ODESSA WOMEN NOT WORRYING ABOUT FASHIONS

ODESSA, April.—Spring fashions do not bother the women of Odessa. They have no new fashion journals, nor cloth with which to make new dresses. Women sometimes have a hat and a few yards of rough cloth to clothe themselves. Underclothing is an unknown quantity. So are stockings for the unlucky. Women who have cloaks or furs wear them in daytime, but at night leave them home. If they did not they would be robbed in the darkened streets. People who go to the theater travel backwards in groups for protection. This lack of clothing hits very hard the younger girls. One of them said to the correspondent: "I should like to go abroad, if only to get nice clothes." The older women in Russia, when talking of the chance of ever getting broad, say, "After all, if we got abroad, say, 'After all, if we got here our poverty more by the contrast. Here we are all dressed alike and more or less in rags and so long as we can get food enough, perhaps it is best that we stay in Russia.'"
