—President Harding was on the program to throw the first ball today and start the Nationals and the Yankees on their way in the 1922 championship race. Official business in Washington was expected to give way largely to the event, with members of the senate and house, with high officials of the army and navy and others planning to attend. The weather man had promised ideal baseball weather. The pitching selections were Morridge for Washington and Hoyt, the youthful star, for the opposition. The Chicago Americans started the season here with the St. Louis Browns today. The Urban boys, Faber, for the White Sox and Shocker for the Browns, have been picked as the opposing pitchers. K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, will watch the season get under way. The other American league game of the western end will be played at Cleveland with Detroit as the visiting team. The Tigers probably will start without their manager, Ty Cobb, who suffered an injury in an exhibition game. He expects to get back in condition before playing again. The National league schedule for this end of the circuit brings together Chicago and Cincinnati at the latter's home ground and Pittsburgh and St. Louis in the Cardinals' park.

New Yorkers Out. NEW YORK, April 12.—Warm weather, but overcast skies, ushered in the baseball season of 1922 here today. Weather forecasts, however, brought cheering assurance to the fans of Manhattan and Brooklyn that the elements would not mar the big day of the year for those who went to the Polo Grounds to see the national game. Douglas or Nehf was the pitcher considered as most likely to face the barrier for the Giants, while "Dutch" Ruether, whose work has shown remarkable form, was looked on as the hurrier for Brooklyn. New York was without the service of Frisch, second baseman, who was sent home from the south with an infection, but his place was taken by Rawlings, who played a star game in the world's series last fall. Brooklyn presented her strongest lineup. The Yankees were in Washington to open the American league season. Babe Ruth went to the capital city with his team mates, but had no hope of getting into the game as the sentence of suspension passed on him by Judge Landis was holding firm. Boston and Philadelphia also were ready for today's opening. The National league season was to be initiated in the Quaker city by the Braves, while Connie Mack's Athletics were in Boston to meet the Red Sox. Neither manager of the major league pennant winners of 1921 was predicting this year that his team will land in front, but each foresees close hardfought races. Manager McGraw, pilot of the Giants, world's champions, believed his combination was a better one than last year's aggregation, but he said the "breaks" would determine the outcome. "I never predict where my team is going to finish at the end of the season," said McGraw. "I'm too long in the business for that. But we'll be right in the fight from the start and the fans can look forward to a lot of good baseball at the Polo grounds this season. I figure that the same four teams in the lead last season, New York, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Boston, have a chance for the pennant and that the race will be just as interesting as a year ago."

200 POUND JANITOR HAS EARLY MORNING JOYRIDE IN ELEVATOR

KANSAS CITY, April 12.—For three hours early today Edward Samuel, a 200-pound janitor, dashed from the basement to the 13th floor of the Rialto building here in an elevator, while janitors, policemen and A. M. Marty, owner of the building, tried to induce him to call it a night and leave his cage. Policemen and janitors shut off the power from the elevator occupied by Samuel, but that was only half the battle. He held the door tight shut with a lever and announced he would not open unless Mr. Marty asked him to. Marty appeared at 3:30 in the morning, but by that time Samuel had apparently changed his mind and declined to open the door. Finally the top of the elevator was removed and two men leaped inside. The janitor accompanied them peacefully. He was taken to the county hospital for observation.
