

THYE BEATS RAY IN CLOSE MATCH J. CARLSON WINS

Ted Thye, Portland wrestler, defeated Tony Ray of Omaha last night in the main event at Gold Hill. The end came unexpectedly, after one hour and six minutes of furious grappling when Thye landed his opponent on the mat with such force that the Nebraskan was unable to continue the match at the end of the fifteen minute rest period.

Thye gave his usual fine exhibition of cool headwork and skill and next to Ralph Hand he is probably the favorite mat artist of southern Oregonians because of his uniformly clean sportsmanship. Hay was a surprise to the fans as his aggressive tactics and ability kept the match even for the entire distance. Ray is slightly taller than Thye but the grapplers would probably weigh about the same. The grapplers were at work practically every minute and Thye seemed unable to clamp one of his famous arm holds on the Omaha man long enough to make any impression.

Ray secured a body scissors just as the first hour ended and he had been very aggressive up to this point. Thye rose to his feet with the Nebraskan clinging to him and toppled over, Ray striking on the back of his head. The fall did not seem sufficient to cause injury but Ray was badly dazed and unable to walk from the ring. He seemed in a bad way at the end of the fifteen minute rest period and gave every evidence of suffering. He declared he was willing to return to the ring but said he would not be able to do anything.

Johnny Carlson, always a favorite with the fans gained another victory to his credit when he secured a technical knockout over George Brandon of Portland in the fifth round of their six round boxing match. Brandon is a hard man to beat and has a record that would cause many a man more seasoned than Carlson to be careful when in the ring with him. Carlson however took the fight to the Portland boxer from the first gong and landed cleanly three after time. Brandon was evidently slowed up somewhat early in the game by the punishment and was groggy at the end of the fourth round. Carlson landed lefts and rights at the opening of the fifth canto and Brandon was out, clinging to the ropes when Referee Dickson stopped the fight.

Two youngsters were matched for an interesting preliminary. Young Blair taking two falls from Gray in a total of nine minutes. Blair had a repertoire of wrestling tricks worthy of a seasoned grappler.

Ralph Hand was present and challenged Tom Ray, and Kid Hitchie of Grants Pass issued a challenge to the winner of the Carlson-Brandon go.

The Gold Hill promoters dished up a fine line of entertainment for the fans last night and the large numbers present were well pleased with the entire show.

REDDING, Calif., April 12.—A paved highway from here to Mexico will greet California motorists June 1 if present speed of construction is maintained, in the belief of engineers who are now superintending the pouring of concrete on the last remaining lap of the state highway between Red Bluff and this city. Only a three mile gap on Cottonwood hill remains to be surfaced.

THIRD NECKTIE PARTY STAGED IN 'VILLE DISTRICT

For the third time during the past few weeks self appointed masked and armed bands were abroad creating terror last Sunday night and adding much to the apprehension of the people of the valley.

In this last episode Jacksonville men are featured. The most striking feature of the so-called vigilantes was the suspension of a rope around a young man's neck in an ineffectual effort to induce him to confess to certain accusations.

County Prosecutor Rawles Moore and Sheriff Terrill were busy investigating this case yesterday and today, and the government representatives here still investigating into the Hale and Aaron Burr bluff hangings have gathered still more evidence against the lawless bands which will be presented to the federal grand jury and possibly to the Jackson county grand jury in the near future.

Sunday night's developments began with Alac Norris, his son in law, Mr. Gooding, garage man; Paul York, aged 22 years, and Henry Johnson, leaving that city at 5 p. m. in an auto truck to get some machinery at Ashland. They did not get the machinery and were on their way home when near the Voorhies crossing their lights went out and a short time later two cars in which were seven masked men approached them and held them up at the point of revolvers. The men all wore flimsy veils with eyeholes cut out. This was at 11 p. m.

The masked band ordered Gooding and Norris to drive further up the road. Then one of the men took young York to one side, admonished him to go to work and never be seen with Johnson again. Then five or six of the others took Johnson away a short distance and accused him of the chicken stealing that had been going on in Jacksonville. This Johnson stoutly denied, whereupon his captors shouted for a rope which they put around his neck and pulled taut.

Johnson still denied that he had ever stole chickens and then was asked if he ever peddled any booze and if he ever associated with any white women. He also denied these imputations vehemently. In the meantime the captors had gone through the motions of searching the auto truck as if they expected to find some moonshine there.

Finally they asked Johnson, "Nigger, could you run, and let him go with the warning to speed away. They had addressed him as "nigger," all the way through.

STILLMAN CASE RESUMED

Sheriff Stillman testified that he overheard LeFontaine offer $5,000 to two workmen if they would swear they had seen wrongful conduct by Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais. This offer was alleged to have been made in June, 1920, just before Mr. Stillman filed his charges. Both testified in New York that they had peeped through windows and keyholes at the Stillman camp and seen Mrs. Stillman improperly conducting herself with Beauvais.

CITY AUTO CAMP IS DISCUSSED, BUT NO CONCLUSION

The city auto camp question was exhaustively discussed at the Chamber of Commerce forum luncheon at the Hotel Medford today and only through the able efforts of Col. Payne as chairman was an all-afternoon oratorical riot averted.

Messrs. Frobach, Vernon Vawter, Gaddis, Getchell, Walther, Merrick, Grey, Wortman, Millard and Mrs. Merrick all aired their views on the matter, the majority of them taking the floor several times.

The question seems to be whether the camp shall be owned and operated by a private owner or by the municipality. Different opinions were expressed by the individuals who spoke but no definite conclusion was reached.

The camp this year must be improved, it was pointed out, as it has been decided to make it a standardized camp and to charge tourists 50 cents per day per car with a 10 day limit. It is the opinion of Secretary Frobach that in order to give the campers something for their money modern conveniences, such as shower baths with hot and cold water, and similar things must be installed.

Mr. Merrick, who owns the land where the auto camp is now situated, has been leveling the ground and intends to install conveniences and run the camp privately should the city refuse his offer.

The question was turned over by the city council to the following committee some time ago. Vernon Vawter, Alex Sparrow, Gain Robinson, W. Y. Crewson and George Hunt. This committee which is made up of Chamber of Commerce members has not yet arrived at a definite conclusion and the chairman, Vernon Vawter, was unable to make any concrete recommendation today. However, the committee has arrived at three different solutions of the problem:

1.—To accept Mr. Merrick's proposition and buy the land and operate the camp.

2.—To utilize the city property on both sides of Bear creek south of the city market.

3.—To enter into a joint agreement with Mr. Merrick and to leave the management and operation of the camp to him.

Mr. Merrick stated that whether the city accepted his proposition or not made no difference to him. In fact, he said that he would rather that it would not be accepted and that if such was the case he would operate the camp privately. He stated also that he did not care for a guarantee from the city that it would not open another camp ground.

The question of how the thing shall be handled is still in the hands of the committee, the meeting having adjourned before a great amount of knowledge in regard to the question had been gained by any of the individuals present.
